NANKING SLUMS SET AFIRE BY 50 JAP PLANES

200 Bombs Rain on China's Capital.

Tokio Soothes London

LONDON—Great Britain receives formal apology from Japan for shooting of Sir Hughe Knatchbull-Hugessen, British ambassador to China, by Japanese aviators. London foreign office says incident is closed. Page 4.

BULLETIN.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

TOKIO, Sept. 23 (Thursday).—Gen. Chiang Kai-shek, dictator of China, gravely concerned over the repeated bombing of Nanking, has decided to remove the seat of government to Chengtu, Szechwan province, according to information received here today.

BULLETIN.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 23 (Thursday).—(AP)—Japanese warships today bombarded the Kiangsu province port of Haichow, on the coast about 200 miles north of here. Shells hit the station of the Lunghai railway, great trunk line across Central China. Warships also fired into the work yards of the newly modernized port, the Shanghai office of the Netherlands Harbor works reported. Property damage was heavy.

NANKING, Sept. 22.—(AP)—Japan's threat to rain death and destruction on China's capital was carried out today in disregard of American, British, French and German protests against unrestricted bombing of a great city.

More than 50 Japanese planes took part in two raids, killing or wounding more than 200 Chinese civilians, mostly in the poorer quarters of the city. Many were burned to death as incendiary bombs lighted tinder-like straw huts in the Hsiakwan slum area along the Yangtze river front.

Most of those who died were too feeble or helpless to join the great exodus to the open countryside to escape the death from the skies. The streets were littered with mangled and burned bodies of old men, women and children.

Refugees Cower Among Dead.

Cowering among the dead were hundreds of helpless refugees, apparently too terror stricken to join the rush from the city, which went on all day and far into the night, by motor car, ricksha, wheelbarrow—any means of travel available.

Tonight thousands were encamped in the countryside around this city, believing it inevitable that the Japanese air armada would strike again.

After the raids Ambassador Nelson T. Johnson of the United States, accompanied by his entire staf, returned to the American embassy from the gunboat Luzon, to which he had withdrawn Monday when the Japanese gave warning of their intention to subject Nanking to devastating air bombardment.

Declines to Explain Action.

The ambassador, who had maintained offices aboard the Luzon on the Yangtze river, indicated he and his staf intended to remain ashore. He declined to explain his action beyond remarking, "It's just as safe here as on the river."

Chinese officials expressed gratification at the American envoy's return, assuming he acted on instructions from Washington, D. C.

The Japanese raiders were over Nanking a total of four hours, bombing and fighting spectacular combats with the Chinese who rose to meet them. There were many thrilling individual combats. Loops, breath taking dives, sensational climbs were seen everywhere as the enemy air fleets battled for position.

30 Sections of City Bombed.

Thirty sections of the capital were attacked by the Japanese. The stations of two of China's most important railways, the Shanghai-Nanking and Tientsin-Pukow lines, were bombed. Bombs aimed at the headquarters of the Koumintang—the ruling political party—destroyed a hotel nearby. Other bombs missed the ministry of interior and the local garrison headquarters and destroyed a Chinese pawnshop.

Chinese officials said four raiding planes were shot down, one in the

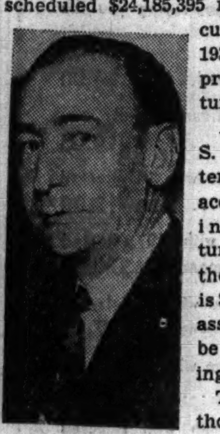
FIND MILLIONS KEPT FROM TAX LISTS IN COUNTY

Values to Be Raised, Lowering Rates.

Evanston and Oak Park taxpayers scheduled $24,185,395 in cash and securities on their 1936 personal property tax returns.



Assessor Clark.

Assessor John S. Clark said yesterday that his access to federal income tax returns shows that the actual value is $217,415,475. His assessment will be made accordingly.

This newly authorized federal tax information, which will be utilized in analyzing all personal property returns in the county, will enable the assessor to make a heavy increase in the amount of personalty listed for taxation this year. As a result of the addition of securities and cash to the personal property tax lists, the assessor predicted a lower real estate tax rate which will benefit real estate owners and will result also in a lower personal property tax rate.

Disclosures in Evanston.

Residents of Evanston scheduled $14,159,975 in securities and cash in their 1936 personal property returns compared to an actual value of $130,773,040 in the income tax figures. Known owners of such intangibles numbered only 1,977 in 1936. Now 1,169 have been added to the list for a total of 3,146 in 1937.

In assessing stocks, bonds, and cash Mr. Clark's office debases the full value by 80 per cent and then supplies the 37 per cent equalization factor. Therefore, the assessed value on $130,773,040 of intangibles disclosed in Evanston would be $9,477,201. The assessed value for 1936, however, on the basis of personal property returns, was only $1,041,324.

The $9,477,201 will be the approximate assessed valuation for Evanston intangibles in 1937, according to the assessor. He said this figure will be reduced slightly because some of the intangibles are federal tax exempt securities and others are securities of Illinois corporations, which are taxed at their sources and not through their holders.

Figures for Oak Park.

In Oak Park, taxpayers scheduled only $10,025,420 as the full value of their intangible holdings in 1936, but the federal figures show this value actually to have been $86,642,435. There were 1,890 known holders of intangibles. From the federal information, 804 have been added to the list, making a total of 2,694 for 1337.

Applying the 80 per cent debasement and the 37 per cent equalization factor to $86,642,435, the assessed value would be $6,399,174, which is approximately the figure that will be used for 1937. In 1936, the assessed value on Oak Park intangibles was only $742,625.

To illustrate discrepancies between the personal property schedule and income tax returns on intangibles Clark gave four examples from Evanston and four from Oak Park. The figures in the examples for each of the suburbs have been added together so as not to divulge the identity of the taxpayers, which would be a violation of the federal law.

Differences in Returns Listed.

The four taxpayers in Evanston filed personal property returns listing the full value of their intangibles as $86,675. This was debased 80 per cent, to $17,335, and the 37 per cent equalization factor further reduced it to $6,414. The Evanston tax rate for 1936 was $6.78 for each $100 of assessed valuation, and on this basis the four property owners paid a total personalty tax bill of $434.86.

The federal figures revealed that these four taxpayers actually had intangibles with a full value of $5,809,945, nearly 70 times as much as they scheduled in their personalty returns. After applying the debasement figure

FRESHMEN'S LEADER INSURED FOR 2 DAYS AGAINST KIDNAPING

Cleveland, O., Sept. 22.—(AP)—If Jack Eichler, leader of Case School of Applied Science freshmen, is kidnaped prior to Friday's annual frosh-sophomore bag rush, Lloyd's of London will be "holding the bag."

Enterprising freshmen pooled resources today and insured Eicher with Lloyd's for $10,000 against the traditional hazard of bag rush kidnaping.

The policy was obtained through Eugene S. Davis, Cleveland insurance broker. All parties concerned withheld the amount of the premium.

LIONS DINE ON PRAIRIE DOG PIE AND ALL SURVIVE

Estancia, N. M., Sept. 22.—(AP)—Beaming with health on the crucial "morning after," a hardy little band of local epicures today hailed a new delicacy—"prairie dog pie."

The rugged little rodent has been a western range scourge as old as the range itself, but no one ever thought of eating him before. Two dozen culinary explorers of the Estancia Lions club sat down at the festive board last night and dined upon prairie dog—a project new in scope and frankly experimental in purpose.

Results were colossal. Thirteen prairie dogs were eaten in toto and no faces were missing from accustomed haunts this morning. Consensus was:

Prairie dog tastes very much like [1] chicken, [2] frog's legs, [3] rabbit, [4] young turkey, and [5] prairie dog.

'King Neptune,' Ruler Over Beauty Fetes, Dies at 95

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 22.—(AP)—"King Neptune"—Thaddeus Cowden, who presided over national beauty pageants here from 1921 to 1927—died tonight of heart disease. He was 95 years old. The veteran commercial fisherman passed away lacking his principal pride—the flowing white beard that won him the job of king. It was clipped off several days ago at Atlantic City hospital as a sanitary measure. Although he lived modestly he was reputed wealthy.

Ruth Roland, Thriller Star, Is Dead at 39

Hollywood, Cal., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—Ruth Roland, known as the "queen of the thriller serials" two decades ago in the days of the silent movies, died at her home here today. She was 39 years old.

The actress, who built up one of the largest fortunes in Hollywood in real estate, following her retirement from the screen, had been ill five months.

With her at her death was her actor husband, Ben Bard, wealthy west coast theater owner and former vaudeville partner of Jack Pearl.

Noted for Business Skill.

Miss Roland was considered one of the big business women of southern California. During the depression, when others were losing vast holdings, her fortune was estimated at $3,500,000.

She began her stage career as a child in San Francisco with her appearance as "Baby Ruth" in Ed Holden's "Cinderella" company. She came to the movies in 1912 and soon advanced to stardom in the then popular serials.

Real Old Time Thrills.

Some of the fast action wild west plays in which she starred were "Ruth of the Rockies," "Ruth of the Range," and "The Timber Queen." The villains were real blackguards in those movies and the pretty heroine was usually tied to a railroad track or threatened with death on a big, spinning log saw.

Ruth performed her own film stunts until she was thrown from a horse. The accident caused a spinal injury that troubled her for years.

Appears in One Talkie.

She appeared in only one talking picture, "Reno," which was written by Cornelius Vanderbilt Jr. After completion of that picture she made a nine months' vaudeville tour.

About fifteen years ago Miss Roland retired from the screen to devote her entire time to her extensive real estate holdings. The rapid development of her Los Angeles property almost was as spectacular as the action in her screen thrillers.

Her property consisted principally of business lots in the Wilshire-Fairfax district, east of Beverly Hills,

CHATFIELD-TAYLOR ILL; FORCED TO GIVE UP ALL CIVIC DUTIES

Santa Barbara, Cal., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—Hobart C. Chatfield-Taylor, author and publicist, in withdrawing today from all civic responsibilities, disclosed that at the coronation of King Goerge VI. he suffered a heart attack which has not responded to treatment. In resigning as chairman of the chamber of commerce national defense committee, the author wrote that his doctor had forbidden him to attend meetings of any sort or climb stairways.

Mr. Chatfield-Taylor, native and long a resident of Chicago, went to London with Mrs. Chatfield-Taylor as a guest of the British admiralty. His latest book was "Charmed Circles."

EDUCATOR PLAYS TOO MANY JOKES AND LOSES WIFE

Cambridge, Mass., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—After testifying that her husband, John B. Crane, Harvard economics instructor, was a "practical joker" whose joke on one occasion consisted of hurling a prickly cactus plant at her while she was bent over, Mrs. Catherine Crane of Belmont today was granted an uncontested divorce.

Mrs. Crane told the court that the dignity of the classroom was entirely absent from their home. She described how, on another occasion, her husband had chased her about their home, holding a mouse by the tail which he threatened to drop down her back.

In addition to the charges of being a "practical joker" Mrs. Crane also alleged that her husband went out with other women and that on many occasions he made dates on the telephone with unnamed women while she was present.

Edward A. Filene Stricken with Pneumonia in Paris

PARIS, Sept. 22.—(AP)—Edward A. Filene, Boston merchant, suffering his second attack of pneumonia in two years, was in a serious condition today at the American hospital. The crisis of the normal course of the ailment was due Friday or Saturday. Two years ago Filene was stricken with pneumonia in Moscow.

Schumacher, Davis to Pitch Deciding Game

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

The Cubs, who in five straight games had marched threateningly toward a National league pennant, fell back yesterday in the face of a relentless assault from New York's pace-making Giants. The league leaders, who had been burned by Cub brilliance on Tuesday, came back as if nothing had happened. They hammered the ball, fielded sensationally before 41,875 spectators who wanted to cheer but couldn't, and sent the Cubs reeling back to two and one-half games from the top. The score was 6 to 0.

There's still a chance for the Cubs, but it's slim. Today Curt Davis, who as a Philly was a competent Giant tamer but whose record against them this year is one defeat, will try to advance his mates to where they stood before yesterday's rout. Hal Schumacher, beaten three times by the Cubs this season, will be intrusted with the job of moving the Cubs back another full game. And if he succeeds the race will be about over.

Eighteenth Victory for Melton.

The Cubs, who had slashed the Giant pitching in the first game, yesterday found themselves confronted by a lad who apparently knew where he was going and how to get there. The tormentor was the reedlike Cliff [Lefty] Melton, who towers 6 feet 4½ inches. With the bleacher background making his overhand delivery doubly deceptive, the tall boy achieved his eighteenth victory of the season on an allowance of six hits and no bases on balls, while his fellow workers were pounding Tex Carleton, Clay Bryant, and Bob Logan, the rookie left hander.

Carleton, in trouble most of the time, handled the pitching for eight innings, but only half the Giants' runs occurred during his régime. The Giants picked up these three runs one at a time, two because Chicago born Johnny McCarthy hit in the pinches. The three others scored in the ninth off Bryant and Logan, although Bryant might have escaped if a jam hadn't been precipitated by Billy Herman's crashing into Phil Cavarretta on a fly ball. Herman's elbow rammed into Cavarretta's face and forced the latter's retirement.

Cubs Bog Down.

The feebleness against Melton's southpawing was not the only defect in the Cubs' attack. There were two base running lapses. One of the offenders was Gabby Hartnett, who tried to stretch a single into a double in the fifth when there was no apparent chance of success. Two hits followed and thus the Cubs compiled a record of three hits in a row without getting a man past second. Rip Collins made a similar attempt in the seventh and the result was the same.

Because of the quantity of Giant runs, the Cubs' base running blun-

HEADS TOWARD COAST IN TEST OF POPULARITY

Silent on Black as He Boards Special.

Halts in Rail Yards

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT will be in Chicago today for about an hour. No formal greetings are planned, as Mr. Roosevelt is to return Oct. 5 to dedicate the new outer drive bridge. Mayor Kelly and other officials are expected to board the train to discuss details of the dedication. The Presidential special will arrive at the New York Central's Root street yards, west of State street, about 10:30 a. m., and will leave on the North Western railway about noon.

BY WALTER TROHAN.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Aboard Presidential Special, en route to Seattle, Sept. 22.—[Special.]—President Roosevelt this afternoon began a swing of campaign proportions to the Pacific coast to determine whether the defeat of his Supreme court packing plan and the appointment of Justice Hugo L. Black, lately revealed klansman, have affected his popularity among the citizenry.

The President left without a word on Justice Black, whose affiliation with the Ku Klux Klan is embarrassing the administration. Mr. Roosevelt will be dedicating the fair grounds at Grand Forks, N. D., at the time the former Alabama senator is scheduled to take his seat on the bench of the Supreme court.

The President went aboard his special train at Hyde Park, N. Y., a short distance from his family home, and sought seclusion in his private car, the Roald Amundsen.

Will Arrive About 10:30.

At 4 o'clock in the afternoon the presidential special left for Chicago on the first lap of the western journey. The train will enter the yards of the New York Central railroad at about 10:30, Chicago time, tomorrow morning. It will be switched by the Chicago Belt Line to the tracks of the Chicago and North Western railroad at noon, Chicago time, for the run into the northwest.

Mr. Roosevelt had dinner from his private kitchen aboard the private car with Mrs. Roosevelt and a few members of the White House staf. The private car is not served by the diner of the special train.

Immediately ahead of the President's car, for which he pays twenty fares out of his annual travel allowance of $25,000, is the White House staf. In the ten car train reporters and secret service men divide the third car. The diner takes the fourth place. After the diner are three drawing room and compartment cars shared by reporters, photographers, and newsreel men.

Club Car and "Combo."

The train also carries a club car. Ahead of the club car is a Pullman, which houses the attendants of the dining car and other railroad employés.

The car behind the engine is known as a "combo" because it is divided between baggage and sleeping quarters for the train staf. "The "combo" carries the ramp which the President uses to board and leave the train.

Before he left Hyde Park the President announced the formation of a new foundation to unify the fight against infantile paralysis. He also approved final plans for a voluntary unemployment census.

"I firmly believe the time has arrived when the whole attack on this plague should be led and directed, though not controled, by one national body," Mr. Roosevelt said regarding the paralysis program.

Provides Aid for All.

"The new foundation will carry on a broad gauged educational campaign, prepared under expert medical supervision, and this will be placed within reach of the doctors and the hospitals of the country.

"To investigate, to study, to develop every medical possibility of enabling those so afflicted to become economically independent in their local communities will be one of the chief aims of the new foundation.

"The work must start immediately. It cannot be delayed. Its activities will include, among many others, those of the Georgia Warm Springs Foundation, of which I have been president since its inception. The personnel will be announced as soon as it is completed."

$5,000,000 for Count of Idle.

John D. Biggers, administrator of the unemployment census, said he expected the count to be completed before Dec. 1. He said the President had given him adequate authority and approved an expenditure up to $5,000,000.

The postoffice department will handle the distribution, collection, and preliminary check of registration cards that will be sent to 31 million homes. The employed will ignore the blanks and the unemployed will be asked to register.

Mr. Roosevelt will go on the air to encourage registration. The plan contemplates no compulsion, but will rely on an appeal to the country.

Hoover's Peril Recalled.

Travel on a presidential special is a series of headaches for railroad officials and telegraph companies. Twenty-four hours before the train passes a given point the track is patrolled by maintenance men to see that the rails are in perfect order.

In the administration of President Hoover a fanatic removed the spikes from a railroad tie. He failed to wreck the special because the rail held up, although the spikes were removed before the passage of the pilot train and special. The tie gave away, however, for the following train.

On all presidential specials the train itself is preceded by a pilot. This train, which goes from two to five miles ahead of the special, blazes the trail to see that no obstructions are in the way of the special.

Behind the special is a second engine, so placed to pull the special out of difficulty should some one succeed in wrecking the special despite the precautions of the pilot train. Never in the memory of White House attachés has the trailer engine been used, but still it tags along on every trip. As a further precaution the switches over which the special passes are locked from two to six hours before the President is due.

Echo of Coolidge Economy.

Technically the train is not a special. To railroad men it is merely a section of the closest timed through train. This is due to the economy of President Coolidge, who rebelled against the assessment for private cars and once took a drawing room on a regular train to Chicago. The railroads, after the harrying experience of trying to keep passengers out of the President's car, voted that the chief executive of the United States could have a private car for twenty fares. Mr. Roosevelt enjoys this concession.

Aboard his private car Mr. Roosevelt has an observation room from which he waves to the curious at station platforms. This is immediately ahead of the rear platform from which he makes impromptu speeches.

During the night, White House Secretary Stephen Early, who is vacationing in the Great Lakes region, will put aboard some live trout caught in Ohio waters.

WILKINS GIVES UP ARCTIC HUNT FOR RUSSIAN FLYERS

BARROW, Alaska, Sept. 22.—(AP)—Sir George Hubert Wilkins, explorer, today abandoned, at least temporarily, his Arctic search for six lost Russian transpolar flyers.

In the powerful plane which had taken him on five long scouting flights over the Arctic ocean, Wilkins took off from Aklavik for Fort Smith, 1,150 miles southward in northwest Canada, en route to New York.

Information at Edmonton was that Wilkins planned to obtain in New York a plane more suitable for northern winter flying, and to return to the search for Sigismund Levanevsky and his five companions, last heard from on Aug. 13 shortly after they had reported passing the north pole on their attempted Moscow-Fairbanks flight. Two planes, both Russian, remained here in the search.

BLACK INQUIRY 'IMPERTINENCE,' CUMMINGS SAYS

Expect Attorney General to Question Fort.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—Attorney General Homer S. Cummings, who declared on Aug. 4 that it was the duty and practice of the justice department to investigate the qualifications of all prospective appointees to the federal judiciary, said today that it would have been an "act of impertinence" to investigate the fitness of Hugo L. Black.

The justice department not only failed to investigate Black's qualifications prior to his nomination to the Supreme court on Aug. 12, Cummings declared, but took no cognizance of the subsequent allegations that he was a member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Former Partner of Black.

The attorney general, however, said it was a "safe bet" that he would have a talk with William E. Fort, special assistant attorney general. It was revealed yesterday that Fort was Black's law partner for two years and fellow lodge member in the Birmingham, Ala., Ku Klux Klan for three years prior to 1926. Black was running for the senate at this time and "resigned" for political reasons, although he subsequently accepted a life membership.

Cummings did not reveal what he expects to learn from his talk with Mr. Fort, who was not consulted about Black's appointment, nor what he plans to do if Fort discloses his intimate knowledge of Black's klan background. Fort was one of the witnesses whom opposition senators wished to call before the judiciary committee to swear that Black had been a Kluxer.

Statement Is Recalled.

On Aug. 4, eight days before Black's nomination by President Roosevelt, when more than a score of names had been mentioned for the Supreme court vacancy, Attorney General Cummings declared:

"One of the duties of the department of justice is to submit suggestions to the President. That involves an investigation into their qualifications and applies to all the federal courts."

Today Mr. Cummings said:

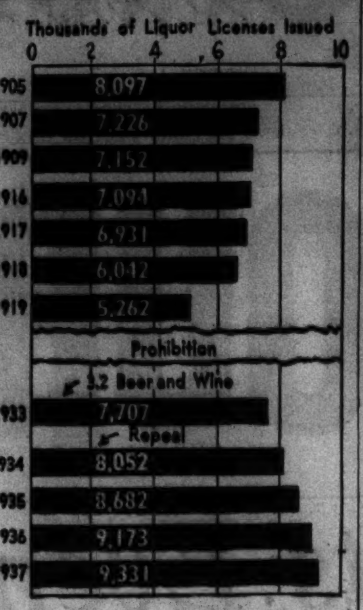
"Indeed it is not the practice of the department of justice to make investigations into the private life of prospective appointees to the United States Supreme court. No investigation was made at the time that either Mr. Justice Hughes or Mr. Justice Roberts was appointed. While I have not examined the records, I would be very much surprised if Mr. Justice Stone, attorney general at the time, investigated himself prior to his appointment."

Unusual, He Declares.

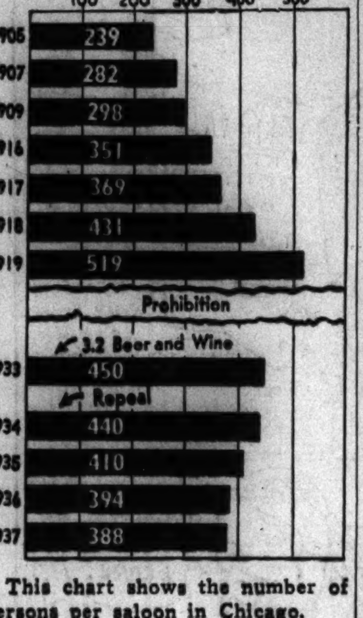
Cummings said it would be particularly unusual for the justice department to conduct an investigation "in the case of a member of the senate, whose colleagues are thoroughly acquainted with his qualifications, personality, affiliations, and character." Such an investigation, he said, would be "regarded as an act of impertinence."

With Justice Black now en route to the United States and scheduled to reach Norfolk, Va., Sept. 29, dispatches from Europe indicate that he will refrain from making any statement concerning the revelations that he accepted a lifetime membership in the klan until he has had an opportunity to confer with friends in this country.

Saloons Hit Peak



This chart shows the number of saloons in Chicago for representative years from 1905 to 1937, with the exception of the prohibition years, 1920 to 1932. The city council set the maximum at 7,152 for the years 1909 to 1915, inclusive.



This chart shows the number of persons per saloon in Chicago.

Chicago has the largest number of retail liquor establishments in its history, with 9,331 licenses issued for the second half of 1937, but there are fewer liquor dispensaries according to population than in a number of other years. This was shown yesterday by figures compiled by City Collector Louis Rixmann and Municipal Librarian Frederick Rex.

The pre-prohibition peak in the number of licenses was in 1905, when 8,097 saloons—one for each 239 persons—were in operation. The following year the annual license fee was raised from $500 to $1,000 and the number of saloons dropped to 7,180 by 1908. Saloons now pay the city $600 a year.

Now there is one establishment for each 388 persons.

DUCE TO BE POPE'S ENVOY TO HITLER ON CHURCH STRIFE

Seeks End of 'Persecution' in Germany.

CASTEL GANDOLFO, Italy, Sept. 22.—(AP)—Pope Pius tonight approved a long memorandum on the position of the Catholic church in Germany, and it was learned reliably the paper then was handed to Premier Mussolini to be brought to Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler's attention at Munich or Berlin—during Mussolini's forthcoming visit there.

The Italian Duce may thus act as the pope's intermediary to bring about the betterment of the religious situation in Germany, which the pope said today is "deplorable."

Makes Language Stronger.

The memorandum was compiled on the basis of material furnished the past few days, on request, by German ecclesiastical authorities. Cardinal Pacelli, Vatican secretary of state, compiled the data for the pope's consideration.

The pope was understood not only to have approved but to have strengthened some of the document's phraseology.

The pope spoke of Germany's religious state today to 1,500 pilgrims, including hundreds of Germans, a number of Austrians, and 350 newlyweds.

Praises Faith of Austria.

The pope recalled that, on a visit to Germany in former years, he gained a most favorable impression. These memories, now, he said, are "sad memories, because the present is truly deplorable."

To the Austrians he observed: "Your country also is traversing difficult times for religion, but we are confident Austria will remain a faithfully Catholic country in central Europe."

ASYLUM INMATE GETS 817 VOTES IN ATLANTIC CITY

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 22.—(AP)—William H. West, an inmate of the Atlantic county insane asylum, ran for nomination for the legislature in yesterday's primary. In Atlantic City alone he got 817 votes. He ran as an "independent Republican."

He was confined several weeks ago after secret service men arrested him on a charge of sending President Roosevelt threatening letters. West contended he brought about Roosevelt's nomination at the Chicago convention in 1932 by projecting "thought waves" from Atlantic City to vacillating delegates.

Secret service men said West threatened to turn the same thought waves against the President if he were not "suitably rewarded."

HITLER DECLARES PUBLIC HOLIDAYS IN DUCE'S HONOR

Rejoice Over His Visit, Germans Told.

BY SIGRID SCHULTZ.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, Sept. 22.—The visit of Premier Mussolini of Italy to Berlin, hailed as "an event which counts among the most important in the history of the German capital," was announced today in a proclamation by Dr. Paul Joseph Goebbels, minister of propaganda.

Il Duce will stay in Berlin three days—from next Monday to Wednesday. He first will go to Munich, where he will arrive on Saturday. Both Saturday and next Tuesday have been set aside as official holidays in the two cities.

Schools Will Close.

Reichsfuehrer Hitler, who will confer with the Italian leader during the latter's visit, ordered all places of business except food shops closed in Berlin and Munich on those days. He also ordered schools shut. The Fuehrer decreed that the German swastika and Italian tricolor flags be flown by public buildings throughout the Reich from Saturday to Wednesday.

Festivities in Mussolini's honor will reach a climax in Berlin on Tuesday with a great demonstration in Olympic stadium. Hitler and Il Duce will speak before thousands of Germans assembled there.

To Attend Sham War.

Mussolini will attend German army maneuvers in Mecklenburg during his stay. He will reside in Castle Schlitz with Hitler and various Italian ministers.

Goebbels' proclamation concerning Mussolini's trip to Berlin follows:

"Four and a half million residents of Berlin shall have the opportunity to witness an event which counts among the most brilliant and most important in the history of the German capital.

"With proud satisfaction the entire population greets this historic meeting of two men whose historic activities are of unique importance for the present and the future. The Berlin population is filled with deep joy that it can render enthusiastic thanks to the creator of young Fascist Italy, the friend of the German people, for the honor of his visit.

Urged to Pay Homage.

"We know in Berlin he will be received by a wave of rejoicing and will be surrounded by the love and affection of the entire population. All Berlin will pay homage to both men who, arising from the depths of their people, have become true leaders of their nations."

Twelve uniforms, the first consignment of Mussolini's luggage, arrived here today from Rome along with appropriate headgear. A large box also contained six of Il Duce's standards, some for his automobiles and one large one which is to be hoisted over the roof of the former presidential palace in Wilhelmstrasse while he is in residence there.

SCHOOL LEADERS CONFER TODAY ON PARALYSIS PERIL

Bundesen Calls Meeting to Study Situation.

LESSON BROADCASTS.

The schedule for today's lesson broadcasts for Chicago elementary school pupils, with stations, times, and subjects listed according to grades, appears in this edition with the other radio programs on page 16.

To acquaint them with the latest developments in the outbreak of infantile paralysis as they affect the reopening of elementary schools, Dr. Herman N. Bundesen, president of the board of health, yesterday called a conference today with officials of the public and parochial school systems.

This meeting does not mean that the health department knows when the ban may be lifted for the reopening of grade schools, closed since Sept. 7 as a measure to prevent the spread of the disease, Dr. Bundesen said. On the basis of yesterday's figures, he said, the date for reopening cannot yet be set.

Three New Cases Reported.

The health department yesterday received reports of three new cases during the 24 hours ending at 8 a. m., raising the total since Aug. 1 to 265 known cases. One death in the same period was the twenty-second within the city limits since Aug. 1.

Those asked to meet with Dr. Bundesen today are James B. McCahey, president of the board of education; Dr. William H. Johnson, superintendent of the public schools; the Rev. D. F. Cunningham, superintendent of schools in the Chicago Catholic archdiocese; Dr. L. D. Moorehead of Loyola university, medical adviser to the Catholic schools, and Paul T. Buszin, superintendent of the Lutheran schools.

"I want them to be acquainted fully with all the current developments in the situation," Dr. Bundesen declared.

City Circulars on Disease.

Distribution to parents soon of 310,000 circulars describing the symptoms of infantile paralysis and recommended treatment was assured yesterday. The city council passed an order at Dr. Bundesen's request providing for printing of the circulars at a cost of $970.

At Washington the federal public health service yesterday announced 879 new cases throughout the country for the week ending Sept. 18, the highest of any week this year. Up to Sept. 18 the service reported 6,391 new cases this year, compared with 2,261 in the same period in 1936.

which were converted from wide waste areas into what has been known as "the miracle mile" of the business property now the site of skyscrapers.

Business Gets Most Time.

Although Miss Roland found considerable time for social activities, she spent most of her time looking after her business interests.

Her first husband, L. E. Kent, was manager of her business affairs and continued in that post even after their divorce in 1919. He still holds the same job.

Miss Roland's marriage to Bard in 1929 was one of the more elaborate in Hollywood. About 1,000 invitations were issued.

Bard and an aunt, Edith Thompson, are Miss Roland's only survivors.

Garr Brothers Denied Bail in Denhardt Slaying Case

Shelbyville, Ky., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—Despite the confident prediction of townsfolk to the contrary, the three Garr brothers today were denied freedom on bail pending their examining trial Friday for the slaying of Brig. Gen. Henry H. Denhardt.

Although friends of the popular gun-toting brothers were said to be ready to raise any amount necessary for their bond, County Judge H. F. Walters refused to release them.

The three defendants, Jack, Roy, and Dr. E. S. Garr, have been in jail here since Monday night, when they shot down the prominent soldier-politician on the eve of his second trial on a charge of murdering their sister, Mrs. Verna Garr Taylor, comely La Grange widow.

Prosecutor Opposes Release.

Commonwealth's Attorney H. B. Kinsolving Jr., who bitterly prosecuted Denhardt in his first trial last May which ended in a disagreement, opposed releasing the Garr brothers on bond, at least until their arraignment.

J. Ballard Clark, chief counsel for the Garrs, refused to say whether they would waive examining trial or risk showing the commonwealth their line of defense by going through with it. The brothers have indicated they will plead self-defense on the contention they believed Denhardt was reaching for a gun when they fired seven bullets into his body.

While waiting their release the brothers lolled comfortably on the screened porch of the red brick jail and chatted cheerfully and confidently with their friends on the streets below.

Friends Give Assurance.

A solicitude for their comfort and a concern for their future was in great evidence. Their fellow citizens assured them they would soon be released on bond.

Meanwhile, in the Bowling Green home of the assassins' victim, a hero's funeral was in preparation for Gen. Denhardt tomorrow. Plans were made to give him the last honors due a veteran of three wars and a former lieutenant governor and adjutant general of Kentucky.

After private services at the home where he and his sister, Miss Bertha Denhardt, lived the body will be taken to Denhardt hall to lie in state until a military funeral at 2 p. m. Leading dignitaries of the state are expected to attend the rites.

The flag atop Kentucky's state capitol at Frankfort was noticeably not at half mast today, the position in which it is usually lowered upon the death of former state officials. There was no explanation from official sources.

LEAPS IN FRONT OF TRAIN, SAVES FAINTING FATHER

New York, Sept. 22.—[Special.]—A boy jumped in the path of a subway train at Times square today in an attempt to save his father, who had fainted and fallen to the tracks. While the boy was unable to get his father back to the platform unaided, his frantic efforts were observed by the motorman, who managed to stop the train a few feet away.

The father, Paul Kuchegde, 42, was standing with his son, Paul Jr., 19, near the center stairway.

Waiting passengers saw the older man fall at about the time they heard the southbound local pulling into the station. The onlookers gasped as the boy jumped down directly in the path of the thundering train and began tugging at the unconscious form on the tracks.

The screams of the people on the platform and the presence of the boy on the tracks caught the attention of the motorman of the train, who threw his motors into reverse.

Window Washers Win Pay Increase; Strike Averted

A threatened strike of window washers was averted yesterday when an agreement was reached between their union and a contractors' association. JAP APOLOGY FOR SHOOTING ENVOY SOOTHES BRITAIN

London Declares Incident Is Closed.

BY SAM BREWER.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Sept. 22.—Japan's apology for an airplane attack on Sir Hughe Knatchbull-Hugessen, British ambassador to China, was made public here tonight by the foreign office and the incident was declared closed.

Sir Hughe was wounded Aug. 26 by machine gun bullets when two airplanes attacked two automobiles in which he and his party were traveling from Nanking to Shanghai. The planes were identified as Japanese. The British protested against the attack in a sharp note to Tokio three days later.

Japanese Duck Question.

Ducking the question of punishment for the guilty pilots which was demanded by the British, the Japanese reply said:

"The Japanese government will take suitable steps whenever it is established that Japanese aviators killed or wounded intentionally or through negligence the nationals belonging to a third country."

The note admitted that Japanese aviators might have been responsible for the attack on the ambassador since they machine gunned two cars "which were believed in all sincerity to be military buses or trucks carrying officers or soldiers of the Chinese army."

The Japanese reply explained that the delay in making a final reply to tthe protest was due to an error in the statement of the position of the ambassador's car when it was hit.

Surprised at British Action.

Some surprise was caused here by the fact that the British backed down before the Japanese to the extent of permitting their merchant ships to be boarded in the Japanese naval blockade of China's coastline.

The London government has advised British skippers to allow the Japanese to board their ships for examination when they are not accompanied by British warships. Official circles denied this was a concession, but the belief exists the British action was prompted by necessity rather than by desire. The British navy, it was pointed out, is too busy in the Mediterranean to take on any more patroling duties at the present time.

2D U. S. PROTEST MADE TO JAPAN; REQUIRES REPLY

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—A second and stronger protest in a form which demands an answer from the Japanese government was made today in connection with the bombing of Nanking by Secretary of State Cordell Hull.

Japan was put formally on notice in the note delivered in Tokio today that it would be held responsible for damage suffered by Americans as a result of air raids or other military maneuvers in the Nanking area.

The note followed up an oral protest which was made yesterday. The new objection, under diplomatic rules, requires a reply from the recipient whereas a verbal communication does not. Secretary Hull said that no reply had been received late today.

"The American government objects both to such jeopardizing of the lives of its nationals and of noncombatants generally and to the suggestion that its officials and nationals now residing in and around Nanking should withdraw from the areas in which they are lawfully carrying on their legitimate activities," the note stated, referring to the warning of the Japanese naval government at Shanghai that foreigners should move out of Nanking or risk injury from the aerial attack.

"The American government, therefore, reserving all rights on its own behalf of American nationals in respect to damages which result from Japanese military operations in the Nanking area, expresses the earnest hope that further bombing in and around the city of Nanking will be avoided."

The note stated that the general bombing of such an extensive and populated area "is unwarranted and contrary to principles of law and of humanity."

Delayed Old Age Pension Checks for August Mailed

The state auditor's office reported yesterday at Springfield that all delayed old age pension checks for August are now in the mails and the first checks for September are being mailed. By Nov. 1 the payments will probably be back on a normal schedule, said O. R. Taylor, revenue clerk.

JAPANESE AIR FLEET BOMBS NANKING

Fifty Japanese bombers yesterday began to carry out Japan's threat to destroy Nanking, capital of China. In two raids the invading planes poured 200 bombs into the city, inflicting 200 casualties among Chinese civilians. Captions on map indicate scope of bombings. The Hsiakwan slum area was hardest hit, although bombs struck railway stations and the new residential district, which contains the United States and other embassies. Many inhabitants of the city fled to the surrounding countryside to escape the raiders.

FREE LIFE INSURANCE

The purchase of a home is in itself a step toward greater security for a family. And now the Harmon National has developed an unprecedented plan to make home-owning doubly secure.

Each purchaser of a Harmon home now will be given a fully paid up life insurance policy* guaranteeing that, in the event of the owner's death within the next ten years, the initial investment which he makes on a Harmon home will be refunded in full to his family, who may use it toward achieving debt-free home ownership, or for any other purpose.

There is no charge for this protection—and the low Harmon prices and terms remain unchanged. The Harmon National itself pays for your policy in one of America's oldest, largest and strongest insurance companies as a socially and economically valuable aid to sound home ownership.

*To insurable persons only.

NANKING SLUMS ARE SET AFIRE BY 50 JAP PLANES

200 Bombs Dropped on China's Capital.

congested heart of the city, one outside the city walls, one on the Yangtze waterfront and the fourth across the river at the Pukow railway station.

On each raid the Japanese dropped more than 100 bombs, but a survey after the attacks showed that most important public buildings had come through unharmed. Many of the bombs were dropped from great heights as the Japanese tried to keep above the heavy fire of the Chinese anti-aircraft batteries.

19 Americans Periled.

Nineteen Americans, seven of them women, remained in Nanking during the Japanese attacks, in peril from both the bombs and the curtain of anti-aircraft fire sent up by the Chinese batteries emplaced all about Nanking. Among the Americans were Lewis Strong Smythe of Chicago, a professor at Nanking university, and Miss Minnie Vautrin of Secor, Ill., a teacher at Gingling college.

So far as could be learned no foreigners were harmed in the raids and foreign property escaped serious damage.

Bombs fell on the new residential quarter where the American, German, and Italian embassies and the Netherlands legation are situated.

Shells Fall in U. S. Compound.

One anti-aircraft shell fell in the American embassy compound and fragments were embedded in the gatehouse. A bomb struck near the Italian embassy and the embassy staf, which had returned from a gunboat on the river shortly before the raid, was badly shaken.

Before Ambassador Johnson's return the United States embassy was in charge of J. Hall Paxton, a native of Galesburg, Ill., who had remained at his own request. During the raids Paxton, who is second secretary, took charge of the Americans concentrated there, shepherding them into the embassy dugout when the Japanese approached.

In the far south the Japanese air force also struck with deadly effect at Canton, where it was feared more than 300 persons, nearly all civilians, had perished in four big air raids.

New Attack at Shanghai.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 23 [Thursday].—(AP)—Artillery thundered along the front northwest of Shanghai early today and Japanese officers said their forces had begun a new westward thrust from Lotien, 15 miles from this city. Chinese said the attacks had been repulsed.

In Shanghai itself doctors and nurses worked desperately to check a cholera plague. The epidemic, considered the worst in Shanghai's history, was increased by 100 more cases in the last 24 hours in the international settlement and French concession alone, bringing the known total for those areas to 1,500.

Skates Wear on Nerves, So He Buys Ten Bikes

Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 22.—(AP)—Adam A. Bretch, 76 years old, retired grocer, enjoys seeing boys have a good time, but his nerves were worn raw by the grating of roller skates outside his home. So he called ten boys into his house and promised to buy each a new bicycle if they put away their skates. There were ten shiny new bicycles and no skates tonight.

Duce Names D'Annunzio Head of Royal Academy

ROME, Sept. 22.—(AP)—Premier Mussolini today named Gabriele d'Annunzio, the poet-patriot, president of the Royal academy to succeed the late inventor, Guglielmo Marconi. Mussolini also appointed Marshal Pietro Badoglio, veteran of the Ethiopian campaign, to be president of the National Council of Research, another of Marconi's posts.

HELP KIDNEYS PASS 3 LBS. A DAY

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste.

Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning shows there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

An excess of acids or poisons in your blood, when due to functional kidney disorders, may be the cause of nagging backache, rheumatic pains, lumbago, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

FIND MILLIONS KEPT FROM TAX LISTS IN COUNTY

Valuations to Be Raised, Lowering Rates.

and the equalization factor to $5,809,945 the assessed valuation would be $429,936. The tax that should have been paid to the county on this valuation cannot be determined, however, because the tax rate would have been lower had all the intangibles been scheduled.

Example in Oak Park.

Four Oak Park taxpayers filed personal property returns listing the full value of their intangibles as $13,985. After debasement and application of the equalization factor the assessed valuation was $1,035.

The Oak Park tax rate for 1936 was $6.83 for each $100 of assessed valuation and the total bill for these four taxpayers was $70.69.

"Every dollar we add to the assessed value of intangibles will cause a reduction in the tax rate," Assessor Clark said, "and that will mean that tax bills for about 90 per cent of the real estate owners will be lower for 1937 than for 1936.

Millions in Machinery Added.

"The personal property bills also will be lower, with the exception of those of wealthy individuals who heretofore have succeeded in keeping their holdings secret. The use of the federal returns is also resulting in placing on the assessment rolls many million dollars' worth of hitherto unlisted machinery. Corporations have given extremely low machinery values to the assessor's office in past years, but have listed correct values on their federal income tax returns.

"From now on when we find a personal property return is lower than it should be in view of the income tax figures we will send a notice to the taxpayer informing him that we have information of additional securities that he should have listed with us. He will be invited to come in and adjust his schedule, and if he fails to do so we will add on the securities."

Returns Opened by U. S. Law.

A federal statute passed in 1934 gave states having a state income tax access to the federal tax returns. Later this was broadened to permit inspection by local assessment officials, but it was not until last April that the records became available to Assessor Clark.

Since then his staf has been canvassing the 350,000 income tax returns for 1936 from Cook county and also has examined the files of the federal securities and exchange commission, which lists large transfers of stocks. The staf has completed the analysis for Evanston and Oak Park and is now working on the other country towns. A study of the income tax returns from the city townships will be undertaken as soon as the 1937 personal property tax schedules for these townships have been returned to the assessor's office.

VIRGINIA EARL, COMEDY STAR OF '90S, IS DEAD

New York, Sept. 22.—[Special]—Miss Virginia Earl, 62 years old, a favorite of musical comedy first-nighters in the nineties, died on Tuesday in New Jersey sanitarium. For the last two years she was a guest at the Actors Fund of America Home in Englewood, N. J. Besides her career in musical comedy she was long a vaudeville headliner and she was in plays in Australia. Later she returned to America and toured the country with De Wolf Hopper in "Wang." Her first New York appearance was in 1894 at the Casino in "The Passing Show." Subsequently she appeared in many successes.

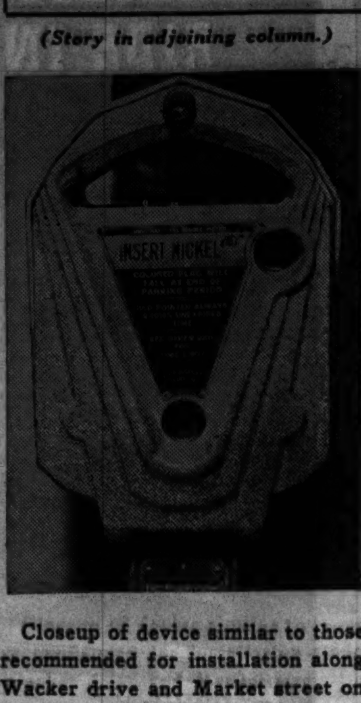
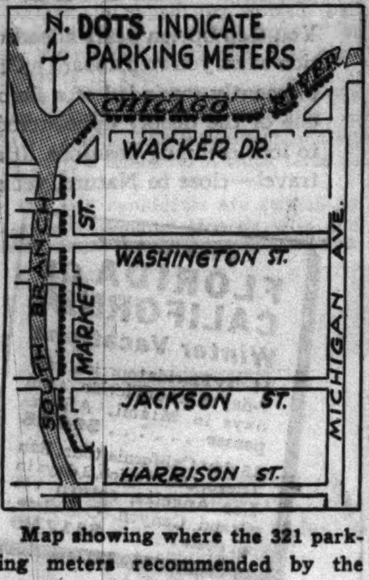
Parking Meter Plan

(Story in adjoining column.)



Closeup of device similar to those recommended for installation along Wacker drive and Market street on experimental basis by council subcommittee. On these meters a colored flag falls at the end of the parking period paid for by deposit. Unexpired time is registered automatically.



Map showing where the 321 parking meters recommended by the council sub-committee would be installed.

LOOP AREA TEST OF 321 PARKING METERS URGED

Trial Would Determine Value of Devices.

Installation of 321 parking meters along Wacker drive and Market street as an experiment is recommended in a report made public yesterday by Ald. Thomas J. Terrell, chairman of a council subcommittee on parking meters.

The devices would be placed at 20 foot intervals on the curb on the north side of East and West Wacker drive, the west side of North Wacker drive, and the west side of Market street from Madison to Congress street.

Day Long Parkers Take Space.

Ninety per cent of the available curb space in these 18 blocks is monopolized by cars parked all day long, making the area ideal for the experiment, the report declares.

"The parking meter merits a careful trial under Chicago conditions on the basis of results of operation in other cities," the report said. "Information developed by this trial would enable the council to determine whether the use of the meters should be extended or discontinued."

A study of Wacker drive parking showed that 222 persistent all-day parkers prevent use of space which could be used by 1,800 persons daily who desire to park an average of one hour while on business errands in the loop.

Other Areas Monopolized.

"A counterpart of this situation is to be found in many of the more outlying business districts," the report said. "There again a monopolized use of curb space in front of stores and business houses by a few prevents customer access by many."

A charge of five cents for 15 minutes is recommended for parking spaces which are in heavy demand. Motorists drop a coin in the meter, raising a flag which drops at the expiration of the allotted period.

RUSSIAN LEADERS FLEE; PURSUED BY ARMY PLANES

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

HELSINGFORS, Finland, Sept. 22.—The Finnish government has been placed in a predicament by the landing of a soviet Russian army plane on Suo lake yesterday. The occupants of the plane were reported to include officials of the Karelian soviet autonomous republic who were fleeing arrest in Moscow's purge. Russia today requested Finland to return the "deserters."

Eleven soviet bombing planes appeared yesterday at six different points over Finnish territory, searching for the escaping plane. When met by fire from Finnish border guards they returned to their bases in Karelia.

RED ARMIES IN CHINA CALL OFF REVOLT AND JOIN NANKING FORCES

NANKING, Sept. 22.—(AP)—The government of the "soviet republic of China" dissolved itself today and ordered its armies, large forces which have disturbed China's internal affairs for ten years, to serve Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek of the Nanking central government.

The central executive committee of the Chinese communist party announced support of and unity with the present Chinese administration. Reorganization of the communist army as a nationalist revolutionary army under Chiang's military affairs commission was announced.

"The Chinese communist party, realizing that the principles of Sun Yat-sen [founder of the Chinese republic] are indispensible to the reconstruction of China, has decided to abandon all measures aimed at the overthrow of the Kuomintang [ruling party] government by force, propagation of communist doctrins and the forcible expropriation of land," the committee's manifesto said.

Tries to Rescue Cat; Falls and Breaks Another Leg

Carl Soderberg, 55 years old, 2728 Hampden court, broke his left leg a month ago. Yesterday he broke his right leg, falling from a ladder while trying to rescue a cat stranded on the roof of a three story building next to his home. As Policemen John Burns and Barney McGovern carried him to an ambulance the cat jumped safely to a second floor roof and ran home. Soderberg was taken to the County hospital, from which he was released three weeks ago.

2 CHICAGO BABY BANDITS FACING TEXAS PENALTIES

Chattanooga, Tenn., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—Two Chicago baby bandits whose careers of crime were brought to a temporary halt here when they were held to the Hamilton county grand jury under $10,000 bonds each on counts of highway robbery and attempt to commit a felony may face more severe penalties in Texas.

They are Dick Flannery, 16 years old, and Chester Johnson, 17.

They were indicted today in Texarkana, Tex., on charges of robbery with firearms, according to word received by local officials. The death penalty may be imposed in Texas upon conviction for this crime.

FRANCE DEMANDS ITALY WITHDRAW ARMY FROM SPAIN

Duce Seeks Recognition of Ethiopian Grab.

BY EDMOND TAYLOR.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

GENEVA, Sept. 22.—Premier Mussolini today sought to win recognition of his African empire [Ethiopia] from France and Great Britain by a promise to send no more troops to Spain to aid the rebels, and Yvon Delbos, French foreign minister, countered with a demand that he withdraw the troops already there.

Il Duce's offer was made by Bova Scopa, Italy's representative at Geneva, who visited Delbos. It immediately started great diplomatic activity. Delbos conferred with Viscount Cranborne, British undersecretary of foreign affairs, who phoned London. Delbos phoned Premier Camille Chautemps and Minister of Marine Cesar Campinchi in Paris. Scopa transmitted the French counter proposals to his boss.

Wants Arms Withheld, Too.

It was impossible tonight to tell whether there really are negotiations for a settlement of the Spanish question or simply more diplomatic fencing.

Scopa made two calls on Delbos. The French minister made the demand that Il Duce withdraw his army from Spain, and likewise repeated in most energetic terms the warning he made in a speech before the league assembly last week that if Italy sends any more troops or armaments to Spain, France, considering that European equilibrium and her own security are menaced, will have to open the Pyrenees frontier.

At the very least, French observers think, a negative reply from Il Duce would kill any hope of a compromise with Italy on the Mediterranean or any other European question and Italy could not expect to be admitted to the "anti-piracy" arrangement for patroling the Mediterranean reached at Nyon, Switzerland.

Can't Hope for Large Share.

The Italian government has accepted an invitation to be represented in a meeting of naval experts at Paris Sept. 27, to discuss Italian participation on terms of parity in the anti-pirate patrol.

Delbos, it is reported, did not offer Italy very much even if the French terms are accepted. While expressing willingness to make extensive concessions to Italian pride in the scheme for policing the Mediterranean, Delbos reportedly told Scopa that Italy could not hope for as large a share in the scheme as she would have gotten if she had been represented at Nyon.

In the course of the conversations Scopa is understood to have given Delbos a most solemn assurance that Italy will respect the territorial integrity of Spain and will not make any attempt to establish a base against France on the peninsula.

Asks Attitude on Ethiopia.

Delbos replied that this was insufficient guarantee for France and insisted on the withdrawal of the Italian "volunteers." Scopa replied that he had no authority to negotiate on this point, but agreed to transmit the French demands directly to Mussolini.

On his second visit to Delbos the Italian diplomat, it is understood, asked whether France is prepared to recognize the Italian empire. Delbos is reported to have replied that it is not up to France but up to the league of nations to decide that. This does not eliminate the possibility that Delbos dropped a hint that France would use her influence with the league for recognition if a general reconciliation with Italy were effected.

Mendieta, Ex-President of Cuba, Has Skull Operation

HAVANA, Sept. 22.—(AP)—Former President Col. Carlos Mendieta tonight underwent an operation for a malignant tumor at the base of his skull. Surgeons reported his condition was critical because of diabetic complications and his advanced age. He is 64 years of age. Mendieta, who led the opposition to former President Gerardo Machado, occupied the presidential office from Jan. 16, 1934, to Dec. 10, 1935.

Dictator of Turkey Sends Premier on Long 'Vacation'

ISTANBUL, Turkey, Sept. 22.—(AP)—President Kemal Ataturk, dictator of Turkey, designated M. O. Bayar, minister of national economy, interim prime minister today after suddenly giving Prime Minister Gen. Ismet Inonu a long leave of absence. He also provoked strong rumors of a major shakeup in the Turkish cabinet by unexpectedly recalling Foreign Minister Tewfik Rustu Aras from Geneva.

LEAP FROM BOAT

Four men and three women who clung to a disabled 45 foot yawl in rough water for several hours Tuesday night were recovering from their experience yesterday.

They are Jack Culberg, 1043 North Shore avenue, and his wife, Eve; Albert Newman, of the same address, owner of the yawl; Bernard and Jerry Rosenthal, brothers, 1380 Hyde Park boulevard, and their cousins, Lora and Marian Spiesberger, 314 Belden avenue.

A squall snapped the main spar four miles in the lake off Wilson avenue and by means of a "jury rigged" spar and sail they reached the rocky Montrose avenue shore several hours later. The women leaped to the rocks and the yawl was towed in with the men still aboard by the coast guard.

INSURANCE MAN FOUND DEAD IN A LOCKED GARAGE

Alexander C. Biederman, assistant manager of the Chicago office of the Equitable Life Assurance society, was found dead, apparently poisoned by carbon monoxide fumes, in the front seat of his automobile in a garage at the rear of 820 East 51st street yesterday. The garage was near his home at 5001 Drexel boulevard.

The body was found by Remi Krick, a janitor at 828 East 51st street. He said he found all the garage doors locked and he entered by opening a side door with his key.

Police considered the possibility that Biederman, who is said to have been subject to fainting spells, was stricken by a heart attack. An inquest will be held today. Mr. Biederman is survived by his widow, Angela, an invalid. He was 66 years old.

SPY FEVER GRIPS FRANCE IN WAKE OF BLASTS, RAID

Probe Actions of Spanish Rebel Agents.

BY ALEX SMALL.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PARIS, Sept. 22.—A spy fever gripped France today as the result of a series of violent incidents, the most conspicuous of which were the terrorist explosions in Paris on Sept. 11, and the attempt of Spanish rebels to capture the Spanish loyalist submarine C-2 in the harbor at Brest, France, last Saturday.

The most serious incidents center around the person of Maj. Julian Troncoso, Gen. Fransisco Franco's military governor of three rebel provinces of northern Spain and known as the "frontier king." He admits he instigated the raid at Brest, but denies he took part in it. He was arrested today and is held in jail at Bayonne, near the Spanish border.

In retaliation the Spanish rebels detained Pierre Bertrande Desmartis, French consul at Malaga, southern Spain. He was warned not to leave the consulate pending further notice.

Close Rebel "Embassy."

A cleanup of Spanish rebel agents in France started today with the closing of the villa "La Grande Fregate" at Biarritz, which was the unofficial embassy of the Spanish rebels.

Following Troncoso's arrest, 200 Spanish rebels who had been taking it easy at French Basque resorts were said to have fled across the border.

The government has considerably strengthened the mobile guard all along the Navarre border, watching closely the mountain passes as well as the international bridges. The rebels have closed their end of the international bridge at Irun.

Linked with the terrorist explosions in Paris was the discovery today, in a poor Italian quarter of Marseilles, of a hidden arsenal including a dismounted machine gun of a type called an "entirely new and foreign type."

Probe Slaying in Tunis.

The foreign office said tonight measures were being taken to keep the killing of an anti-Fascist editor at Tunis, in a fight with Italian sailors, from creating new friction between France and Italy.

In Tunis today three Italian sailors were charged with murder and complicity in murder for the killing of Joseph Miceli, editor of the anti-Fascist newspaper Italiano di Tunisi, published in the French protectorate.

A foreign office spokesman said France would seek settlement of the incident through diplomatic channels.

TOWN IN FLAMES AS MADRID ARMY EXTENDS DRIVE

Advance Crosses Border of Badajoz Province.

MADRID, Sept. 22.—(AP)—Historic, picturesque Granja de Torrehermosa in southwestern Spain tonight was a blazing no man's land in the path of the Spanish government's offensive in the Cordoba battle zone.

The government said its forces swept across the Cordoba-Badajoz provincial border and into the outskirts of the town after their air force had bombarded it throughout the day. The civilian population had abandoned their homes.

Fire from Church Tower.

High in the tower of the Central cathedral rebel machine gunners continued to spray lead among government troops, many of whom crawled into a nearby cemetery and dug in for a siege behind the tombstones.

The government described today's battle as the most brilliant of recent weeks on the Andalusian front. Government infantry, supported by cavalry and tanks, began the advance along the highway toward the town before dawn. Forty-six brigades, formerly known as the Uribarri column, bore the brunt of the fighting.

Poised to Strike in North.

HENDAYE, Franco-Spanish Frontier, Sept. 22.—(AP)—Spanish rebel columns driving on Gijon from the east today advanced to points where they consolidated their lines for assaults on Ribadesella, Cangas de Onis, and Covadonga.

Those towns, near the Bay of Biscay coast, are 30 to 40 miles east of Gijon, last government held port in northern Spain. Improved weather aided the movements of Gen. Francisco Franco's columns. Military dispatches said the force assigned to capture Ribadesella was in position for its attack, while another rebel column advanced within four miles of Covadonga.

RARE BANK NOTES VALUED AT $250,000 STOLEN IN LONDON

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Sept. 22.—Rare bank notes with a collector's value of $250,000 were stolen today from the London house of Frederick Cattling, an engraver. Cattling kept them in 110 albums in an asbestos lined safe, and they were considered the world's finest collection. Scotland Yard was trying to find out how the thieves got them without cracking the safe, which was found open and empty this morning.

Known as the Avonmore collection, the notes, numbering some 70,000, bore face values totaling about 30 million dollars. Cattling's father began the collection about one hundred years ago. The collection was not insured.

Pointing out that apart from a few modern notes the thieves would have difficulty in spending the bills, Cattling said, "Bank note collectors are few. Even great banks themselves do not possess a collection as comprehensive as this, for it includes examples of notes which have never even been published."

DOROTHY CLARK AND EX-HUSBAND END LAW SUITS

Harold L. Clark, wealthy inventor of Miami, Fla., and his ex-wife, Mrs. Dorothy S. Clark of Northbrook, have settled their numerous law suits, it was learned yesterday. Mrs. Clark was awarded a divorce at Miami Aug. 31 on grounds of infidelity and received a large settlement in lieu of alimony and other claims.

Clark has agreed to dismiss his divorce suit filed at Carson City, Nev. In addition, Mrs. Clark will drop her suit here in which she sought $500,000 she alleged Clark owed her from royalties he receives for an automobile lubricant invention.

In the settlement Mrs. Clark received a $50,000 Miami home and her $150,000 Northbrook estate on Sunset road, where she lives with their children, Harold, Pamela, and Steven.

War Bride Finds a War at Home; Sues for Peace

Since her marriage as a war bride on Aug. 23, 1919, in Bordeaux, France, Mrs. Marquerite Pessa, 42 years old, 1007 West 129th place, alleged yesterday in a bill for divorce filed in the Superior court, her husband, Felix, spent most of his time at home chasing her with a loaded revolver. She left him last Thursday. Mrs. Pessa asks custody of their six children. Pessa lives at 5213 South Peoria street.

FINED $50 AS MOLESTER.

Joseph Benware, 26 years old, 3602 South Halsted street, was fined $50 by Judge Harold P. O'Connell in Felony court yesterday on a charge of molesting Miss Lillian Mintel, 20, of 4415 South Honoré street, last Saturday.

PASTOR VICTOR IN JERSEY G. O. P. GOVERNOR RACE

Will Oppose Moore in Fall Election.

Newark, N. J., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—State Senator Lester H. Clee, Newark clergyman who entered politics only three years ago, today held the Republican nomination for governor by an impressive margin over the legislative veteran, Senator Clifford R. Powell, who was backed by Gov. Harold G. Hoffman.

Lester H. Clee [above] and A. Harry Moore.

With almost complete returns from yesterday's primary reported, both Gov. Hoffman and the man he had wanted to succeed him pledged their support of the Rev. Mr. Clee.

Hoffman Régime Is Issue.

The Presbyterian minister had made Gov. Hoffman's administration a campaign issue and charged that Hoffman, in supporting Powell, had sought to continue "domination" of the Republican party and ride back to power in 1940.

The Democratic nomination was won by United States Senator A. Harry Moore, who was unopposed on his party's ticket for a third term as governor.

The two candidates are related by marriage. Senator Moore's wife and the wife of Senator Clee's brother, the Rev. F. Raymond Clee of Jersey City, are sisters.

Constitutional Changes Lose.

Albuquerque, N. M., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—Efforts to add five amendments to New Mexico's constitution were defeated, 2 to 1, in yesterday's election, according to returns received today from nearly two-thirds of the state's districts.

The amendments would have abolished the two term limits for state and county officers, would have provided a $1,250,000 institutional building bond issue, increased the pay of state legislators from $5 to $10 a day, and legalized the absentee ballot.

WINS PROBATION ON DRUG CHARGE.

Judge John V. McCormick in Women's court yesterday placed Mrs. Dorothy Rice, 22 years old, 5829 Calumet avenue, on probation for a year. She was charged with possessing narcotics.

A. G. VANDERBILT TURNS 25; GETS 5 MILLION MORE

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 22.—(AP)—Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt, wealthy young turfman, became a year older and $5,000,000 richer today.

He was 25 years old and on his anniversary received his second one-fourth share of an estimated $20,000,000 left him from the estate of his father, who died in the sinking of the Lusitania during the world war.

Young Vanderbilt celebrated his birthday by buying a 450 acre farm to extend his horse breeding and training activities in Worthington valley, near Baltimore, and by spending most of the day with his mother, Mrs. Margaret Emerson, at her estate at Sandy Point, Long Island.

LEGION HEARS WOODRING AND WILLIAM GREEN

Committees at Work on Resolutions.

BY WILLIAM FULTON.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Sept. 22.—[Special.]—Settling down to business after their mammoth 18 hour parade of yesterday, delegates to the American Legion convention today heard President William Green of the American Federation of Labor in an attack on foreign "isms," and a plea by Secretary of War Harry H. Woodring to squelch propaganda that might lead to war.

The convention was called to order an hour and twenty minutes later than schedule by Harry W. Colmery, the retiring national commander. Many of the 1,339 delegates had been snoozing in the red plush seats of the Metropolitan Opera house, where the meeting was held. The last marcher in the parade, which started yesterday morning, came down Fifth avenue just before the first dawn milk wagon arrived today. More than 200,000 persons, including 600 musical units, had taken part in the procession.

Work on Resolutions.

Following the speeches of Green and Woodring the convention was recessed until tomorrow morning because the committees had been unable to reach agreements on controversial resolutions. In the grist of unfinished business was the phrasing of the Legion's stand on industrial disputes which is expected to be a straddle because of the widely diversified membership; neutrality provisions that would include a universal service law to conscript wealth as well as men in time of war, and a strong plea "for peace through preparedness."

The election of Daniel J. Doherty, Boston lawyer, as national commander was virtually assured when it was learned that the Illinois and Nebraska delegations had swung to his support.

Los Angeles copped off the honor of playing host to the Legion next year when Chicago and Denver withdrew without a fight. It was said Chicago is playing its cards for 1939.

Green Gets Big Hand.

The delegates loudly applauded Green's remarks on communism and other foreign subversive elements that are trying to get a foothold in this country. The A. F. of L. president declared that "the call of the hour is for a closer and stronger relationship between labor and the Legion to stamp out such sinister radical movements."

Many of the legionnaires read into Green's remarks an indirect slap at his chief foe, John L. Lewis, dictator of the C. I. O. labor organization which has embraced communist workers and is being heartily supported by them.

"The agents and representatives of these subversive forces who are so assiduously at work attempting to undermine our form of government and establish either communism or fascism here should know and understand that the American Federation of Labor and the American Legion are united in opposition to their policies and will always stand as a barrier to their advance," asserted Green.

Cites Red Control Efforts.

"Unfortunately attempts have been made by the communists to seek and secure control of the organized labor movement of the United States. Developments of the last few years have demonstrated that fact. They were met with stubborn, determined opposition. They realize, after years of concentrated effort that they cannot penetrate the sanctity of the American Federation of Labor or impair its solidarity."

This last was interpreted as bearing directly on the makeup and organizing methods of the C. I. O. in its rivalry with the A. F. of L.

Secretary Woodring, himself a past national commander of the legion, painted a gloomy picture for the veterans who went away to war twenty years ago. He declared that the world outlook was clouded by carnage and chaos in widely separated areas. The ability of the United States to adjust actual or threatened conflicts is limited, Woodring asserted.

Hines Pledges Benefits.

"Here is where the undoubted steadying force of the American Legion is important," the secretary of war went on. "Legionnaires should influence our national sentiment toward a real neutrality of individuals. Unneutral actions, preferential agitation, and prejudiced propaganda are steps toward war. We should recognize such dangers and avoid them. This great organization now and in the future can and will do much to preserve us from such evils."

Gen. Frank T. Hines, administrator of veterans affairs, in a brief talk, told the assembled delegates that there will be an effort for economy in Washington during the next few years but that veterans' benefits will not be reduced.

The womenfolk of the American Legion auxiliary received something of a shock at their meeting today when Mrs. W. H. Morgan of Edwardsville, Ill., told them that in her opinion they had not conducted themselves as well as they might at this convention and had set a bad example for their children.

"If we are to coöperate with and help the junior auxiliary members," said Mrs. Morgan, "we should set them an example by acting like sober American women at our convention. The convention delegates, as mothers of young America, should set better examples than they are now setting for future auxiliary members."

Fred G. Fraser, Washington, D. C., was elected by the "Forty and Eight," as its chef de chemin de fer, replacing Harry E. Ransom of West Allis, Wis.

FIRST DIVISION HOLDS REUNION; HEARS GENERAL

Summerall Urges Spirit of Soldier Now.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Sept. 22.—[Special.]—The spirit of the soldier forged in the fire of battle must be carried into civilian life for the welfare of the nation, Gen. Charles P. Summerall, former chief of staf and wartime commander of the 1st division, declared tonight before veterans who served under him in France. It was the twentieth annual reunion of the famous fighting unit.

The sacred tie of the veterans, as exemplified by the division reunion and the American Legion convention, is necessary in this day, "filled with forebodings," Gen. Summerall said, and must be guarded jealously. The general spoke at a dinner for the organization. Col. Theodore Roosevelt acted as toastmaster, and Maj. Gen. Frank Parker, retired and now living in Chicago, sat at the speakers' table. Both served in Summerall's command during the war.

The banquet climaxed a day given over to a colorful celebration on Governors Island in which several thousand veterans participated. A reënactment of the attack on the village of Fleville during the Meuse-Argonne offensive was staged for the veterans. Seventy per cent of the personnel of the 3d battalion, 16th infantry, met death or wounds in that engagement.

The 1937 version of the attack was presented by the present 3d battalion. A group of buildings had been constructed to give a graphic picture of Fleville torn by the war. Supported by howitzer and machine gun fire, the battalion approached in column of squads, deployed as skirmishers, and realistically "took" the village.

The thunder of cannonading reverberated over New York harbor as dynamite sticks, simulating artillery fire, exploded in the field.

Company F, 16th infantry, the unit that suffered the first battle casualties in France, staged a formal guard mount for the visitors. A concert and an exhibition polo match followed. An unusual feature of the regimental retreat and review was the massing of colors of each of the nine regiments in the present 1st division. They had been collected from various parts of the country for the occasion. About 500 Chicago veterans attended the affair.

STATE LIQUOR CHIEFS RETURN CONVENTION CASH TO DISTILLERS

New York, Sept. 22.—[Special.]—A decision to return $5,000 contributed to their convention expenses by the Distilled Spirits Institute and $500 given by the Continental Distilling company was adopted at a closed meeting of the executive committee of the National Conference of State Liquor Administrators in the Hotel Commodore.

The decision averted a threatened split in the organization resulting from a controversy over the propriety of accepting contributions from distillers to help defray the cost of the annual gathering at Mackinac Island, Michigan, last July.

The formal statement announcing the committee's action in regard to the distillers' contributions was given out by J. Lindsay De Valliers, deputy commissioner in charge of the New Jersey Beverage Tax division,

My Friends Call it
A MIRACLE
BLANKETS STAY SO SOFT but I know it's
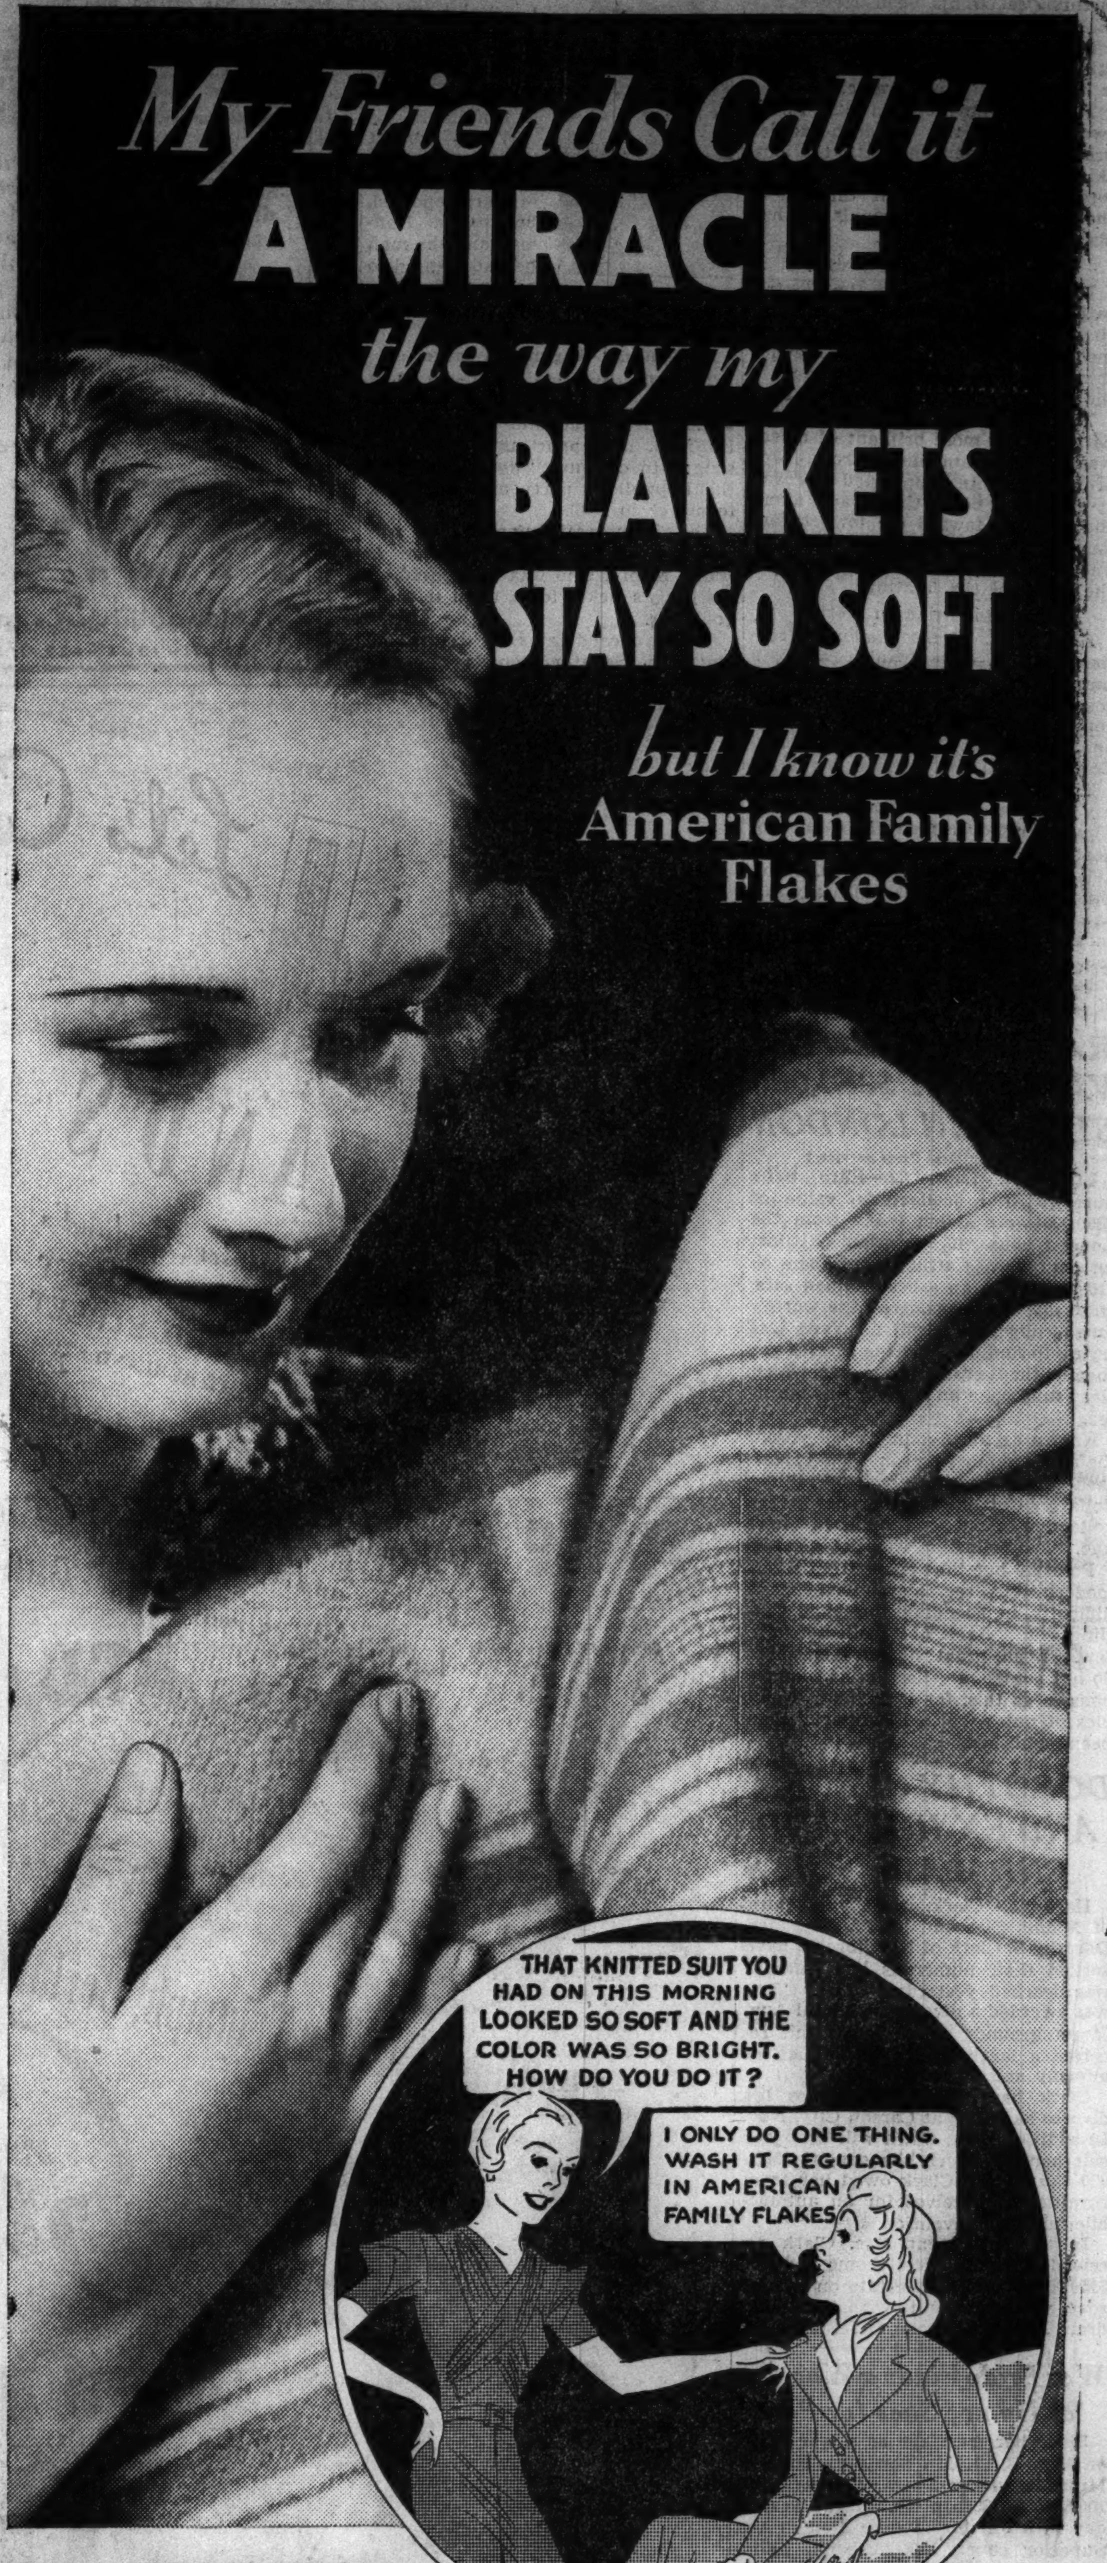
American Family Flakes



THAT KNITTED SUIT YOU HAD ON THIS MORNING LOOKED SO SOFT AND THE COLOR WAS SO BRIGHT. HOW DO YOU DO IT?
I ONLY DO ONE THING. WASH IT REGULARLY IN AMERICAN FAMILY FLAKES

It's like taking out insurance when you wash woolens this way

EVERY day, more and more women are using American Family Flakes to wash their blankets. For they have found, from first-hand experience, that this is the quickest way to SAFELY launder woolens.

Without depending upon harmful alkali or strong chemicals as cheap soap chips often do—without the need of scrubbing, boiling or hard, ruinous rubbing, which take the life out of woolens and leave them matted and stiff—these amazing super-flakes float out dirt and leave blankets fleecy soft.

How American Family Flakes Work These Wonders

Laboratory tests have proved that American Family Flakes contain more suds-making material than ordinary flakes, chips or powders. And there you have the secret of the wonders these flakes perform.

This extra suds-making material in American Family Flakes is responsible for their rich, active "DOUBLE-SUDS," which actually float out even the grimiest dirt without scrubbing, boiling or hard rubbing.

That's the miracle of American Family Flakes: Why blankets and all woolens retain their first-day beauty and softness after years of service and many launderings.

For over 90 years American Family has been the largest selling brand of soap in and around Chicago. Try American Family Flakes and you will quickly prove that it is cheaper to buy good soap than new clothes.

There's nothing safer than American Family Flakes for your finest fabrics. Or most precious blankets. And for dishwashing, they are unexcelled. They leave your hands soft and smooth. Made by Procter & Gamble.

A. F. OF L. SNUBS SECY. PERKINS; MEETS ON OCT. 4

Fails to Ask Her to Speak at Convention.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins was snubbed by the American Federation of Labor today when it announced the names of public officials and other prominent persons who have been invited to address the annual American Federation of Labor convention opening in Denver on Oct. 4.

Madam Perkins.

Moreover, it was disclosed, the American Federation of Labor will attack the national labor relations board on charges that it is prejudiced in favor of John L. Lewis' radical C. I. O.

The frequently manifested prejudice of Madam Perkins in favor of the C. I. O. was the reason for the failure of the A. F. of L. to invite her to speak, the first time in the history of the labor department that its chief has been so slighted.

Accused of Partiality.

Thus the Roosevelt administration will be accused in two respects of partiality toward the C. I. O., whose constituent unions contributed more than $600,000 to the reëlection of the President in 1936. It will be charged on the A. F. of L. convention floor, according to reliable sources here, that regional representatives of Mr. Roosevelt's labor relations board have assisted in the distribution of C. I. O literature and encouraged wavering workers to join the C. I. O. in preference to the A. F. of L.

The attacks on the labor relations board will be directed particularly to its recent action in defying a federal court decree and ordering a special election among the employés of the National Electric Products company of Ambridge, Pa., after the company had signed a closed shop agreement with the A. F. of L. The board ruled that the court's decree upholding the contract was null and void and that the A. F. of L. union did not represent a majority of the workers.

A. F. of L. Wins Election.

However, when the special election, ordered by the board, was held, the A. F. of L. won a majority of 105 votes, although 150 ballots are being challenged by both sides and remain to be counted.

William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, takes the position that the labor relations board has no authority under the Wagner labor relations act to intervene in a dispute between rival unions, particularly when one of them has signed a contract with the employer.

Illinois Labor Federation Bids for C. I. O. Peace

BY WILLIAM BROMAGE.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

La Salle, Ill., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—The Illinois State Federation of Labor made a formal declaration today urging peace between the American Federation of Labor and the Committee for Industrial Organization. The reaffirmation of the federation's position that action should be taken to cement the breach in the labor movement was not passed, however, until after a bitter denunciation of John L. Lewis, C. I. O. chieftain, by members of the Progressive Mine Workers' union.

The C. I. O. issue was disposed of after the annual convention in session here adopted a resolution opposing the granting of broad regulatory powers to state labor boards similar to the authority vested in the national labor relations board under the Wagner labor act.

Mine Delegates Interrupt.

The plan of officials of the federation to act on the C. I. O. matter in a dispassionate manner was upset when three delegates from the Progressive Miners, seeking a formal condemnation of Lewis in place of the executive board's conciliatory resolution, made bitter charges against the C. I. O. dictator.

The Progressive union was organized several years ago by miners withdrawing from Lewis' Illinois United Mine Workers. The Progressives were taken into the A. F. of L. earlier this year after the suspension of the C. I. O. rebel unions.

Affirm Nonpartisan Policy.

The convention today approved the recommendation of the executive board against establishment of a labor political party and reaffirmed the A. F. of L. nonpartisan political policy.

Delegates unanimously approved the executive board's report warning against attempts to substitute legal compulsion for voluntary action in collective bargaining and criticizing the National Labor Relations board for its conduct of jurisdictional disputes between A. F. of L. and the C. I. O.

KLUG, Rumania, Sept. 22.—(AP)—Ten persons were killed and twenty-two injured today in a collision of local passenger and freight trains.

Frances Perkins to Speak Tomorrow at Convention

Frances Perkins, secretary of labor, will address the annual convention of the Continental Assurance company in the Stevens hotel here tomorrow. She will speak on the effect of federal legislation on wages and hours in large industries. She is scheduled to return to Washington in the late afternoon.

DYING SUMMER BIDS FAREWELL IN RECORD HEAT

Mercury Soars; Autumn Will Carry On Today.

Summer had a final fling in Chicago yesterday, its last day. Heat records were broken as the mercury soared to 90.2 degrees for the hottest Sept. 22 in the city's history. And today, the first day of autumn, promises to be equally fair and warm.

Forecaster J. R. Lloyd said southerly winds will continue today to move heat laden air on Chicago. Low humidity, however, is expected to make the heat more bearable.

Yesterday's maximum was reached at 2:20 p. m., passing the previous official high for the day—90 degrees—set in 1895, and it came within .6 of a degree of equaling the all-time high for this late in the year, 90.8, set on Sept. 24, 1901. The normal maximum for Sept. 22 is 72 degrees. On the hottest day of the entire summer, June 24, the mercury reached 97.

Mercury Almost Goes Higher.

The temperature might have gone higher yesterday, Forecaster Lloyd said, had not light clouds veiled the sun at 3 o'clock.

Besides routing the advance guard of topcoats, the hot weather apparently fooled plants and trees into thinking that spring instead of fall is on the way. In Deland, Piatt county, Flora Morvel said a cherry tree bloomed for the second time, and in Moline, Rock Island county, Mrs. Theophil Vercauteren called in friends to see her apple tree blooming.

Farmers welcomed the heat for the sake of their late corn. Its maturing will now be hastened before the arrival of the first killing frost.

The End of Summer.

Despite the topsy-turvy weather, the astronomical summer officially makes its exit at 6:13 o'clock this morning, when the sun passes the equator on its way south. This marks the autumnal equinox.

The summer of the calendar—June, July, and August—was only 1.6 degrees above normal, according to the reckoning of the weather man. September temperatures so far have been only 4 degrees above normal, but they have been marked by ups and downs ranging from a low of 44 on Sept. 17 to 93 on Sept. 2. The month of August, however, was the third warmest in Chicago's history.

Temperatures are now unseasonably high in a belt extending from Oklahoma northeastward to Lake Superior, ranging upwards to a reading of 100 degrees at Kansas City.

LEADING LADY OF 'SUSAN AND GOD' MISSES CURTAIN

Washington, D. C., Sept. 22.—(AP)—Gertrude Lawrence, star of "Susan and God," was treated for inflamed eyelids at her hotel today while the National theater management made refunds to a near capacity matinée audience.

Edmund Plohn, theater manager, said, however, Miss Lawrence would appear tonight in the play, which met its first mishap when Osgood Perkins, leading man, fell dead following Monday night's opening.

Moving Forward

Marshall Field & Company presents here each day observations and opinions intended to be of interest and value to those it seeks to serve.

SELLING TO SERVE

By CALEB

SOME people work to earn a living, others work for a certain satisfaction and to earn a living.

It has been observed in this business that people who work solely for a pay check rarely get more than that out of their jobs. But our helpers here who sometimes pour themselves into their efforts for the joy of accomplishment find that their pay checks follow the levels of their interest.

In a group meeting some time ago, the people in one merchandise section pledged an increasing success for the section organization of which they are a part. One of the steps in their carefully considered procedure was to write individually a pledge to the section head as to how they felt on the subject of their responsibilities.

One man—and his pledge is but one of many good ones—wrote the following:

"Scheduling my . . year . . I intend to sell $55,000 in merchandise, and increase that the year following. I hope to be given added responsibilities, believing that only in mastering these will I progress.

"I hope to leave each customer with the feeling that she or he has dealt with a respectful and thorough salesman representing the highest type of retail store.

"I shall strive to act and think and live so that all people coming in contact with me shall feel that I respect myself and my business.

"In all events I wish to follow the store's ideals . . . . I can promise a happy smile and a genuine inner good feeling for each day of 1937.

"I shall never forget the watchword, 'Customers First—Thoroughness in Everything.'

"I shall try to do my common job uncommonly well."

This man was recently chosen for advancement to a position of greater responsibility. He was outstanding in his work and his volume was moving in line with his pledge.

We will leave it to anyone to guess: was his volume good purely because he wanted volume, or because six paragraphs of the seven he wrote had to do with doing an excellent job for our customers?

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

Laxatives are only makeshifts. A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. Stubbornly refuse anything else. 25c.

LOVERS' TRYSTS TOLD IN $100,000 ALIENATION TRIAL

Romance in Hotel Suite Described by Witness.

Trysts in hotel rooms, in an automobile, on a golf course, behind a depot, and on the beach were described yesterday to a jury in the trial of a $100,000 alienation of affections suit being heard by Judge George Bristow of Paris, who is sitting in the Circuit court here.

The two who kept the trysts, according to the testimony, were Mrs. Marion Mayer, 32 years old, now ill in a Waukegan hospital, and Harold L. Kinsler, 50, president of a garment manufacturing company at 2300 Armitage avenue.

Mrs. Mayer's ex-husband, John Mayer, 50, of 4301 Broadway, an interior decorator, the plaintif in the $100,000 suit, charges that Kinsler broke up his home in 1934 when the Mayers were living in Libertyville. Mrs. Mayer won an uncontested divorce on grounds of cruelty in July of 1935.

Tells of Romantic Parties.

Most of the testimony about the Kinsler-Mayer affair was given by Mrs. Irene Hershberger, 22, of Grays Lake, who was adopted by Mayer and his first wife. While employed as a domestic in Kinsler's summer home at Round lake, Mrs. Hershberger said, she often accompanied him and her foster mother on romantic parties.

Early in 1934, she testified, Kinsler took them to a suite he engaged in a north side hotel, for what he termed an evening of wining, dining, and dancing.

"We ate and drank and then he fooled around with Mrs. Mayer, who sat on his lap," the young woman said. "I was reading a newspaper while they were kissing. I disappeared for a while and when I returned I found them in the next room on the twin beds."

Describes Golf Course Tryst.

On other occasions she read her newspaper in the front seat of Kinsler's automobile, parked behind the Grays Lake railroad station, Mrs. Hershberger said, while he made love to Mrs. Mayer in the back seat.

Another rendezvous was the Round Lake golf course, of which Kinsler was a member, the witness said. While she sat in an automobile repulsing the advances of an escort her employer provided, Mrs. Hershberger declared, Mrs. Mayer and Kinsler went for a walk.

Other witnesses told of seeing Kinsler and Mrs. Mayer embrace at a resort beach and of watching their farewell at the Mayer home early one morning when she was clad in a nightgown.

In his testimony Mayer also accused Kinsler of drugging his beer one night in order to make love to Mrs. Mayer. Called as an adverse witness by Mayer's attorney, Kinsler denied all the charges.

Three Bandits in Auto Seize $1,400 Pay Roll

Two employés of the Grand laundry, 3047 Calumet avenue, were robbed of a $1,400 pay roll at 31st street and South Park way yesterday. Arthur C. Brunelle, secretary treasurer, and F. E. Livingston, bookkeeper, had drawn the money at the Drexel State bank and were on their way to the laundry when their car was forced to the curb by another, driven by a colored man. From this car leaped two white men, one armed with a shotgun, who took the money and escaped.

CONFER 2 HOURS IN VAIN IN HUNT FOR RELIEF PLAN

Members of the special committee named by John C. Martin, chairman of the Illinois Emergency Relief commission, to suggest methods of meeting Chicago's $1,000,000 monthly relief shortage, were in session yesterday at the Union League club for two hours but afterward reported no progress.

As spokesman, Stanley P. Farwell of the Business Research corporation, newly appointed secretary of the committee, said another meeting would be held next Monday and that it was hoped some plan would be adopted for presentation to the whole committee of 40 the following day.

"The more we go into the ramifications of the relief problem, the more befuddled we become," Farwell said.

Brookfield's New Giraffe Wins Special Car by a Neck

Robert Bean, assistant director of the Chicago Zoölogical park at Brookfield, has purchased a new giraffe for the zoo, it was learned yesterday, but its arrival from New York has been delayed until the railroad obtains a special giraffe car. The animal, more than thirteen feet high, is too tall for ordinary rolling stock. Mr. Bean bought the giraffe, the fourth for the zoo, last week.

DISCUSS EQUALITY OF WOMEN.

GENEVA, Sept. 22.—(AP)—Equality of women was discussed today by the league of nations committee on social questions. Most speakers contended the time was not ripe for an international conference on the question.

WEALTHY WIDOW SUES BIDWILL ON CONVICT'S DEBT

Seeks to Collect $252,400 from Sportsman.

Mrs. Grace M. Forschner, a wealthy widow living in Palos township, filed a suit yesterday in the Superior court asking an accounting from Charles W. Bidwill in order to collect a $252,400 judgment debt owed her by J. Donald Walker, alias Don Champagne, a convict at Joliet penitentiary.

Walker entered the prison Feb. 16, 1936, to serve a term of one to five years for swindling Mrs. Forschner, and later she was awarded a judgment against him for the amount she lost. Much of the money, Mrs. Forschner's bill charges, went into several of Bidwill's sporting enterprises.

Bidwill Denies Share in Holdings.

Bidwill immediately denied that Mrs. Forschner has any claim or interest, direct or indirect, in his business affairs. These include the Chicago Cardinals, professional football team, and the Hawthorne race track, in which he holds a controling interest.

Mrs. Forschner's bill asks an injunction to prevent Bidwill from disposing af any of his assets. Also named as defendants in the suit are J. H. Jonassen, president of the Wetzel Iron works, a former parole sponsor and employer of Walker, and Mrs. Louise M. Ranger, Mrs. Forschner's former secretary.

Mrs. Forschner inherited $1,500,000 from her husband, the late Thomas J. Forschner, a contractor. Walker was paroled from prison May 15, 1933, after serving a term for forgery.

Tells of Loans to Parolee.

Afterward, Mrs. Forschner said, she began lending him money and securities on his representation that he wanted to invest in Jonassen's iron works, where he was employed. Bidwill, according to her bill, knew Walker was a parolee and had defrauded her, yet he took this money from Walker to invest, the bill said.

"At the time of the alleged relations in which Mrs. Forschner's money is supposed to have gone into my business through deals with Walker and Jonassen I never had seen or heard of her," Bidwill declared through his attorney, Howard Ellis.

"I never had any dealings with her," he said. "As for Walker, I met him at race tracks, where he was a heavy better. He introduced Jonassen as a man interested in investing in sporting enterprises."

8 Gasoline Storage Tanks Explode; $3,000,000 Loss

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—Eight huge exploding gasoline tanks tonight showered flaming liquid in all directions when a spectacular fire of undetermined origin swept the plants of the Standard Oil and the Cooke Oil companies in the industrial district. Damage was estimated at more than $3,000,000. It was estimated that nearly 700,000 gallons of gasoline was fired, endangering the lives of firemen and many spectators.

35 POLICEMEN PUT ON TRAIL OF RAPIST-KILLERS

Special Bureau to End Night Terrorism.

Thirty-five policemen, members of the police department's newly formed sex bureau, began their duties last night after being instructed by Chief of Detectives John L. Sullivan.

"Commissioner Allman," said the chief, "has formed this organization in an effort to capture the night prowlers who have been raping and killing women. We want the attacks, particularly those in hotels and hospitals, stopped. Search the streets and the hotel lobbies and bring in every person who gives any evidence of being a moron."

The personnel, drawn from 34 police stations, will begin their work at 10:45 p. m., daily and quit at 6:45 a. m. They will be under the command of Lieut. Otto Erlanson, head of the homicide bureau.

Lie Tests Uphold Confession.

Meanwhile investigators announced that lie detector tests showed Thomas McCall was telling the truth Tuesday when he confessed he mistreated Miss Virginia Austin in her room at the Washington hotel, 167 West Washington street, on Aug. 15.

McCall, who is 39 years old, was a resident of the hotel at the time Miss Austin was slugged with a brick by a prowler. The only direct evidence he was the attacker is in his own statements, as Miss Austin, 24 years old, a doll designer for a New York firm, was unable to identify him. She also has informed the police she was not raped.

McCall was arrested Monday on a description furnished by a young woman resident of the hotel, who saw him on a fire escape outside her room. While in custody he has maintained a nonchalant, joking manner.

Elbert A. Bergener, president of the Chicago Engraving and Embossing company, said yesterday that McCall is not an official, as he claimed, nor even a regular employé of the concern. "Occasionally," said Bergener, "he did special work for us."

Vote True Bills for Rapist.

The grand jury, it was reported yesterday, voted true bills charging Robert Conroy, 25 years old, 3933 North Whipple street, a former convict, with rape and attempted rape. He confessed the torture and rape of Miss Ann Brasy, a choir singer, in her home at 4752 Lincoln avenue on Nov. 21, 1936.

Demetrio Sosa, 30 years old, 856 Wilson avenue, a bartender, was held by the Town Hall police last night after he was overpowered and held for police by Orion Carpenter, 40 years old, a deaf mute. Carpenter asserted Sosa was attempting to rape Mrs. Lorraine Morris, 16 years old, Carpenter's daughter, in their apartment at the same address.

The pencil which caused the death of the little girl.

Marian Knippel, 7 years old, was fatally injured yesterday when she fell on a sharply pointed pencil on the lawn in front of her home at 3253 North Central Park avenue. Marian would have entered the fourth grade at Ryan school this fall. The tragedy occurred after the radio school lessons were broadcast when, with pencil and pad in hand, she started to go to the home of a cousin to get notes on the lesson. She died in Belmont hospital.

SEEKS RETURN OF 2 CHILDREN TAKEN BY WIFE

Walter Nay yesterday asked Judge John J. Lupe to order his wife, Mrs. Edna Nay, to return his two children, Barbara, 12 years old, and Shirley, 9, whom the mother took last Saturday from Nay's home at 10411 South Wood street. Norman Becker, attorney for Mrs. Nay, said she took the children because Nay refused to let her see them after she was released last May from an asylum where her husband committed her a year ago.

Nay's attorney, George Geier, charged it was a kidnaping. Judge Lupe, however, said a mother could not kidnap her own children and continued the question of custody until Oct. 29, allowing her $100 a month temporary alimony pending a hearing on her divorce bill. The Nays are both 38 years old. The wife is living at 11017 South State street.

IF THE COURT BILL HAD PASSED.

What the Supreme court would have been if the court-packing bill had passed is amply revealed by the appointment of Mr. Justice Black. The appointment of Mr. Black is not the only indication. There are others. Quite as meaningful in its way is the National Labor Relations board.

The board is a court all of whose judges and all of whose other functionaries owe their appointment to the administration. The law which created the NLRB is an administration law. Here, then, is a court whose nature and personnel can safely be assumed to satisfy the administration at every point.

The board acts at once as prosecutor, judge and jury. That would be bad enough if all the members of the board, all its attorneys and all its examiners, were possessed of a godlike impartiality. The accumulating evidence from many sections of the country indicates all too plainly how far the personnel departs from this ideal. The conduct of the Inland Steel case was such that not even the board in Washington dared to indorse the methods pursued at the hearing in Chicago. The finding in the Fansteel case also outraged public opinion. Only the other day Representative Alfred N. Phillips Jr. of Connecticut, described by the Associated Press as "a supporter of much New Deal legislation," wrote to Mr. Roosevelt requesting him to "purge the National Labor Relations board of further relations with communists." He said the board had made a "farce and a disgrace" of the hearing of a complaint against the Yale & Towne company.

The bias of the board in favor of C. I. O. is widely accepted as a fact. This suggests what the quality of the Supreme court would have been if the court-packing bill had been enacted. We then would have had a C. I. O. Supreme court.

SIT WHEN YOU CAN.

All too often it is necessary to stand while riding in public conveyances in Chicago. Some people have become so accustomed to standing in street cars, buses, and elevated trains that they stand even when seats are available.

People in the ailes make it needlessly difficult for others to get in or out. When the aile is thus blocked a person boarding the car can't see the vacant places and assumes there are none. Accordingly, the crowd in the aile is increased and a good deal of avoidable inconvenience results. It is generally easy to slide past one man or woman, even a fat one, but half a dozen offer a problem in back field tactics.

Good manners in a public conveyance require that the passenger occupy a seat if one is available. He should do so even when he intends to ride only a few blocks. He should do so even if he must walk to the far end of the car to find the vacant place.

WHAT GIVES COAL ITS VALUE.

When railway regulation first became law a political expression came into being which asserted that in future "any aggrieved shipper could obtain justice from the largest railway company for the price of a postage stamp." The promise seemed almost millennial. Many took advantage of the penny stamp route to find from analysis of their complants that they really had nothing more than a grouch. From that point the 2 cent complaint began to grow until an appeal to the interstate commerce commission under present rules of practice carries all the trappings of a major lawsuit.

Politicians, however, have never forgotten the value in the slogan, and, as the present administration seldom overlooks any bets, it is not surprising to find that orders have gone forth to the alphabetical agencies to intervene in interstate commerce commission rate cases on behalf of the public. Thus armed, an expert propagandist will have an opportunity to show the administration's paternalistic concern for every phase of the voter's life by further demonstrating that he is the victim of injustice at the hands of the interstate commerce commission and the railways.

The first agency to take advantage of the new order was the national coal commission, and the first effort to show the public how it was being gouged was launched by John Carson, its consumers' counsel. He struck off with a statement that he had just discovered the astounding [to him] fact that the freight charges on a ton of coal were actually greater than the value of the fuel itself. Well, what of it? It might be volunteered that the same is true of a gallon of imported beer, to which could be added the further astonishing fact that the barrel is worth more than either the beer or the freight service. Such statements are true of any commodity—if it moves far enough.

In reality a ton of coal is not worth the cost of mining unless some transportation agency is available to move it. It acquires value as it is transported to a point where it is needed. Who can deny that the railway, in furnishing tracks, cars and locomotives to ship it hundreds of miles, actually gives the fuel a greater service than the mining company, which merely digs it out of the ground?

The administration has embarked on a program of controling the agencies of congress, and particularly the interstate commerce commission, which, in spite of its difficulties with an archaic law, has an enviable record for justice. The first gun is a ridiculous statement framed to inflame the consumer against the railways and the commission. With true political psychology the speaker turned a truism, which is a matter of common knowledge to the better informed, into an indictment for the consumption of the unwary.

TOPHEAVY PUBLIC WORKS.

In Wyandotte county, Kas., an 800 foot section of a new dam collapsed the other night. The dam was about 1,400 feet long. Its cost was $1,500,000. It was built under WPA auspices. H. L. Reppart, chief engineer for the WPA in Kansas, said the collapse seemed to have resulted from "just too much weight for the base underneath."

The prime object of the government's projects was not to build soundly, but to spend money in the congressional districts as rapidly as it could be siphoned from the treasury. Large-scale engineering works cannot be improvised overnight. In ordinary practice, study of the merits of a project, detailed examination of the site, the drawing of plans and the checking and rechecking of plans and estimates require at least as much time as the construction itself. Man can change the face of nature, but only the foolhardy will undertake large works without going through the painstaking preliminaries which experience has proved essential to economy and safety.

Probably there will not be many dramatic failures such as took place in Wyandotte county; the engineering profession as a whole can be counted upon to build safely even under the adverse conditions imposed by the administration. But if Mr. Reppart's words are taken figuratively as well as literally they will apply to other items in the public works program. Most of them will collapse "from just too much weight for the base underneath."

That is notably true of the irrigation and power projects which Mr. Roosevelt intends to visit on his forthcoming western trip. He proposes to inspect the Casper-Alcova, the Owyhee, Bonneville, Grand Coulee, and Fort Peck dams. Adequate information regarding the Owyhee project is not at hand. There can be no slightest doubt that each of the others is costing more than the benefits which may be expected of it can justify. In that sense each of them is destined to collapse "from just too much weight for the base underneath." The taxpayers, needless to say, are at the bottom of the pile.

The government's own engineers had reported adversely on most of the projects which Mr. Roosevelt will visit. Under pressure, the army and reclamation engineers altered their verdicts, but there never was any doubt what they really thought. With the exception of Fort Peck, these projects are intended primarily to provide irrigation water and power. There is no market now for anything like the amount of power to be produced in the regions where it will be produced and little likelihood that there will be such a market for generations to come. Likewise, there is no shortage in this country today of desirable farm lands and no likelihood that a shortage will develop for at least fifty years, if then. Even assuming a continued increase in population, it is doubtful if lands so far from the consuming center will be worth what it will cost to irrigate them. Meanwhile the existence of these projects must be expected to depress the price of farm lands and crops in other sections of the country.

The Fort Peck dam, near Glasgow, Mont., should prove particularly interesting to the President and his party. Here is what is said to be the largest earth dam in the world. It is as high as a seventeen story building and two miles long. The plans call for the production of only minor amounts of electricity and the uses of the dam for irrigation and flood control are negligible. The grand and, practically speaking, the only use for this gigantic structure is to impound water to render the Missouri river navigable about as far up as Yankton, S. D.; that is to say, the dam will increase the navigable stretch of the river by a few hundred miles in a sparsely settled agricultural area. To achieve this end a dam which will cost [according to preliminary estimates, no doubt since exceeded] about 85 million dollars is being built, and even then the expenditure will be of no value unless another 60 million dollars is spent in dredging the channel. Other millions must be spent each year to keep the channel dredged.

Out in Kansas a million and a half dollars was wasted when the dam caved in. The waste at Fort Peck is at least fifty times as large. The waste on the Columbia river is at least a hundred times as large. In that sense the dams which Mr. Roosevelt will inspect are as topheavy as the Wyandotte dam.

PRISONS AND POLITICS.

The state superintendent of prisons, Joseph E. Ragen, has announced that hereafter the spoils system will not control appointments and promotions at the penal institutions of Illinois. It is to be hoped that this policy will be adhered to. When wardens and guards are chosen for their vote-getting powers, lax discipline, contract graft and other abuses follow. The test will come on the eve of elections when the political machine is under greatest temptation to load the public services with party men. If the temptation can be resisted at that time, Illinois will know that the prisons are no longer in politics.

Editorial of the Day

"IGNORE HISTORY."

[Idaho Statesman, Boise.]

The Kansas City Star cites the case of the young French correspondent who, when introduced to a distinguished editor of a London newspaper, sought to make apology for the fact that he was not as well versed in history and international politics as he should be.

It was almost immediately after the world war and the famous editor saw fit to brush aside the apology with the declaration, "Young man, your ignorance of history is an advantage. The world has entered a new era. The past is no longer a guide. A knowledge of history would only mislead you."

The editor's words were full of folly, as was demonstrated in less than a year, when the nations again were following their old paths and a working knowledge of history and international politics of former years was absolutely essential to any one seeking intelligently to report what was going on in the world.

When the New Deal came into power all the older books on economics went into the discard. If we don't search them out and apply their teachings again we will ride straight to catastrophe.

IF YOU WANDER PAST the Lincoln mementos and through just the right door in the Northwestern university school of law, you'll find yourself in quite another world, a somewhat somber one, reminiscent of London on a dark day. It is the great hall the students know as the House of Commons, after which it is fashioned. The hall is rather like a pit, and it seems a long way down to the floor, from which the stern oak benches rise row after row, quite as they do in the House of Commons. They may not look so comfortable; try them, though, and you'll find they are.

In the gayest of colored robes, John Jay gazes from above the speaker's platform, and Mr. Leggett, who escorts you, hopes you won't think the first chief justice was being frivolous. They really wore robes of bright colors in the early days of the Supreme court. Mr. Leggett would just as soon you didn't call it the House of Commons, too, for its real name is Lincoln hall. See? There is Lincoln, looking so kindly and almost chatty in the portrait you face as you enter.

Those stained glass medallions on the windows aren't mere ornaments. Some of them are emblems of law and justice, and others record celebrated decisions of the Supreme court. One honors the memory of a class. From another Kenesaw Mountain Landis peers sternly down, and when he peers sternly he lets himself go. University officials hope that some day there will be a medallion on each of the 400 panes of the great windows, which rise ivy covered to the ceiling.

Lecturers scarcely have to raise their voices to make themselves heard. The walls, where hang the coats of arms of the thirteen original states, are finished in acoustic plaster that Paul Sabine invented. They just spray it on, and you hear better.

BEAUTIFIERS MAY IRRITATE.

EVERY woman is an artist—or should be—in the field of cosmetics. Like the painter, skill lies in her sense of color. Many a fair one has achieved fame because she surpassed others of her sex in the deft, discriminating employment of various aids to beauty. Our common ancestress—Eve—had many advantages; her toilet didn't take long. Nowadays milady's dressing table presents a display of attractive bottles, boxes, and jars.

The other day I had a letter from a lady of my acquaintance with the request that I say something about inflammation caused by cosmetics. She wrote: "Of course, I know that the pesky thing does not occur very often, but I have just gone through a trying experience. Won't you discuss this subject so that the application of troublesome beautifiers may be stopped before the skin has been harmed?"

I realize full well that about 100 per cent of our women have recourse to preparations which consist, for the most part, of various chemicals and dyes put up in lotions, creams, and ointments designed to contract the pores, soften the cuticle, eradicate wrinkles, or restore the blush of youth.

On the whole, the number of patients who are affected is not very great and there is no need to sound a clarionlike warning against the practice. On the other hand a few persons will prove to be extremely sensitive. There may be actual destruction of the skin because the chemicals are too strong. Again, a reddish rash, simulating a mild attack of poison ivy, may break out. If the employment of the offending ointment or dye is stopped immediately, little damage will ensue.

Bleaches and freckle removers may be sufficiently powerful to dissolve the outer cells of the epidermis and thus produce scaling. As one can readily visualize, the effects of a chemical strong enough to eat away the surface may be followed by a severe reaction.

Dyes for eyelashes and eyebrows are similar in composition to hair dyes, and a compound commonly known as paraphenyldiamine may be exceedingly toxic. Cases have been reported of severe swelling with injury to the lids and even to the eyeballs.

Occasionally creams, lotions, and powders contain metals, and now and then small bits of these precipitated elements may be deposited in the skin, giving it an almost tattooed appearance.

As a rule those who are disturbed by any one of the ordinary cosmetics will stop the use of the specific preparation promptly and thus avoid further symptoms. But once the skin has been insulted it is likely to be more sensitive to allied compounds, even though made up of different ingredients. In addition, there are cases in which hay feverlike symptoms will be brought on. An individual may be trying a new powder, for example, when perhaps within 30 minutes sneezing, with swelling of the mucous membrane of the nose and throat, will develop. Others may be susceptible to the same powder, but in a different way. Hives may break out on the skin and be accompanied by intense itching.

Rarely is the diagnosis difficult, and when the culprit is spotted the remedy is not far to seek. After removing all of the offending substance, cold, wet compresses of boric acid will relieve the acute symptoms, but this procedure must be persisted in for several hours at a time and the applications renewed often. Later, boric acid ointment will prove soothing.

Beautifiers contribute to charm and personality, but "once burned, twice shy." Women learn quickly the special brands which are harmful to their particular type of epidermis and shun them.

ENLARGED SPLEEN.

B. R. writes: What causes an enlarged spleen? Can it be cured and how? Has the diet any connection with this condition?

REPLY.

Many diseases are accompanied by enlargement of the spleen. These include leukemia [a blood disease], chronic malaria, splenic anemia [Banti's disease], Gaucher's disease, certain types of jaundice, etc. Acute infections, for example, typhoid fever, will present the symptom. In some conditions, the organ may be removed with benefit—even recovery. Diet is not a factor, as a rule.

RATTLE BONES.

Noisy writes: Every time I move my bones crack. I am embarrassed while dancing as I sound like an unoiled machine. I bathe in mineral oil every night but I still snap.

REPLY.

Rusty hinges always squeak. Your joints need lubrication—not your skin. Standing beneath a "gusher" would not help. Why not practice tap dancing? You could accompany yourself with syncopated "cracks." Enough arthritis is present to decrease the secretion of joint fluid. Increase circulation by massage, heat, and sunshine.

COLD BATHS.

M. G. writes: I am 25 years old and have taken cold baths for the last 10 years and enjoy them. Will the practice cause any trouble later, such as hardening of the arteries?

REPLY.

Cold baths stimulate the capillaries of the skin and are healthful. However, they should be taken only by persons who are vigorous. They neither cause arteriosclerosis nor predispose to other physical defects. But there is no wisdom in emulating a polar bear.

NOSE ITCHES.

M. R. writes: I have been annoyed with an itchy nose for some months. What can I do about it?

REPLY.

Nasal hairs and infections are frequently responsible. Sensitivity to certain foods can also be a cause. Use a nasal douche of salt water. Then coat the inside of each nostril with sterile vaseline or liquid petroleum. Keep the parts scrupulously clean.

LOOK FOR THE TROUBLE.

M. P. writes: Are swollen glands in the groin an indication of any disease? I have bunches of them which feel like small nodules. I am 24 years old.

REPLY.

The commonest cause of enlargement of the lymphatic glands is absorption of infection. Look for trouble in the areas which the lymphatic vessels drain.

SCHICK TEST.

J. H. writes: What disease is the Schick test used for?

REPLY.

WESTERN DEMOCRATIC SENATORS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

SYDNEY, Australia—Hotel keepers, seeking revision of the law for liquor sales to extend through the 1938 celebration of Australia's 150th birthday, have precipitated a sharp contest in this city.

They have asked that their lounges be specially licensed for the sale of liquor after the prescribed closing hour—6 p. m. Overseas visitors, they assert will demand brighter night life than Sydney ordinarily offers, and the means to that end will be served by a more genial flow of liquor.

Opposition, especially from the churches, has developed, and there are charges that the real objective is to break down the 6 p. m. closing rule for hotels and pave the way for a return to the 11 p. m. closing of pre-war days.

There are undisputed grounds for the churches' fears. The liquor interests are large contributors to party funds, irrespective of party. It is charged that liquor interests now get away with many things. No official move has been taken, for example, against the system of tied houses—that is, hotels owned by breweries.

Under the present law a tourist booked in any hotel may order and consume liquor on the premises at any hour. However after 6 p. m. he cannot legally treat his friends registered at another hotel, or local residents other than those who are booked in his hotel for the night or who are permanent guests there.

The liquor trade has made many attempts to have the hours of sale extended, or—as it is stated—adjusted. No régime, however, has been ready to risk the consequences of such a concession. There seems to be a general belief that, in normal circumstances, liquor sales between 6 a. m. and 6 p. m. are sufficient.

Anyway, the law is now honored more in the breach than in the observance. Any one decently dressed and sober is seldom questioned when he asks to buy liquor after hours, and police raids are infrequent. Authorities wink at unobtrusive after hours trading, and always have.

Officials appear ready to go so far as to license liquor sales until midnight in lounges of approved hotels during the 1938 celebrations.

They realize, however, that if all hotels are treated alike the brightening of night life for tourists will also mean providing facilities for late drinking in second rate hotels in undesirable quarters. It seems the authorities cannot be expected to act until hotel keepers revise their demand, which now is "One in, all in."

PROPERTY RESTRICTION.

Chicago, Sept. 11.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—The following restriction appears in the deeds from the subdivider to the first buyers in the entire tract subdivided, with the exception of the premises adjoining my property:

1. "The grantor covenants that not more than one structure for human habitation shall be erected on the premises hereby conveyed."

2. Wouldn't this restriction apply to those premises inasmuch as it appears in all the other deeds, even though it was not specifically stated in the deed to that property?

3. Is it not apparent from this restriction that the entire subdivision was laid out for residential purposes?

4. Even though the restriction may be omitted from the deeds in subsequent sales of the various properties in this subdivision, isn't it binding as long as it appeared in the first deed?

5. It is my understanding that no restrictions may be removed without the consent of all the other owners in the subdivision. Is this correct? C. J. E.

1. After conveying the premises the grantor would have nothing to do with it. Either you have misquoted the wording or the wording is highly unusual.

2. We do not see how a restriction expressly limited to the premises conveyed could in itself be regarded as applicable to other premises.

3. No. If your conclusion is apparent, it is from other facts.

4. Not on the bare facts stated.

5. See preceding answers. In general, any party who has legal rights cannot be deprived of those rights without his consent except by court proceedings.

FREE PRESS AND DICTATORSHIP.

Chicago, Sept. 17.—If anything more were needed to demonstrate to the American people the great blessing we enjoy in a free press, surely this Black-Ku Klux incident should fill the bill.

We are pretty close to the brink of dictatorship right now, as many people see present day conditions. Should our press be gagged, it won't be long before our courts also will be mere puppet tribunals to enforce the decrees of the Big I, in whom dwelleth all wisdom and power.

MR. ROOSEVELT AND KLANSMAN BLACK.

Divernon, Ill., Sept. 17.—Your leading editorial and reprinted cartoon in the Sept. 15 issue of THE TRIBUNE were magnificent.

EXAMINING JUSTICE BLACK.

Chicago, Sept. 16.—I suggest that when, as, and if Justice Hugo Black returns from England he be examined as to the K. K. He always appeared to assume a witness guilty and set out to prove it. Let's see whether he will now approve such methods.

THE COURSE OF DICTATORS.

St. Charles, Ill., Sept. 20.—The latest interpretation seems to be: "The Supreme court must obey the constitution but I don't have to."

Do not all would-be dictators start in the same fashion—by attempting to put themselves above the law and fighting imaginary windmills?

And how much longer must we, the common people, put up with such childishness? If Mr. Roosevelt took a new vote on this will of the people stuff I think he'd be very much surprised at the results. LUCILE SMITH.

RACIAL PREJUDICE IN BUSINESS.

Chicago, Sept. 16.—Yesterday a gentleman of my acquaintance, of Spanish ancestry, between 29 and 33 years of age, with a fully satisfactory record, was unable to obtain consideration as an applicant for a position because he did not happen to be born a Nordic.

One of the peculiar absurdities in this case of racial bigotry is that the sources advertising for the position are looking for a Spanish correspondent; yet my friend was discriminated against because he is Spanish descent instead of "Nordic type" as stated to him over the phone.

It is difficult to see any fundamental difference between having this kind of racial bigotry in business and in the highest tribunal in the land, say in the person of Mr. Justice Black. It is just as un-American to refuse employment to a competent man on the grounds that he is not of such and such race as it would be to refuse justice on the same grounds or even jeopardize its impartial administration in the Supreme court by a member of the Ku Klux Klan.

COLLISION WITH POLICEMAN'S CAR KILLS MOTORIST

Dead Driver Blamed for Ignoring Stop Sign.

Matthew Egyut, 27 years old, was killed and Lieut. Henry Andel of the Homewood county highway police was knocked unconscious when their cars collided yesterday at Crawford avenue and 135th streets in Crestwood.

Lieut. Andel was driving south, bound for the Homewood station from his home at 2504 Drake avenue. Egyut, who was returning from a hunting trip, was going east. He lived at 8814 Cottage Grove avenue.

At the intersection, according to state police, Egyut ran through a stop sign. Lieut. Andel's car rolled over twice, and Egyut's car bounded over a ditch and came to a stop in a corn field.

Mail Carrier Killed.

Lloyd B. Sale of 2731 Chase avenue, a mail carrier, was fatally injured last night when his automobile collided with one driven by James J. Horak at McCormick boulevard and Main street, Niles Center. Sale died in St. Francis hospital, Evanston, where Horak, who was only slightly injured, also was taken. Horak, a truck driver, lives at 2502 58th avenue, Cicero.

William H. Gardner, 622 Spring street, La Grange Park, a retired lumber dealer, died yesterday in Hines Memorial hospital of injuries suffered when the car in which he was riding with his son was struck by an Indiana Harbor Belt line freight train at Roosevelt road in Broadview. The son, William Jr., was slightly injured.

Woman Dies After Collision.

Mrs. Caroline Lambin, 65 years old, 3224 Kenmore avenue, died yesterday at Swedish Covenant hospital of injuries incurred when the car driven by her husband collided with another Sept. 11 at Grand avenue and Mannheim road.

Charles Wright, 6 years old, 2324 Normandy avenue, died last night in Frances Willard hospital of injuries suffered Aug. 26 when he was struck by an automobile driven by Mrs. Claire Wiemerslage, 8427 Arnold street, River Grove, at Grand and Harlem avenues, Elmwood Park.

Up to 4 p. m. yesterday 763 persons had been killed in automobile accidents in Cook county since Jan. 1. Of these 583 were killed in Chicago, where 16,398 were injured in the same period.

[See editorial page for the massacre clock.]

AIRLINER HITS 2 CARS, ANOTHER PLANE; NONE HURT

A United Airlines twin motored Douglas D-C 3 airliner crashed into two parked automobiles and another plane last night while taxiing southeast in the runway at Chicago airport after making a landing from a test flight. No one was injured. Police estimated the damage at $10,000.

L. C. Brown and Fred Angstadt, who were piloting the airliner, said its brakes failed to hold. A wing of the big ship sliced off the top of one of the automobiles and upset the other car. Then the Douglas swung against an unoccupied Travelair biplane, owned by the Feris Flying service, and the left propellor of the larger plane demolished the biplane.

No passengers were on board the Douglas, in which Brown and Angstadt were practicing night landings.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—Jacqueline Cochrane of New York today was awarded the Gar Wood trophy as holder of the women's land plane speed record. The previous record of 276.527 miles an hour was made in 1934 by the late Helene Boucher of France.

ANNUAL SYPHILIS COST IN U. S. SET AT 110 MILLIONS

The cost of syphilis in the United States each year is $110,000,000, and 1,100,000 persons in this country get the disease annually. Dr. Royd R. Sayers, chief of the division of industrial hygiene of the United States public health service, Washington, D. C., made this estimate yesterday in a talk before the American Association of Railway Surgeons' meeting at the Palmer house.

Finds Life Shortened.

"Fifteen per cent of all the blindness in the United States is due to syphilis, and during the working period of a man's life—from 30 to 50 years—a man having the disease finds his expectancy of life decreased 16 per cent," Dr. Sayers told the 1,000 physicians at the closing session of the convention.

Speaking on "Syphilis as an Industrial Hazard," Dr. Sayers emphasized that industrial reports sent to Washington disclose that 44 persons out of each 1,000 examined have the disease. "This percentage is staggering, both to industry and to the health of the nation," he said.

Philadelphian Heads Group.

Dr. Harvey Bartle of Philadelphia was elected president to succeed Dr. W. A. McMillan of Charleston, W. Va. Other new officers chosen were: Dr. Frank Dinnen, Cleveland, first vice president; Dr. John Hayden, Kansas City, second vice president; Dr. Willis C. Campbell, Memphis, third vice president; Dr. T. L. Hansen, Chicago, treasurer; Dr. D. B. Moss, Chicago, secretary.

FIVE MOTORISTS LOSE RIGHTS TO DRIVE; 3 JAILED

Judge J. M. Braude in Safety court yesterday took away the driving rights of five motorists, three of whom he sent to jail.

Joseph De Bellis, 5649 South Menard avenue, was sentenced to five days in jail for reckless driving and denied the use of his car for a year.

Roy Davis, colored, 360 West Oak street, was sentenced to ten days in jail and denied driving privileges for a year for drunken driving. Hilario Salgado, 7558 West 63d place, Argo, was sentenced to five days in jail and ordered not to drive for a year for leaving the scene of an accident.

The others were Edward McInerney, 1958 Ainslie street, reckless driving, fined $50 and costs, 3 months driving suspension, and Fred Mrazek, 3045 South Pulaski road, reckless driving, fined $100 and costs, 1 year driving suspension. Jack Jett, colored, 652 East 50th street, was sentenced to 30 days in jail for a false affidavit in getting license plates.

In Evanston Municipal court Judge James M. Corcoran fined John S. Pruter, 1958 Ainslie street, Chicago, Democratic precinct captain in the 47th ward, $10 and costs for recklessness.

THIEF TAKES TUB OF BUTTER.

Jerry Patek, 5512 Twenty-sixth street, Cicero, reported to the Hudson avenue police yesterday that a thief stole a 210 pound tub of butter, worth $83, off his truck while he was making a delivery at 1430 Sedgwick street.

PAROLEES SENT BACK AS FAST AS THEY'RE LET OUT

Seven Today Will Bring Year's Return to 904.

Seven parolees were held at county jail last night awaiting return to Joliet prison this morning. Four had been brought back from California, and the return of the seven will bring the number of parole violators sent back to prison this year to 904.

T. P. Sullivan, chief of the parole supervision department, said that under the new system the number of parolees returned as violators is nearly equal to the total number released on parole during 1936 and 1937. Under this new system in effect since Jan. 1 all parolees arrested on any charge are sent back to prison without a hearing here and it is up to the parole board to decide whether or not they are to be reparoled.

Brought from Outstate.

The new system is also causing return of many parolees who had gone to other states, Mr. Sullivan said. Formerly the board didn't bother to bring back a parolee found in prison in another state.

The parolees being sent back to prison today are:

LESTER LYTLE, paroled to Westwood, Cal., on March 19, 1936. Originally sent to Pontiac on Dec. 24, 1928, paroled in 1929, and then returned as a violator and again paroled.

JOE KULCHER, returned from Oakland, Cal. Sentenced Nov. 23, 1933, for burglary, and paroled Dec. 14, 1935. On July 1, 1936, it was learned he had left Chicago without notice to parole authorities.

CHARLES WHITE, brought back from Los Angeles. Sentenced in Kane county on Feb. 24, 1930, for confidence game, and paroled on June 29, 1933, to R. W. White, chief of police at Geneva, N. Y. On Nov. 14, 1934, it was learned he had left New York without permission.

STANLEY LEIPIS, sent to Pontiac for automobile larceny on June 26, 1934, and paroled Aug. 18, 1936. On July 7, 1937, fined $100 and costs for assault and battery.

LEON STOUP, sent to Joliet on March 16, 1933, for larceny, and paroled April 1, 1935. On May 13, 1937, sentenced to the House of Correction for four months.

HERMAN HOLLAND, sent to prison April 28, 1926, and paroled to Fall River, Mass., on Sept. 25, 1931, after serving five years for robbery, and disappeared from there on Dec. 16, 1933. Recently found in Chicago.

JOSEPH WILLIAMS, alias William Stone, brought back from Oakland, Cal. Sentenced to Menard on June 7, 1929, for larceny, and paroled Jan. 14, 1933. On Dec. 15, 1934, a warant was issued for his arrest when he disappeared.

2 INDIANA CITIES FACE U. S. SUIT IN RIVER POLLUTION

Lansing, Mich., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—Attorney General Raymond W. Starr received instructions today from the state stream control commission to start federal court injunction proceedings against the cities of South Bend and Mishawaka, Ind., in an effort to stop their pollution of the St. Joseph river.

The commission authorized the litigation after extended negotiations and correspondence with officials of the two Indiana cities had failed to bring any assurance that pollution would cease.

The St. Joseph river, this state contends, leaves Michigan uncontaminated but returns to this state after looping into Indiana filled with sewage and other wastes which completely nullify work of the stream control commission here in attempting to clean up the stream.

The next time Luana Bonar, 19 years old, 129th street and Southwest highway, Palos Park, makes a 2,000 mile trip, she won't use a bicycle. Arriving at Pullman, Wash., yesterday, weary from a three weeks' journey across the country to attend Washington State college, she declared, "never again." Miss Bonar intends to register in the college of forestry. In the meantime, she is shopping around for a second hand motorcycle, just in case.

FILE INCOME TAX LIENS AGAINST 72 DIVINE DISCIPLES

New York, Sept. 22.—(AP)—Reports of money squabbles that have issued from Father J. Divine's heavenly kingdoms in recent months were abruptly crystalized today with the filing of judgments and income tax liens against 72 disciples of the diminutive Negro whose followers called him "God."

Harry M. Hickey, collector of internal revenue for the 14th district, said the liens aggregated $12,000 and concerned allegedly unpaid income taxes for 1936 and this year.

The largest lien, Hickey said, was for $291.67 and against the name of Faithful Mary of High Falls, N. Y. She was believed to be the same member of the cult's hierarchy who recently severed connections with "father." Other celestial defendants listed were Sincere Determination, Lovely Peace, and Holiness Love.

SINGER IS KILLED IN FALL AGAINST ELEVATOR SHAFT

Miss Mona Moore, a singer at the Chez Paree night club, was fatally injured yesterday when she fell in an elevator at Eastgate hotel, 162 East Ontario street, and fractured her skull.

Stanley Sabado, elevator operator, said Miss Moore, who was 25 years old, appeared to be distraught when she stepped into the elevator. As it passed the second floor level she fell forward and her head struck the shaft.

At the Chez Paree, Manager Mike Fritzel said Miss Moore had been a singer there for about a year, but left temporarily two weeks ago because of illness. She returned to work Tuesday night, Fritzel said. Letters in her hotel room showed that her mother, Mrs. Belle Early, lives at Muskegon Heights, Mich.

HOTEL BANDITS TAKE $150.

Two young gunmen took $150 from the Orrington hotel, 1710 Orrington avenue, Evanston, early yesterday after menacing three employés in the lobby.

IMPROVEMENT OF "L" LINES IS SNAG TO TRANSIT UNITY

Judge James H. Wilkerson of the federal District court, who has recovered from an illness which forced him to leave the bench in June, held a traction unification conference yesterday in his chambers with W. Rufus Abbott, chairman of the reorganization committee of the Chicago Surface lines; Guy Richardson, president of the lines, and Attorneys William P. Sidley and James M. Sheean.

The meeting was a preliminary to the filing of a report of progress by the committee Sept. 30. The principal obstacle toward unification, it was reported, has been encountered on the subject of rehabilitation of the elevated lines. Representatives of the elevated lines, it is reported, want the surface lines to be used in rehabilitation.

Writes Undertaker Asking Cremation; Police Find Body

Joe Schwartz, 847 Miller street, yesterday sent a letter to Baxter Beaumont, an undertaker at 912 Madison street, asking Beaumont to cremate his body. The undertaker notified police, who broke into Schwartz's apartment and found him dead, shot through the head. Schwartz's wife, Rose, died last year. He was 55 years old.

FOUR SLUG WAY OUT OF JAIL IN OHIO; INJURE 3

Desperadoes Steal Auto of Judge; One Caught.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—One of the greatest manhunts in Cleveland's history was under way tonight for three convicts who, with a fourth prisoner later captured, slugged their way out of the Cuyahoga county jail here this afternoon. In their bullet spattered getaway, they injured three persons.

The three fugitives, accused of looting several banks of a total of $50,000 since they fled last year from Missouri's state penitentiary, were being held for a trial in which federal authorities planned to demand their lives. The fourth man was under a charge of murder.

The discovery after the break that a baby, 2½ months old, son of one of the fugitives, Charles Bird, had been abandoned in an east side apartment, led police to theorize that Bird's wife had helped plot the escape. Weapons had been smuggled in to the prisoners in their cells.

Two Brothers Sought.

Charles Bird, 26 years old; his brother, Frank, 30, and James Widmer, 31, are the three men sought. Theodore Slapik, 19, was captured.

The four men suddenly produced three revolvers and a knife in their fourth floor cell block in the jail this afternoon. They beat two deputies and locked them in a cell, wrested keys from a guard, and descended in an elevator.

Dashing into the street, they commandeered a coupe only to smash it into another car four blocks away. Brandishing guns, they pulled Municipal Judge Louis Petrash from his passing car and roared away.

At more than sixty miles an hour they sped through city streets, disregarding trafic signals and narrowly missing two street cars. Their machine struck Mrs. Paul Tober and hurled her into a steel safety zone post. Both her arms and legs were broken and her skull was believed fractured.

Smash Up Second Car.

Once more the desperadoes smashed their car, this time against a safety zone post. They seized another auto, turned down a side street and leaped out.

The screams of two small girls attracted police to a yard where they found Slapik cowering in a child's play tent. Although he had a gun he surrendered without a struggle after one shot was fired. His thumb had been wounded by a bullet fired by police during the wild chase.

Frank Bird and Widmer were serving life terms for murder when they escaped in Missouri in August, 1936. Charles Bird, who escaped the month before, was serving ten years for robbery and auto theft. Slapik was awaiting grand jury action on a charge of killing Special Policeman Lawrence Krall.

Police are seeking a third Bird brother in whose apartment they found several large knives and nine heavy files.

Recapture 4 Prisoners.

Deadwood, S. D., Sept. 22.—(AP)—A few hours of freedom for four prisoners who escaped from the Lawrence county jail here early today ended tonight with their recapture by a Wyoming sherif.

E. E. Minard, Lawrence county sherif, received a report at 8:30 p. m. from the sherif of Moorcroft, Wyo., that he had captured the four—Ted Williams, 29, Joplin, Mo.; Eugene Watts, 19, and Clarence McCoy, 19, both of Dayton, O., and John Evans, 19, Cincinnati.

The men escaped about 5:30 a. m. today, sawing their way out after binding and gagging four fellow prisoners, intimidating five others, and locking Deputy Sherif Louis Hardin and a mental patient in a cell.

Recapture Six Georgians.

Reidsville, Ga., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—Six convicts who escaped last night from Georgia's new prison, which had been regarded as virtually escape proof, were recaptured today.

The men sawed through bars in the prison run-around, then sprung a trap door in the roof and lowered themselves to the ground with ropes made of blankets. When guards opened fire three of the convicts cowered in the yard. The others fled over a wire fence, but were captured ten miles away after being trailed with bloodhounds.

Captured After Jail Break

SUIT TO COLLECT APPRAISAL FEES FROM CITY HEARD

Attorneys began presentation of evidence yesterday to a jury in the court of Judge Martin M. Gridley, who is hearing the case of Frank H. Mesce. Mesce seeks to collect $854,676 fees from the city for work as a real estate appraiser during the whoopee era of a former Republican mayor.

Immediately after selection of the jury was completed, Daniel M. Healy, counsel for Mesce, presented in evidence twelve ordinances which authorized the Wacker drive project in 1920 and the widening of Ashland, Ogden and Western avenues. Mesce was hired as an appraiser of property condemned in construction of these projects. Attorney W. W. Wilson is assisting Assistant Corporation Counsel Joseph J. Sullivan is fighting the suit.

COURTESY PRIZE HONORS PATIENT PUBLIC SERVANT

He Enlightens a Visitor to Treasurer's Office.

BY VIRGINIA GARDNER.

William Styler.

As a reward for enduring courteously a barrage of questions while a line of other questioners grew before his desk, William Styler wins THE TRIBUNE'S $5 courtesy prize today. He is one of two men at the information desk in the office of County Treasurer Horace G. Lindheimer.

"I am supposed to study this office and report it to my club for a functions of government session," the reporter told him. "Could you tell me what office this is?"

Tells Her Official Duties.

"In this office we do nothing but collect taxes, madam," he replied.

"But you aren't collecting any," his annoying visitor said.

"No. We just answer questions mostly. But these other 350 employés do."

"What are those signs that say 'country towns' for?"

"This is a county office, madam. Residents of all the country towns, Evanston and so on, also come here."

"Why, Evanston isn't a country town. I live there."

"It's outside the city limits, madam."

"Well, what are all those women doing? They don't pay taxes, do they?"

For a minute Mr. Styler's eyelids flickered, but he answered valiantly: "It just happens that the women mostly pay the taxes in here. We see more women taking care of them than men."

How They Know What to Pay.

"But how do they know what to pay? I mean, how do they know what is a just tax?"

Mr. Styler's face remained expressionless.

"Because they get a bill," he said gently.

"And all a person can do is pay it, I suppose," his visitor remarked.

"O, no, you can protest," the clerk said. "The assessment is made on a 37 per cent basis——"

"Good, I'll tell the club that," the visitor said, and left.

When she returned after looking elsewhere in the building for examples of politeness, Mr. Styler cast a gloomy glance at her, but said courteously: "I was just thinking of a pamphlet you might be interested in. I'll get it for you."

Mr. Styler is 35 years old and lives at 6556 Drexel avenue. He has a wife and five children.

Niece of Indian Maharajah in Chicago on Tour of U. S.

Princess Rajkumari Leilavati, niece of the Maharajah of Mysore, India, with several Indian companions, went to the Edgewater Beach hotel yesterday for a two day visit to Chicago. Princess Leilavati, a young, slim woman dressed in a white native costume, is on a world tour—her first trip outside Mysore. She and her party will travel through the United States and to Honolulu, returning to India in December.

WIDOW'S DEATH FREES RYERSON TRUST TO PUBLIC

Cultural Institutions to Get Major Portion.

The death of Mrs. Carrie Hutchinson Ryerson, widow of Martin A. Ryerson, art collector and philanthropist, terminates the trust in which his large estate was held, releasing the major portion of it for equal division among the University of Chicago, the Art institute, and the Field museum.

In 1933 the Ryerson estate was valued at $5,993,341. The amount for division among the three institutions, according to Mr. Ryerson's will, is expected to be approximately $3,300,000. In addition, the three institutions are left $620,000 by Mrs. Ryerson, making their total share about $4,000,000.

Termination of the Ryerson trust was learned yesterday when her will was filed with Mitchell C. Robin, clerk of the Probate court, by the law firm of Scott, MacLeish & Falk. Mrs. Ryerson died Sept. 5 at her summer home in Lake Geneva, Wis., at the age of 78.

Her estate consists almost entirely of personal property. She left $10,000 to the Park Ridge School for Girls, and $20,000 to George Woodward, an employé. The balance was ordered distributed as soon as possible among the three cultural institutions named in her husband's will and to which he contributed liberally during his lifetime.

Mrs. Ryerson's death also makes available to the Art institute her husband's valuable art collection, considered one of the finest in the United States, which was not included in his estate. Mr. Ryerson provided that she should enjoy its use after his death.

Collection World Famous.

The Ryerson collection of paintings, sculpture, ivory, and tapestries is world famous. Dr. Robert B. Harshe, director of the institute, termed the collections of 13th, 14th, and 15th century primitives one of the finest in the world.

Mr. Ryerson died Aug. 11, 1932, several years after he retired from the steel business. He was a former president of the board of trustees of the University of Chicago, an honorary president of the Art institute, and vice president of the Field museum.

His will left $500,000 outright and the family home to Mrs. Ryerson. Relatives, employés, and charities benefited to the extent of $295,000 in bequests. The balance of his estate was placed in trust with the Northern Trust company.

Income Is Divided.

One-third of the income went to Mrs. Ryerson, one-third to a niece, Mrs. Julia I. Juhn of Ouchy, Switzerland, and the balance of the income to the three institutions.

Upon Mrs. Ryerson's death her husband provided that the trust would end, with Mrs. Juhn receiving her share. The remaining two-thirds was left to the university, the museum, and the institute. Federal and state inheritance taxes and the costs of administration, however, have taken a large share of the residuary estate, according to L. L. MacArthur Jr., trust officer of the Northern Trust company.

News of Radio

BY LARRY WOLTERS.

The present Sunday Night Party series featuring Jimmy Melton and Howard and Shelton will fade Oct. 10 and be replaced the following week by a program titled Rising Musical Stars, a show designed to give outstanding vocal and instrumental entertainers a chance. It will not be an amateur show—certainly not one of the Maj. Bowes stripe.

The idea for aiding promising musical artists via the microphone was suggested by Mme. Yolanda Merlo-Frion, president of the Woman's National Radio committee, who will supervise the series. The performers are to be chosen by a jury of auditions to include Alma Gluck, Alexander Smallens, musical conductor of the series, and Ernest Schelling. Series will be presented in three cycles of four weeks. A committee of awards will select the best performer in each cycle, each one to receive $500 and the outstanding performer of 13 weeks $1,000. These awards will be made by Efrem Zimbalist, Myra Hess, Olga Samaroff Stokowski and Ernest Hutcheson. Smallens will conduct members of the New York Philharmonic orchestra and Hans Fuerst a chorus of 70 voices.

Like the Metropolitan Opera Auditions of the Air, which have uncovered several fine voices, this program offers high promise both to aspiring young musical artists and to listeners.

Another show, the Zenith Foundation, on at the same hour on the other NBC network, this week is sending out some amusing teasers. Hundreds of persons yesterday received post cards addressed and written in ink by hand [or made to appear that way, at least], reading: "Dear ——, Women call it 'intuition'; men call it 'hunch'; scientists call it 'telepathy.' What is it?" Then the time of broadcast is given and listeners' reaction is requested. Card is signed "E. S. P." Those letters, we would guess, stand for "Extra Sensory Perception!"

Jerry Belcher, opening his new Interesting Neighbors' program at 6:45 p. m. over WMAQ—NBC next Sunday evening, will take a microphone to Elgin and interview "pupils," all over 70, at the school for Maturates recently started there. He expects to call on the men's quartet, whose combined ages total 325 year.

No word has been forthcoming from Judge Landis' office on broadcast plans for the World Series. Henry Ford, as reported here, has turned the series down at $100,000, a figure that still stands as the price for commercial sponsorship. Buick and Old Gold are among those reported to have considered buying it. But with total costs running to a quarter of a million or more the field of possibilities is definitly limited.

Followers of the "horse opera," The Lone Ranger—and they include plenty of papas as well as youngsters—are straining their ears these evenings because of the mysterious disappearance of the chief performer in the serial. Sponsors announced yesterday that various tips and clews are being given through the broadcasts which may help to solve the mystery. Show is aired over W-G-N-Mutual.

The Hoosier Hot Shots, working their fourth year on the air together, are off the Uncle Ezra program this week and are celebrating at Eagle River, Wis.

ROGER S. VAIL FUNERAL RITES WILL BE TODAY

Funeral services for Roger Sherman Vail, 54 years old, life insurance actuary, who died Tuesday of gunshot wounds in the Highland Park hospital, will be conducted at the residence, 217 East Laurel avenue, Highland Park, at 3:30 p. m. today. Burial, in Lake Forest cemetery, will be private.

An inquest conducted yesterday by Coroner John L. Taylor of Lake county resulted in a verdict of accidental death. Witnesses testified Mr. Vail told them, shortly before his death, that he was cleaning a shotgun in the attic of his home when it was accidentally discharged. The charge struck the left side of his face and neck. He staggered to a window and fell nearly 40 feet from it to the ground. Both ankles were fractured.

Mr. Vail was preparing, according to relatives, for a hunting trip in North Carolina. Early reports, incorrect, indicated he had been shot with a .22 caliber rifle.

Mr. Vail was a member of the actuarial firm of H. S. Vail & Sons at 110 South Dearborn street. He is survived by his widow and two sons.

CHARLES BEACH, OLYMPIA FIELDS FOUNDER, IS DEAD

Charles M. Beach, founder of the Olympia Fields Country club, died in his rooms at the club yesterday after an illness of two weeks. He would have been 75 years old next Sunday. Mr. Beach, who was born in New England, had lived at the club for 15 years following his retirement from the contracting business. A stepson, Ray Murray of San Francisco, is the only survivor.

Mr. Beach was instrumental in bringing the 1928 national open golf tournament to Olympia Fields and during the last few months had been bidding for the 1938 national amateur tournament.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p. m. tomorrow in the chapel at 12 Illinois street, Chicago Heights. In accordance with his wish the body will be cremated and the ashes strewn on the golf course.

Wilbur Ruark Dies After Heart Attack on Trolley

Wilbur Ruark, 65 years old, 10152 Eggleston avenue, was stricken by heart disease on a Wentworth avenue street car at Pershing road yesterday afternoon. He died as he was being taken to the Evangelical hospital. Mr. Ruark had been a clerk in the law offices of Reeda, Peace, Bopp & Economos, 105 West Madison street, for 30 years. He is survived by two sisters.

Nancy Avery and Doris King Brides Today

BY JUDITH CASS.

TWO weddings of interest are taking place this afternoon, both home ones. Miss Nancy Avery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sewell L. Avery, will become the bride of Rogers Follansbee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell D. Follansbee, at 3:30 o'clock, and an hour later Mrs. Doris Bokum King will be married to Robert E. Kenyon Jr.

The Avery-Follansbee ceremony will be read by the Rev. Ernest Fremont Tittle of the First Presbyterian church of Evanston at the home of the bride's parents, 209 Lake Shore drive, with just the families and intimate friends witnessing it. Later several hundred friends will attend the wedding reception, which also will be given at the Avery home. Mr. Follansbee and his bride will leave this evening on a short wedding trip. They will take a longer trip after Christmas.

Mrs. William B. McMillan of St. Louis will attend her sister, and 12 year old Nancy Jean McMillan will arrange her aunt's train as the bride enters the living room, where the wedding will take place. Mr. Follansbee will be his son's best man. Mr. McMillan is here for the wedding and so are two aunts and an uncle of the bride, Mrs. Clinton McGee and Mrs. Frederick Ward of Pontiac, Mich., and Waldo Avery of Detroit.

King-Kenyon Wedding to Be Quiet Affair.

The King-Kenyon wedding will be a very small and quiet one, for only about 30 relatives and friends will attend it and the reception that will follow. The Rev. Samuel D. Harkness of the Winnetka Congregational church will read the service in the living room of the Melrose avenue home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Bokum. Mrs. Henry Sincere will attend the bride, whose parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. Norris H. Bokum. Bruce Kenyon will be his brother's best man.

Mr. Kenyon, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Kenyon of Lake Forest, and his bride will motor to the Seigniory club in Quebec for their wedding trip and upon their return will live at 3000 Sheridan road.

Pauline Rudolph to Be Married on Oct. 5.

The marriage of Miss Pauline Rudolph to Lucius Booth Sherman Jr. has been set for Oct. 5. The ceremony will take place at the bride's home in Winnetka with only relatives present. The Rev. E. Ashley Gerhard of Christ church, Winnetka, will read the service.

The bride, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Rudolph, will be given in marriage by her brother, Franklin D. Rudolph, who has moved back to Winnetka after being away for several years. The bridegroom, son of Lucius B. Sherman and the late Mrs. Sherman, also of Winnetka, will not be attended, but his two brothers, Roger and Stuart Sherman, will be present. Mr. Sherman and his bride will live in Winnetka.

Nancy Doering to Go East with Brother.

Miss Nancy Doering is going east with her brother, Edmund J. Doering II., when he returns to his classes at Harvard this week. She will be away a week or ten days.

Miss Doering's cousin, Miss Frances Jeffery, is arriving today from California where she has been visiting since returning to the United States from a trip to the orient with her aunt, Miss Frances Whedon. Miss Whedon already is in Chicago, settling the house she has taken in Banks street. Miss Doering, her mother, Mrs. Edmond J. Doering, and young Mr. Doering spent the summer abroad.

Miss Dorelle Moulton expects to leave Oct. 1 for Mlle. Gobert's school in Mexico City at which she was a student for five weeks last winter. Only Spanish and French are spoken at the school which Mlle. Gobert, who was a member of the faculty at Sarah Lawrence, at Bryn Mawr, and at the University of Cairo in Egypt, established in Mexico.

Miss Moulton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Moulton, are planning a cocktail and snack party for Sun-

Miss Armour Prepares for Debut

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

Miss Betty Armour, the Lester Armours' only daughter, is one of the debutantes who are finished with their schooling, so will be at home to enjoy the whole of their first season "out." Miss Armour will be one of the models in the St. Luke's fashion show on Oct. 19. She is making her debut at a tea at the Casino on Nov. 5 at which her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Patrick A. Valentine, will be hostess.

Front Views and Profiles By June Provines

A POLICEWOMAN who loves her work frequently goes into the loop at night after her working day is over to try to make arrests of mashers. One night she stood on a corner, her .38 automatic in a holster concealed under her jacket, and looked up archly as a man stopped his car with an inviting "Want a ride, baby?" She stepped in, but once inside, her manner changed.

Check-mated—
Prayer—
Improvement—
Fad—
Simile.

"Do you know where you're going?" she snarled.

"I know where I'm going. You don't though," answered the man, equally tough.

"I don't, eh?" she replied with spirit. "I'm going to take you down and throw you right in the jug."

"That's just where I'm throwing you," he said.

The quarrel between the policeman—a member of the vice squad—and the policewoman lasted the rest of the way to the station. And no doubt afterward.

IN the morning mail. "If you still have the address of the lady who craved a child's prayer by Dorothy Aldis, you might want to pass on to her this home-made product of which our daughter is very fond:

A PRAYER FOR CLAIRE.

Dear God, I am so happy
With all that fills my days,
That kneeling at the cross tonight
I give thee thanks and praise.
I know I am a child of God
Forgive all wrong I've done,
And from the fullness of Thy heart,
Bless me and every one.
For Jesus' sake. Amen.

The author of the prayer, Marcelle Laval Duffe, points out that in addition to the ease with which her child learned it and the satisfaction she seems to have in saying it, analysis will show that it contains all the five essential points of a complete prayer—thanksgiving, adoration, confession, petition and intercession. Plus an affirmation—"I know I am a child of God."

A CITY dweller who went back to his home town for a visit encountered an old resident whom he had heard had been ill. He inquired as to her health. "Well, I been better'n I been bein'," she replied.

ABOUT those tails on car radiator caps [in the morning mail]: "The tale I heard this summer is that the tails attached to radiator caps are supposed to indicate hunting prowess and the custom was originated by Ohio squirrel hunters. Squirrel tails have now been replaced by coyote tails which may be purchased for as little as four cents."

ALSO in the morning mail: "The foxtails on radiator caps fad was started by students of Northwestern university. The tails were originally wildcat tails."

BEST simile of the week—"Sorry for the type blunders. My alibi is that this typewriter is like a Phi Beta Kappa convention—full of keys that aren't working. . . ."

Harpsichords Sound Opening of Fall Music

BY CECIL SMITH.

The fall musical season has begun. Last evening in Thorne hall the Manuel and Williamson harpsichord ensemble gave the first of a series of eleven concert-lectures presented by Northwestern university under the general title, "The History and Enjoyment of Music."

The entire program was devoted to music of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries [with momentary excursions into the early eighteenth], played upon modern replicas of the instruments in use in those days. Philip Manuel and Gavin Williamson are the chief harpsichordists and artistic directors of the ensemble. Their collaborators last night were Dorothy Lane and Dorothy Brown, gracious performers upon the harpsichord and spinet; Leonard Sorkin and Milton Preves, violinists; Hazel Meisterling, contralto; and George Bishop, tenor.

It is doubtful whether any concert season ever opened with a more ingratiating program. In his preliminary comment Mr. Manuel explained that devotees of old music and archaic instruments do not feel like antiquarians, but rather like discoverers of a fresh, vivid vocabulary of musical speech.

This apologia seemed scarcely necessary as the program went on, for the audience gave vigorous proof of its admiration both for the music and for the polished skill with which it was performed.

In four generous groups the members of the ensemble, singly and in various combinations of instruments, traced the evolving musical idiom of four countries—England, Italy, Germany, and France. Among the composers represented, giants in their day and important figures still, were William Byrd, Henry Purcell, Girolamo Frescobaldi, Archangelo Corelli, Heinrich Schütz, Johann Kuhnau, Jean Baptiste Lully, and François Couperin.

The harpsichord is one of the most guileless of instruments, capable of a wide range of pure, crystalline tone, but mercilessly unkind to an inept player or to a charlatan. While some of its effects are ethereally delicate, it is also capable of a majestic, resonant sonority. It is a far better vehicle for many-stranded counterpoint than the modern piano, for its tone—produced by plucking the strings—cannot blur or obscure the parts.

The music played by the Manuel and Williamson ensemble is of a sort to haunt the memory long after the concert is over. The vivacity, the direct eloquence, the rhythmic fluency, and often the harmonic audacity of it all leads one to wonder whether the period of Bach and Mozart did not lay too confining and formalizing a hand upon our later music.

The ensemble will play an eighteenth century program at Thorne hall on Oct. 6. They are rendering a musical service not duplicated elsewhere in the musical life of Chicago.

Next Wednesday evening the Chicago A Cappella choir under Noble Cain will sing a program of early choral music.

Plan Style Show.

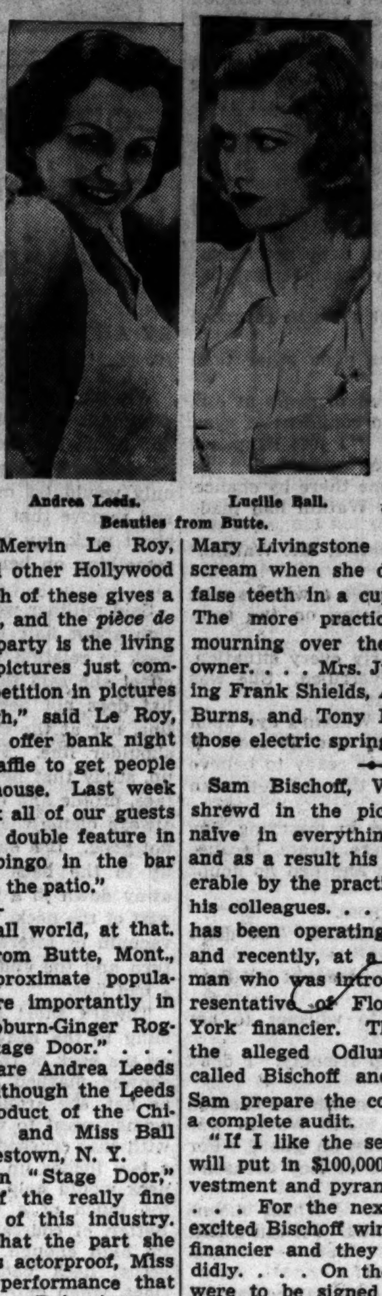
The Southern Women's Educational alliance is planning a style show and card party Oct. 5 at the Evanston Country club. Mrs. J. Louis Rubel is general chairman of the party, which will start at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Looking at Hollywood

The Observation Post.

BY ED SULLIVAN.

Hollywood, Cal., Sept. 22.—At the party Mervyn and Doris Leroy chucked for your reporter at Santa Monica a few hours ago, the crowd was chuckling at the latest Solly Violinsky story. . . . Violinsky, who produces songs and witty sayings, hasn't been working for the last year. . . . Into the midst of this layoff came a letter from Gene Buck, head of the American Society of Composers and Authors inclosing a button which all members of the Ascap will wear henceforth. . . . Violinsky wired back: "I am enthused over the idea of the Ascap button. Unfortunately at the moment I haven't got a coat. Please advise."



Andrea Leeds. Lucille Ball.
Beauties from Butte.

Poverty row, the Santa Monica stretch of the Pacific, is lined with the homes of Darryl Zanuck, Louis B. Mayer, Hal Wallis, Norma Shearer, Mervin Le Roy, Marion Davies, and other Hollywood big shots. . . . Each of these gives a party Sunday night, and the pièce de résistance of each party is the living room showing of pictures just completed. "The competition in pictures is getting so tough," said Le Roy, "that you have to offer bank night or an automobile raffle to get people to come in your house. Last week Darryl Zanuck took all of our guests away—he offered a double feature in his living room, bingo in the bar and Nino Martini in the patio."

It must be a small world, at that. . . . Two girls from Butte, Mont., which has an approximate population of 39,000, score importantly in the Katharine Hepburn-Ginger Rogers smash hit, "Stage Door." . . . The Butte beauts are Andrea Leeds and Lucille Ball, although the Leeds girl is really a product of the Chicago conservatory, and Miss Ball was reared in Jamestown, N. Y.

Andrea Leeds, in "Stage Door," emerges as one of the really fine dramatic actresses of this industry. . . . Conceding that the part she plays in the film is actorproof, Miss Leeds turns in a performance that outranks, say, Luise Rainer's emotional approach, and accomplishes it without chewing up any scenery. In contrast to Rainer's tendency to overplay, the young American starlet has a restraint of voice and gesture that promises a longer celluloid life and a greater versatility in rôles.

Lucille Ball, playing one of the lesser leads in "Stage Door," will capture attention as a collegiate sorority type. . . . Attractive, shy, and with a flair for comedy, this youngster is headed for distinction, although her route will not carry her along the same high road that is marked out for Andrea Leeds. . . . If Lucille Ball will get herself the best diction and voice teacher in this colony it will accelerate her own upward progress. . . . She has a grade A personality, with a grade C voice.

Street scenes: Harry M. Warner telling Harry Joe Brown about his 700 acre ranch, where workmen are tearing down the side of a mountain to give his cattle access to a valley. . . . He hasn't got the cattle yet; he's waiting for the mountain extraction job to be completed. . . . Sally Eilers, legs still scarred from her accident in Rome, Italy. . . . She and her dancing partner plunged through a glass decoration on the floor, and she required twenty-one stitches. . . . In Venice they dug up a wheel chair for her. . . . She sat in it, and it collapsed. . . . Alice Faye complaining that seven consecutive pictures have exhausted her so badly that she can't remember dialog lines. . . . Hal Le Roy and Bruce Cabot lying about their golf scores at the Troc. . . . Bing Crosby entering Jack Kapps' studio to record his songs. . . .

The Rob Hopes midnight-suppering with Bill [M-G-M] Grady and Patricia Wilder. . . . Ida Gershwin winning $85 at poker from Sophie Tucker, Al Ritz, Mervyn Le Roy, Fanny Brice, and Sid Kinsgley. . . . Mary Livingstone uttering a shrill scream when she discovers a set of false teeth in a cup of coffee. . . . The more practical Gracie Allen mourning over the plight of their owner. . . . Mrs. Julio Sanchez beating Frank Shields, Al Lackey, George Burns, and Tony Martin at one of those electric springball games. . . .

Sam Bischoff, Warner producer, shrewd in the picture business, is naïve in everything outside of it, and as a result his life is made miserable by the practical jokers among his colleagues. . . . On the side he has been operating a razor factory and recently, at a party, he met a man who was introduced as the representative of Floyd Odlum, New York financier. The following day the alleged Odlum representative called Bischoff and suggested that Sam prepare the company books for a complete audit.

"If I like the setup," said he, "I will put in $100,000 as an initial investment and pyramid it to $600,000." . . . For the next two weeks the excited Bischoff wined and dined the financier and they got along splendidly. . . . On the day the papers were to be signed Rufus Le Maire called Bischoff, insisted that Sam must look at the screen test of a new Universal "find," and offered to let Sam have him for one picture. . . . To Sam's horror, as he sat in the projection room, the "find" proved to be the "banker" who had been stringing him along for weeks. . . . If Sam finds the actor he will give him a practical demonstration of the razor . . . gratis.

Critic Inspects Paintings of 2 Moderns: Hmm!

BY ELEANOR JEWETT.

The first modernist exhibition of the season is that of paintings by Josef Albers and Misztrik de Monda which opened this week in the Katharine Kuh gallery. Both are abstract artists, Albers the elder and the better known.

Their paintings are hung on opposite walls of the gallery and make an effective showing. They are the type of sophisticated picture which does without subject matter. Albers is interested chiefly in space and light and approaches painting with a scientific deliberation that makes for a high, pure, cold atmosphere.

No one would dream of joking about an Albers composition. They may remind one of slices of cheese neatly piled or strips of paper set trimly side by side; they may remind one of drafting exercises with chalk and crayon, but there is not a smile or a chuckle in a hundred of them. Infrequently there is a marvelous depth of color in a composition [look at the blue squared with green] that almost atones for its lack of intelligible qualities, but, too often, the color is seen as thin and tepid.

Misztrik de Monda makes no attempt at brilliant or radiant color. His palette is dull and somber. He presents us with a series of supposedly imaginative compositions that remind the skeptic of so much protoplasm let loose at opportune moments. Whatever the young painter may have intended there are among his effusions certain ones which look like a donkey with carrots, a gingerbread teddy-bear, a caricature of some one fishing, a rabbit, etc.

Considered as caricatures and considered as attempts at humor there is something in these nursery school efforts. Yet, if one were asked to concentrate on this string of strange blots in their dead-alive backgrounds and consider them as representative of the best that contemporary art can do, it would be a difficult task. Better to draw a line through them, turn the page and ask what Mrs. Kuh intends to give us next.

These paintings will remain on view to Oct. 30.

Name Finley and Compton to Head Presbyterian Drive

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—Dr. John H. Finley, editor of the New York Times, and Dr. Arthur H. Compton, professor of physics at the University of Chicago and a Noble prize winner, were appointed today co-chairmen of a laymen's committee which will seek a $10,000,000 sesquicentennial fund for Christian education. The appointments were made at the semi-annual meeting of the Presbyterian board of Christian education and announced tonight. The fund will be used to stabilize the financial condition of Presbyterian colleges and university centers.

SYNOPSIS.

Bessie Mersand, a nurse, is acquitted of the charge of administering a fatal dose of medinal to an elderly patient. After the trial, as Bessie Mathews, she is given a job by Gwynneth Bentley, caring for Gwynneth's invalid husband. Gwynneth plans to kill her husband and plant the blame on Bessie so that she can marry her lover, Roy Gleason. Medinal tablets are placed in Bessie's charge. Gwynneth hides a valuable jeweled dagger, then puts the ground medinal tablets in her husband's food. She then gives Bessie the day off. In London Bessie meets her friend, Jim Watkin, who has learned of the crime. He hides Bessie. Jim visits Gwynneth for clews. A trowel in her hands gives him a hunch that the dagger is buried in the garden. He warns her the garden will be dug up, then sets a private detective to watch. Gwynneth sees through his plan. She trails him to Bessie and forces her to go with her and stay with a deaf woman at Rose cottage. She tricks Bessie into digging up the dagger. Bessie is caught, but escapes, and hides in the Bentley loft. Sneaking down for food, Bessie overhears Jim denouncing her to Gwynneth. Bessie flees in Jim's car to Rose cottage, where Gwynneth finds her. Bessie threatens to give herself up and implicate Gwynneth for hiding her. Frightened, Gwynneth plans to flee the country with Roy.

INSTALMENT XI.

A HASTY MARRIAGE.

On the next morning Gwynneth left the house without a single article of luggage. To outward appearances she might have been going to London for no more than a morning's shopping. But she stopped at the bank and drew a large sum in cash.

It had been very sensible of him to choose Whitechapel. It seemed to her an unknown land of squalid poverty. She had some difficulty because her taxi driver, hired in the west end, did not know the district, but eventually landed her at the registrar's office on the stroke of twelve.

Roy Gleason was waiting for her and almost immediately their names were called and they were escorted into the inner office.

"Where are your witnesses?" asked the registrar.

"O, lord!" muttered Gleason under his breath, and aloud: "I'm afraid I forgot to bring any."

"It doesn't matter," sighed the registrar, to whom this happened almost every day. "My clerk will call in a couple of idlers and you can recompense them afterward."

The junior clerk was absent for barely a minute. But when he returned Gwynneth nearly fainted.

For one of the witnesses offered by the clerk was none other than James Watkin.

With an effort Gwynneth recovered herself, managed to smile at Jim Watkin, and offered her hand. Watkin was grinning and confident as ever.

"Isn't it an amazing coincidence!" chirped Watkin. "I just happened to butt in here, and it seems I run into a chance of being useful."

Gwynneth did not, of course, believe that he had come there by chance. Roy Gleason was bristling. He had not forgotten how Watkin had made him betray himself at their first interview.

"I really don't think we can trouble you in this matter, Mr. Watkin," he said with a coldness that was just short of insult.

"Don't be silly, Roy! It's ever so much better to have a witness who really knows you. We're most grateful to you for being on the spot, Mr. Watkin."

Gwynneth carried it off well as she carried off nearly every situation. But she could see that Gleason was angry at being overruled. She was almost afraid that he would refuse to go through with it.

Throughout the brief legal ceremony she could feel Watkin's eye upon her, while his steady grin threatened her nerves. Why had he made it his business to track her movements so closely? She was ready to believe that he was now anxious to procure Bessie's arrest, but this did not mean that she trusted him.

She steadied herself. There was nothing suspicious in marrying Roy Gleason. The police must know already that they were lovers, because Watkin had found it out the very day of Alfred's death and had no doubt passed on the information.

Within ten minutes Jim Watkin was signing as witness.

"This gives me the right to kiss the bride," he remarked. "Or don't these charming old customs apply in a registrar's office?"

"I wouldn't attempt to apply that one if I were you—it might fall flat," said Gleason ominously.

A moment later Gwynneth had her opportunity to whisper to her newly-made husband.

"Don't be angry with him—it's much safer to keep friendly. I don't know what his game is, but I want to find out."

The registrar's clerk was calling the next party. Gwynneth and Gleason were being tactfully shepherded to the waiting room. Jim Watkin was bubbling with friendliness, which put Gwynneth specially on guard. For she knew that he was much too clever to be unaware of Roy Gleason's hostility.

"The wedding breakfast is on me," he announced. "Which means you're both coming to have lunch with me at the Karsavina. I'll call a taxi and we'll go right along."

Gleason was about to refuse when Gwynneth cut in:

"That's delightful of you, Mr. Watkin!" She had seen in the latter's eyes that he intended to take no refusal, but she must have a little time in which to smooth Roy or there would be trouble. "But I simply must go to Roy's rooms first to see about the luggage—he's helpless at that kind of thing." She hurried on: "We're having a few days in Devonshire. Not a honeymoon, of course. I do hope you won't tell any one, as we want to be entirely by ourselves."

Jim Watkin was wholly agreeable.

"We'll go along there first. Gleason and I will sit in the taxi—we'll get together while you're doing the real work with the luggage."

"And I should know all the time that I was keeping you waiting. Be sensible, Mr. Watkin! We'd love to lunch with you—and we'll meet you at the Karsavina at a quarter past one. That gives me nearly an hour, which will be quite enough."

"Right! In the meantime I'll get the best table." Watkin was altogether too amiable and obliging.

They gave him a lift as far as The Strand. Gwynneth laughed at his jokes, while Gleason sat in grim silence. When Watkin got out the storm broke.

"Does that bounder really think we're going to have lunch with him, Gwynneth?" growled Gleason.

"Of course he does, dear! And we are. Don't be bearish on our wedding day."

"He's a noisy bounder and I can't stand him. And you don't like him any better than I do, really. We'll cut his confounded lunch."

He leaned out of the window and spoke to the driver.

"Never mind that address. Take us to the Trocadero."

"But, Roy——"

"We're lunching here," said Gleason, as the taxi stopped.

In the foyer of the restaurant she tried once more.

"I tell you it isn't safe to insult that man—he'll have his revenge!"

"Is it safe for us to get into that aeroplane at Croydon at three as arranged?" he countered.

"Of course! We simply must get away."

"Then if we're going to stick to the plan, we'll stick to it," he retorted.

Three o'clock. And it was now 12:25. In little more than an hour and a half they would be in the air. Jim Watkin could hardly do anything in particular between now and then. And afterward it would not matter. She could not be dragged back from a foreign country merely as a witness.

"Very well, dear! You know best. I'll leave everything in your hands in the future."

That was a very bridey little speech and she hated herself for making it. She, who had been proud and imperious, was positively having to grovel. This time she was more successful, for his ill temper began to vanish.

"Sorry if I was a bit rough just then!" he said gruffly as the head waiter found them a table.

M. E. Church Report Raps Cigarets and Drinks for Women

Benton, Ill., Sept. 22.—(AP)—A composite report of the district superintendents in the southern Illinois conference of the Methodist Episcopal church today condemned cigaret smoking and cocktail drinking by women and girls as a cause of delinquency in children.

The report, read by C. L. Peterson of the East St. Louis district, deplored the fact that "drinking drivers have taken a heavy toll of lives" in the last year.

Activities of clergymen and laymen in flood relief in southern Illinois early this year were recommended. New churches have been erected at Sunfield and Belleville, and a new parsonage at Pinckneyville, Peterson reported.

Consider the Hairline When Buying a Hat

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

[Copyright: 1937: By The Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Syndicate, Inc.]

We happened in on one of the distinguished milliners of the day and found her helplessly ringing her hands, exclaiming: "If that woman only would let me take the scissors and remove that knot of hair on her short neck, my hats would look like something on her!"

Said milliner went into an explanation about hair on the back of the neck in relation to the hat line. In effect she said that the success of a hat does not begin at the forehead line, nor at the chin line, but at the shoulder line. From the shoulders up, study that new hat of yours, full face, profile and back view, and don't always blame the hat if the effect is not good. If a hat, for instance, goes up in the back and the hair goes away down in a knob on the lowest part of the neck, there's an enormous vacuum of interest between the upturn and the end of the hairdo, and a bad line.

Toward short necked women who cling to the heavy, knobby dressing on the back of the neck, the milliner showed marked impatience. Hat or no hat, she argued, why should any woman want to weight herself down with that crushed look? Maybe only a few inches up off the base of the neck would help, and it wouldn't be too much of a compromise to ask. Better, of course, to heave the knot up high enough, just to escape the actual neck back. Front, back or sides, when hair rides low in a knot in the back, the line is old. It's the same principle as pulling down cheek muscles with rouge placed down low on the cheeks.

Our informant suggested that the back knot be left to the woman with the long neck and slight face. She can use it to make her neck appear shorter and give face fulness and roundness.

"What the short necked woman does with hair worn low in the neck, in a knot or in long curls, is to shorten her height, add to her seeming weight, and widen the contours of her face. Just add a brimmed hat to this picture and you have a woman crushed under the weight of top-heavy trim.

THROUGH THE LOOKING GLASS

In almost all up to date schools for girls of the teen age there is recognition by the faculty of the need for sound information about cosmetics, their purpose and their correct methods of use, and about all aspects of grooming, from clothes to coiffures.

This is a development of just the last few years, but already it's bearing fruit. We did considerable eavesdropping around the town's cosmetic counters this fall, listening in particularly to the chatter of the schoolgirls who came in to stock up on creams and lipsticks before they started off with their books.

These youngsters know their beauty onions. Consumer education of this sort is going to do more to correct what few evils remain in the cosmetic field than any legislation. They know that a certain preparation will do so much and no more. No manufacturer is going to fool them with false claims.

But best of all, they have gotten wise to the eternal truth about prevention of beauty disaster. It's about the so-called "cures" that women use poor judgment. These youngsters won't be interested in miracle workers. Aside from knowing that there ain't no such animal they'll never have need of them because they've absorbed the great truth that regular preventive care is the great and only secret of beauty.

They're buying good creams and using them as they should be used. They're taking care of their skin and their hair and they're using wisdom AND good taste in the choices of makeup accessories.

Budget Magic with VEG-ALL!
"—a "fresh vegetable garden" in every can

VEG-ALL is a combination of tasty, assorted vegetables. Cubed, ready to serve for dinner — in salads or soups.

VEG-ALL, combined with inexpensive meats, keeps food costs down. To start you on the road to food economy, we suggest you serve your family—

Peppers Stuffed with Veg-All
½ lb. round steak, ground; 1 small onion; 2 tbsp. fat; 1 can Veg-All; ½ cup tomato juice; ½ cup cooked rice; salt and pepper; 3 large green peppers.

METHOD
1. Brown meat and finely chopped onion in fat.
2. Add Veg-All, tomato juice, rice and seasoning. Simmer 15 minutes.
3. Cut peppers lengthwise. Remove seeds. Parboil for five minutes.
4. Fill with mixture. Bake 20 minutes in covered casserole in moderate oven.

Winning Murals on Exhibit.

The murals done by Mrs. Douglas K. Huntress [Betty Ashcraft] to win the competition for decorating the dining room at the Junior League headquarters at the Drake hotel will be on view Monday, the day the room will be opened for the winter. Mrs. Huntress, who is busy with duties connected with the Lace ball the Chicago committee of Arden Shore is giving Oct. 9 at the Drake, will take time off to attend the opening luncheon.

The league's publicity chairman for the coming season is Mrs. Roger D. Shaw. Mrs. Shaw, the former Catharine Noyes, and her husband are moving in from Winnetka to 26 Scott street.

Mrs. Errett Van Nice will entertain the officers of the Chicago Vassar club at luncheon at home today to discuss plans for the semi-annual meeting of the Associate Alumnæ of Vassar college, to be held in Evanston and Chicago, Nov. 19, 20, and 21. Mrs. Cyrus R. Smith is president of the club, and the other officers are Mrs. Sylvanus Lee, Miss Katharine Brothers, Miss Jeannette Higgins, and Miss Edith Lapham.

Miss Frieda Foltz is giving a cocktail party tomorrow afternoon for Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence H. Rogers, who moved to Chicago several weeks ago from New York.

Peer Into the Future at Fashion Show.

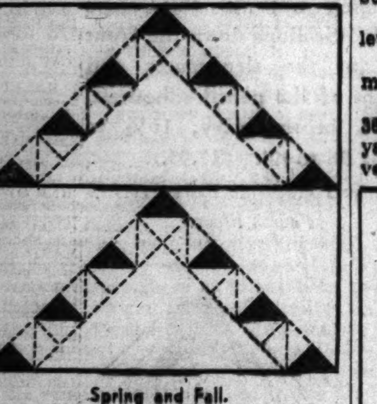
Mr. and Mrs. John Root are returning in time to attend the fashion show the Winnetka board of Northwestern University settlement is giving Saturday afternoon at the Skokie school auditorium. Mr. Root has designed a dress to be modeled by Miss Virginia Winston at the show. It is a forecast of fashions in 1948. Alfred P. Shaw and Hubert Burnham also have designed dresses predicting the vogue of ten years hence.

Adding interest and mystery to the first part of the fashion review will be two unidentified models in the clothes worn by Helen Vinson and Joan Bennett in the movie "Vogues of 1938." They will be billed as "Our mysterious double for Joan Bennett" and "Our unknown stand-in for Helen Vinson." By special permission, a medley of hit tunes from the same picture will furnish the musical background for the masked mannequins' parade.

Among the many luncheon parties Saturday will be those given by Mrs. Jeffery Short, Mrs. Towner Webster, Mrs. E. W. Teagle, Mrs. Herbert Butz, among whose guests will be her sister-in-law, Mrs. Robert O. Butz, president of the Winnetka board; Mrs. Tom E. Hough, Mrs. George Booth, Mrs. Hugh Foresman, Mrs. Arthur Walsh, Mrs. Ballard Bradley, Mrs. Whipple Jacobs, Mrs. John E. Hooker, Mrs. Donald Defrees, Mrs. Alfred Britain, and Mrs. Rollin D. Wood.

Mrs. Albert G. Simms will pause in Chicago today between trains on her way from her home in Albuquerque, N. M., to New York. Mrs. Simms, the former Ruth Hanna McCormick, has just opened her school in Albuquerque, called the Sandia school, which this year has been enlarged from an elementary school to include high school pupils who may board there.

Two Seasons Are Depicted in This Colorful Quilt



Spring and Fall.

Patterns of this design are 5 cents, stamps or coin. Address Nancy Cabot, Chicago Tribune, or call at one of the Tribune Public Service offices, 1 South Dearborn street or Tribune Tower.

BY NANCY CABOT.

"Spring and Fall" is one of the old colonial pieced patterns which usually were pieced in turkey red and white. Modern color arrangements allow the use of fall tones in printed or plain materials. The entire quilt is composed of pieced blocks, but the alternate squares are placed upside down. The block is large, measuring 21 inches square, and only 20 pieced blocks are required for an entire coverlet. Surrounded by a two inch border, bound with a one-half inch bias binding, the finished article measures 88 by 109 inches, which is ideal for a spread.

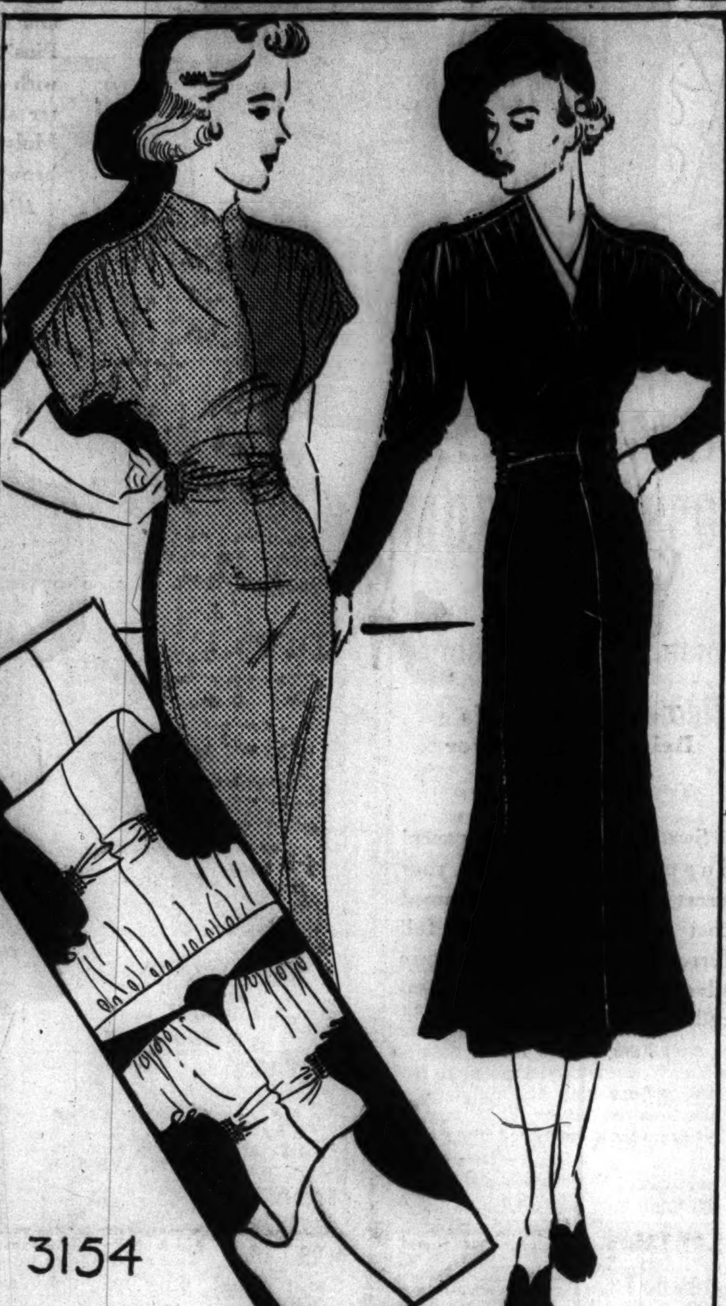
Shirring Is Really Chic



WOMAN'S AND MISS' DRESS.

The chic which is created with simplicity is, by far, the best chic of all. All the style centers are boosting shirring as the smart thing it is, and this dress combines absolutely plain lines with the special beauty which shirring imparts. This is the type of dress you can wear unfailingly to all daytime social events. It's a best bet for dates and grand for dining out.

It's incredibly easy to make, believe it or not. The shirring is simple to manage and that's all there is to the frock, aside from a couple of seams, which even the rankest amateur can run up. The shirring occurs at the shoulders, all the way from the neckline to the elbow. Below it the sleeves are form fitting. It appears again at the waistline, where it creates soft folds which would make the ugliest waist seem a form divine. And if your waistline is something slender and svelte, which we are certain it is, nothing shows it off to better advantage than the soft folds which do not require the disguise of a belt. O, the silhouette faults which are hidden beneath belts, bless 'em.

The single seam down the front and its mate in the back finish the fitting process and the paneled cut creates plenty of flare in the skirt, but not too much!

May we suggest that this is a grand "basic" dress? All your pet bracelets, pins, and clips may be called into service, varied to suit the occasion.

May we also suggest that silk jersey, black velvet and thin woolens make up entrancingly?

Style No. 3154 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18 and 20 years, and 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 and 48 inches bust measurement. Size 36 requires 4½ yards of 39 inch material, with ¼ yard of 39 inch contrasting for the vestee, in case you wish one.

Illinois Student Body Hears Dr. Willard at University Welcome

Champaign, Ill., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—Thousands of University of Illinois students, who went to classes this morning at the opening of the school's 70th year, gathered on the quadrangle tonight to participate in the first all university welcome. Dr. Arthur Cutts Willard, president of the university, and Mayors John Gray of Urbana and James Flynn of Champaign were among the speakers. Students paraded to the scene of welcome. An innovation was cheer leading by tumblers under the leadership of Hartley Price, director of pageantry at football games.

Fruit cookies with a spicy accent suit this autumn season perfectly. Spiced fruit drops, mincemeat cookies, spiced raisin squares, or the ever popular gumdrop cakes are too good to keep for parties alone. They make a fine filling for the cookie jar and a very satisfying between meal snack.

Several of these recipes have appeared before in our columns, but their own individual fan mail demands another public appearance.

Spiced Fruit Drops.

[Four Dozen.]

½ cup butter
1 cup sugar
2 eggs, beaten
1 cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
3 cups pastry flour
⅛ teaspoon soda
2 teaspoons baking powder
2 teaspoons cinnamon
2 teaspoons allspice
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup nuts, chopped
2 cups chopped dried fruit.

Cream the butter and sugar together. Add beaten eggs to the milk. Mix and sift together the flour, salt, soda, baking powder, and spices and add alternately with the milk and vanilla to the creamed butter and sugar. Add chopped nuts and fruit. If the fruit is at all dry and tough it should first be steamed in a sieve over hot water. Drop by teaspoon on a greased baking sheet and bake in a moderately hot oven [375 degrees].

Mincemeat Cookies.

[Four Dozen.]

½ cup butter
1½ cups sugar
2 eggs
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon soda
½ cup sour milk
3 cups pastry flour
1 teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon cloves
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
1 cup mincemeat

Cream the butter, add the sugar in three or four portions, creaming thoroughly after each addition. Add well beaten eggs, salt, and soda that has been stirred into the milk. Then add flour sifted with the spices. Stir until the flour is just dampened. Stir in mincemeat last, just enough to distribute. Drop from a teaspoon onto an oiled baking sheet. Bake in a slow oven [325 degrees].

Spiced Raisin Squares.

[One 9-Inch Pan.]

¼ cup butter
1 cup brown sugar
1 egg
1 cup cake flour
¼ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon cloves
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
½ cup seedless raisins or currants

Cream the butter and sugar. Add beaten egg. Add flour sifted with salt and spices. Add raisins or currants. Pour into a buttered and floured pan. Bake at 375 degrees for about 25 minutes. Cut into squares.

Gumdrop Cakes.

[Two Pans.]

4 eggs
2 cups light brown sugar
1 tablespoon cold water
2 cups flour
¼ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ cup chopped nuts
1 cup cut gumdrops

Buy the gumdrops which come in sticks of yellow, green, white, orange, and red. Cut them into small pieces. Beat the eggs until they are light. Add the brown sugar and water and continue to beat. Add the dry ingredients sifted together, beat until smooth, and add the nuts and gumdrops. Spread about ½ inch thick in lightly greased pans and bake for 30 minutes in a moderate oven [350 degrees]. Frost while still warm, with an icing made of powdered sugar and orange juice, with the addition of a little grated orange rind. Spread the frosting thinly. Cut the cake into squares.

Culbertson's "Gold Book of Bidding and Play"

WHEN AN OPPONENT OVERCALLS THE ASKING BID.

[Copyright: 1937: By Ely Culbertson.]

When an opponent overcalls an asking bid with any suit bid, he risks a penalty double and a large penalty. However, some freak hands will justify such an overcall. The asker's partner will proceed as follows:

If it is possible to respond to the asking bid at the same level as though the overcall had not been made, the usual conventional response to the asking bid should be made.

South	West	North	East
1 spade	Pass	3 spades	Pass
4 clubs ?	4 diamonds

North holds:

♠ Q J 7 5 ♥ A K 6 ♦ 5 2 ♣ K 7 4 2

North can bid four hearts, showing the heart ace and second round control in clubs, exactly as though West had not put in the four diamond overcall. Therefore North should bid four hearts.

TODAY'S HAND.

Albert H. Morehead, a colleague, likes the following hand because he had such a good time with it!

South, dealer.
Neither side vulnerable.

NORTH
♠ Q J 7 5 4
♦ 8 6 4 2

WEST
♠ K 10 6 2
♥ J 5 3
♦ K 10
♣ Q J 5 2

EAST
♥ K 7 4 2
♦ J 5 3
♣ A 10 4 3

SOUTH
♠ A 8
♥ A Q 10 6
♦ A Q 9 7
♣ K 8 6

Mr. Morehead sat South and bid rather vigorously to get himself to three no trump. West opened the deuce of clubs, East won with the ace and returned the three. Mr. Morehead clattered right up with the king and, to put the onus of play on the defenders, exited with his third club. West had failed to unblock and therefore had to win with the jack. Dummy discarded a spade. West cashed the club queen, and dummy let go another spade while declarer discarded a heart.

Now it was West who had to exit. He chose to lead his low heart. East naturally put up the king, which declarer won. The ace of diamonds then was led and, when West dropped the ten, declarer carefully selected the diamond nine as his next play. West was back on lead and now had to choose between a spade lead from the king, or a heart lead from the jack. Unwisely, he chose the former. Dummy's jack held the trick, and a low spade was led to the ace. The diamond queen was then cashed, and the last diamond led to dummy's eight spot. This last play was too much for West. He had to reduce to two cards and was forced to throw away the spade king, thus establishing dummy's queen, or to unguard the heart jack. West held onto the spade king and prayed that declarer would not read the situation.

But Mr. Morehead had played this hand far too well, and guessed too beautifully to be balked at this stage. He led dummy's remaining heart and went right up with the queen. West's jack ingloriously fell, and Mr. Morehead, hardly believing his own eyes, found himself in possession of nine tricks, and contract.

Obviously, the defenders had at least as much to do with the fulfilment of the contract as had the declarer. Yet, none of the defensive leads or plays was actually atrocious, and it must be admitted that Mr. Morehead had made it easy for errors to be committed.

TODAY'S QUESTION.

Question: Dealer opened with one diamond. My partner doubled. Third hand redoubled. What was my correct response with:

♠ K 10 ♥ A 8 5 ♦ Q 8 4 2 ♣ J 7 5 4?

Answer: Pass, for penalty.

Design Decorations for Beaux Arts Mexican Ball

Artists from Chicago's Mexican colony are collaborating with members of the Chicago Architectural club in designing decorations for the Beaux Arts Mexican ball which the club will hold Saturday, Oct. 30, at the Drake hotel. Antonio Schmidt, Mexico's consul general in Chicago, has been invited to lead the grand march. Among the members of the advisory board for the ball are Gen. Charles G. Dawes, the Walter Brewsters, the John A. Holabirds, the Philip B. Mahers and Miss Alice Roullier.

Swing's the Thing for Joe's Cows; They Shy at Sopranos

Portland, Ind., Sept. 22.—(AP)—Farmer Joe Bryan's happy cows—made that way, he reported recently to the department of agriculture, by radio music—don't care for soprano solos.

"They get nervous," Bryan said today in telling how the right kind of music soothes his cows and makes them give more milk, "when they hear a woman singing a solo."

Bryan has a radio in his big barn, northwest of here, and if he gets soft instrumental music, he said, the cows keep happy. Sheep and horses like the music, too, the experimenting farmer reported.

"In fact," he added, "my sheep fight so to get close to the radio that I'm thinking of putting a loudspeaker in their part of the barn."

New Brocades Are Just What You Hoped For

BY RHEA SEEGER.

Rather a diverting spectacle, seeing a fashion sleuth eat last season's critical words, but, exercising our right, we hereby proclaim to those interested that we're for these new metallics and brocades. While last year's crop of dress parade brocades made us shudder [they looked like a flock of animated davenports, especially on the ladies of opulent curves and bulges] this year's collections are everything they should be. Plump or not so plump, one can at last indulge in the yen for fripperies, without bringing on the circus parade madness.

We shopped one prize collection of fabrics, especially unpacked for silk week, and we're still groping for adjectives. One was banded dull crêpe of luscious raspberry red tone striped in dull gold or silver, the metallic stripes sufficiently glittery to satisfy the most avid hunger for pomp and glitter. The design was a decorative Egyptian motif of lotus and exotic birds. The same thing comes in black with the dusky gold design.

There's a stunning old white brocade, with a lovely old-fashioned Paisley-like design, that would make a breath takingly beautiful bridal robe. Another silver and white brocade has silver accents against the satin calla lily motif; there is a stiff brocade, stiff enough to stand alone, with large, but not too large, patterns in silver, and the same pattern exceptionally beautiful in black.

A thin tissue that will make all eyes open is one that looks like a glowing bed of coals. Orange shot with scarlet, it glimmers and glows like flame. There are small floral designs against silver or gold backgrounds, dots the size of a penny in copper or silver or gold. All are resplendent, yet every inch of the stuff is ladylike, restrained and worthy of wearing, if you get what we mean.

WEDDING

An Evanston wedding this evening is that of Miss Mary-Clarke Weber, daughter of Mrs. Albert H. Weber of the Georgian hotel, to Paul Wilbur Carroll, son of Mrs. Calvin Carroll of Los Angeles. The ceremony will take place at 8 o'clock in the Lady chapel of St. Luke's church, with a reception following at the Georgian. Dean Gerald Moore will officiate.

The bride is to wear the lovely dress worn by her aunt, Elizabeth Weber, when she became the bride of Rudolph Brand 30 years ago in Chicago. Mrs. Weber will give her daughter in marriage.

Miss Jeannine Young of Kansas City will be maid of honor, and Miss Leard Murchison and Miss Jane Ferguson will be bridesmaids. Robert Tidrich of Des Moines, Ia., will be best man. Ushering will be James Harden of Chicago and Woods Hinrichs of Evanston. After a wedding trip to San Francisco the Carrolls will live in Santa Monica.

MISS WRIGHT, GET A BITE OF SUPPER AND THEN COME BACK FOR SOME IMPORTANT LETTERS.
OH DEAR! I CAN'T TELL HIM I AM NOT EQUAL TO IT!
I HAVE TO WORK TONIGHT AND MY PAINS HAVE COME ON SO HARD THAT MY EYES ARE CROSSED. WHAT A BREAK!
WHAT A BREAK YOU MET ME. HERE, TAKE THIS, DRINK SOME WATER, AND FORGET THE TIME OF MONTH.
THAT WAS A LOT OF WORK, BUT YOU DIDN'T SEEM TO MIND IT. THANKS.
YOU'RE QUITE WELCOME, MR. DAVIS. IT WAS NO EFFORT. GOODNIGHT.
THERE IT IS—MIDOL RELIEVES "REGULAR" PAIN; IT SURE DOES AND THAT REMINDS ME TO GET A BOX RIGHT NOW.
MIDOL
RELIEVES "REGULAR" PAIN
DRUGS

MODERN women no longer give-in to functional periodic pain. It's old-fashioned to suffer in silence, because there is now a reliable relief for such suffering.

Some women who have always had the hardest time are relieved by Midol.

Many who use Midol do not feel one twinge of pain, or even a moment's discomfort during the entire period.

Don't let the calendar regulate your activities! Don't "favor yourself" or "save yourself" certain days of every month! Keep going, and keep comfortable — with the aid of Midol. These tablets provide a proven means for the relief of such pain, so why endure suffering Midol might spare you?

Midol brings quick relief which usually lasts for hours. Its principal ingredient has often been prescribed by specialists.

You can get Midol in a trim aluminum case at any drug store. Two tablets should see you through your worst day.

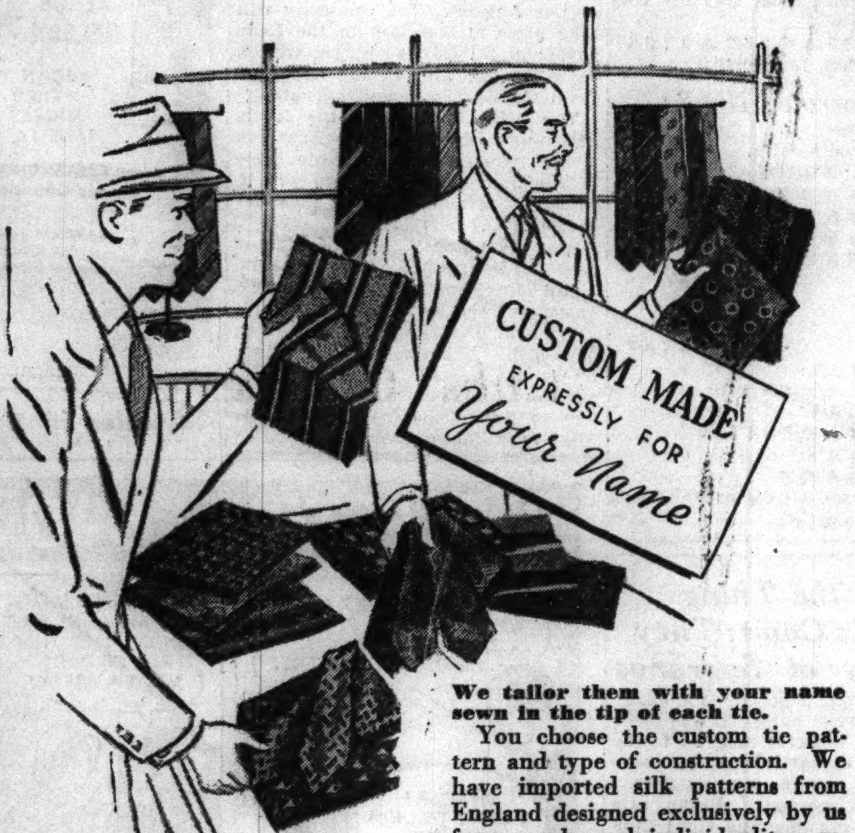
Woven in the moist air of seabound Scotland, Galashiels homespuns have inbred in them a resiliency and softness unequalled by handwoven Tweeds. Noted for sportswear—for hunting on the Scotch moors and golf on such courses as ancient St. Andrews, Galashiels show their versatility in the splendid way they interpret the drape and styling that lends itself to town as well as out and out country wear. A richly colored tweed-like cloth, skillfully tailored into single and double breasted suitings that, regardless of the use you intend to put them, succeed in giving character to a turnout perfectly in keeping with the fall season.

The sportsback jackets in subdued wide spaced plaids widen their scope of usefulness when worn with slacks for sports and knockabout week-ends.



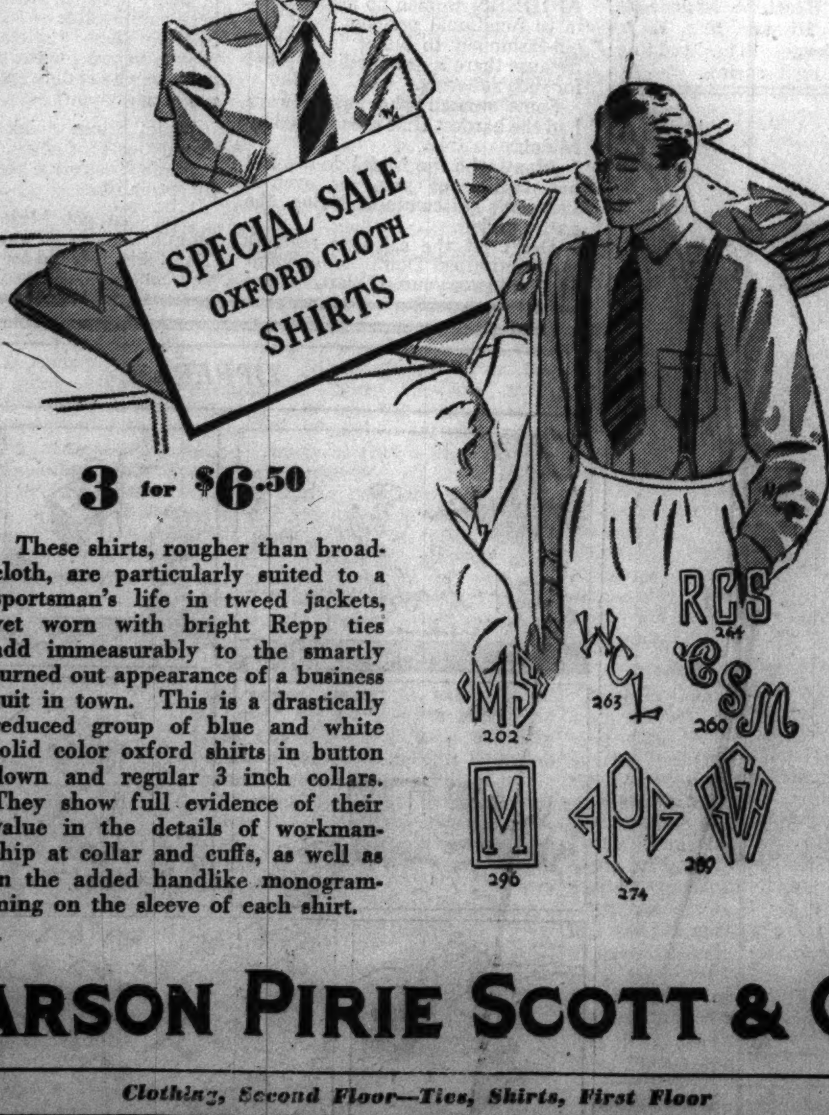
This event is of particular interest to women who prefer the individuality of the personalized gift.

Regular four-in-hand tailoring, plain or tipped, 3 for $5.

Seven-fold tailoring, 3 for $7.

We tailor them with your name sewn in the tip of each tie.

You choose the custom tie pattern and type of construction. We have imported silk patterns from England designed exclusively by us for men who seek individuality combined with smartness in the more conservative tradition. You choose the custom patterns you prefer—in the type of tie construction you like, and we tailor them in a manner comparable to the finest custom shop. You place your order from September 22nd to September 30th. It will be October 15th, however, before they are ready for delivery.



3 for $6.50

These shirts, rougher than broadcloth, are particularly suited to a sportsman's life in tweed jackets, yet worn with bright Repp ties add immeasurably to the smartly turned out appearance of a business suit in town. This is a drastically reduced group of blue and white solid color oxford shirts in button down and regular 3 inch collars. They show full evidence of their value in the details of workmanship at collar and cuffs, as well as in the added handlike monogramming on the sleeve of each shirt.

BY EDWARD BURNS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, N. Y., Sept. 22.—Sixty rounds of championship prize fighting, barring knockouts, for $16.50, or less, if one wants to sit back a bit from the ring, will be offered at the Polo Grounds tomorrow night. The carnival of champions is what Mike Jacobs, the fight promotion king, is calling his show.

The aforesaid fighting is to be done by three bona fide world champions and a bald gent from France who claims to be the world middleweight champion, but hasn't been able to poll a unanimous vote in the matter.

The champion who enjoys the confidence of most of the wagering fellows is your young Jewish friend from Chicago, Barney Ross. The former Golden Glover will have no soft touch in Ceferino Garcia, but winning and defending championships has been such a steady business with Barney since he started with the Golden Glove featherweight championship in 1929, the betters refuse to make him less than a favorite. The tune today was 3 to 1 on Ross to win, a slight boost over yesterday's quotation.

Pretty Soft for Barney.

Whether he wins or not, Barney will start for Chicago for the weekend. Chicago Police Captain Harry O'Connell is here with two large pistols and a black bag to see that Ross' end, $35,000, is carried back to be placed in circulation in Chicago. Several Chicago Legionnaires underbudgeted themselves for the trip to the big convention in this wicked city and, it is said, have sought to put the bite on Barney. They probably could have made it if they had got past Capt. O'Connell and Soldier Farr of the Ross entourage. These two bodyguards can sense a bite farther than a weatherbeaten deep sea fisherman can and are very, very adamant in such matters.

Ross has not been told of the distress of these marching conventioners. Barney is very sensitive, and his handlers fear stories by fellow townsmen would break the champion's heart, thus making him unfit to wallop his rugged Filipino adversary tomorrow night.

The whole card has a strong international flavor and the several lads who are foreigners have not been so besieged by embarrassed delegates to the big convention. In this matter Marcel Thil, the previously mentioned bald gent from France, probably has the best out in the matter of the festive touch.

He can't speak or understand English.

Marcel Steps Up First.

Thil will open the show against Fred Apostoli, a popular lad who used to hop bells at the St. Francis hotel in San Francisco. He has the vivid imagination and alertness possessed by all bell hops, and in the current issue imagines he will be alert enough to win the European middleweight title without going to Europe. He has not indicated whether he will follow Thil's lead in event of victory and claim the world championship. Surely, though, he remembers Freddy Steele, recognized in the United States as champion. Freddy is the only boy who ever knocked out Apostoli. Thil is 33, Apostoli ten years his junior. Betting quotations were 3 to 1 on Apostoli.

Second on the bill will come the meeting of Ross and Garcia, and they will be followed by Luigi D'Ambrosio, alias Lou Ambers, and Pedro Montanez in the battle for Ambers' lightweight championship. Ambers' purse will be $65,000, Montanez's $40,000. The challenger was a 7 to 5 favorite in the formal betting booths today.

Escobar Winds Up Show.

The show will end around midnight, barring knockouts, with Sixto Escobar defending his 118 pound title against the Baltimore caddy, Harry Jeffra. Escobar is at 2 to 1 to retain his title.

Chilly weather, which had been worrying Promoter Jacobs more than any one except the bathing girls on the Florida float in the Legion parade, abated today and the forecast for tomorrow is fair and much warmer.

FOR THE TITLE

BARNEY ROSS.

CEFERINO GARCIA.

Old Westbury Wins, 11-6, in U.S. Polo Final

Westbury, N. Y., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—The American polo title changed hands on International field at Meadow Brook today as the Old Westbury team beat favored Greentree, 11 to 6. Before a crowd of 20,000, C. V. [Sonny] Whitney's team ended the two year reign of the old champions, playing with Jock Whitney back. No team ever has won the United States title three years in a row.

Mike Phipps, Cecil Smith, Stewart Iglehart, and Sonny Whitney gave a superb display of team play. They gained a two goal edge in the second period, increased it to five goals in the next three periods, then coasted in by playing Greentree even in the last three exciting periods.

Hitchcock Is Outstanding.

The game ended the reign set up when Pete Bostwick, Tommy Hitchcock, Gerald Balding, and Jock Whitney joined forces three years ago. In defeat, Hitchcock was often the outstanding figure on the field.

It was well into the second period before Old Westbury got through to score. Smith started a play that he and Phipps finished off for a score, then from the next throw in, Iglehart, who was perhaps the most valuable man to his side today, backed a pass to Phipps for another goal.

After this, Hitchcock fell with his mount. He came back to the attack so well that Greentree tied the score in the next period.

Old Westbury Takes Command.

Hitchcock started it with one of his great cut shots from almost 60 yards out and then Jock Whitney turned a hit-in and Pete Bostwick flashed through to score with it.

Old Westbury went back to the lead to stay, before the period ended, when Smith converted a 40 yard free hit and Sonny Whitney made a brilliant goal.

GREENTREE.		OLD WESTBURY.
G. H. Bostwick	No. 1	Michael Phipps
Gerald Balding	No. 2	Cecil Smith
T. Hitchcock Jr.	No. 3	Stewart, Iglehart
J. H. Whitney	Back	C. V. Whitney

Greentree	0	0	2	0	0	1	2	1	6
Old Westbury	0	2	2	1	2	1	1	2	11

Goals—Bostwick, 2; Balding, 1; Hitchcock, 3; Phipps, 5; Smith, 2; Iglehart, 3; C. V. Whitney, 1.

Penalty shots—Smith, 1 out of 2; Iglehart, none out of 1; Hitchcock, none out of 1.

INDIANA'S GREAT NEED IS PLAYERS, MORAL SUPPORT

Students Don't Seem to Care About Football.

BY WILFRID SMITH.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Bloomington, Ind., Sept. 22.—When Bo McMillin led Centre college's prayin' Colonels to a two touchdown victory over Indiana on Jordan field nearly a score of years ago he could not have visioned the day when he would be drilling these Hoosiers on the terraced fields which now are ramparts for old Jordan. But if he had been able to predict the future, he also would have known that football at Indiana university would still be struggling to gain support from a student body whose enthusiasms always have been spasmodic and quickly dissipated.

Loyal sons who have fought for the Cream and Crimson may deny the indictment. In rebuttal they may point to Indiana's record last season when the Hoosiers won five games, three of them from conference rivals, tied Purdue, and lost to Nebraska, 13 to 9, and to Ohio State, 7 to 0. They may point to the ten year contract extended to McMillin as evidence of their appreciation and as guarantee of future football policy. Nevertheless, Indiana, whose enrollment this fall has reached 5,000, an all time record, has fewer than forty varsity football players. McMillin's recent plea for recruits was met with such a cordial response that two men immediately asked for uniforms.

They Have Some Stars.

This is not an apology for what Indiana may fail to accomplish this fall. Despite graduation of expert players, including the great Vernon Huffman, Indiana needs no sympathy except possibly in its game at Minnesota two weeks from Saturday. There are several backs on this squad who would be welcomed gladly at Iowa, Illinois, or Chicago.

While McMillin may occasionally mention his "little boys" the youngsters seem quite rugged. Foot ball at Indiana, however, continues to be an extracurricular activity with approximately the same status as the weekly newspaper and for which the students evidence somewhat the same degree of concern. There is, to be sure, one exception, the annual battle for the old oaken bucket.

The Schedule's O. K. Now.

For years this was the only big game, as Indiana lamented that it was unable to schedule Ohio State, Michigan, Illinois, or other teams whose alumni following and geographical locations fostered financial dictatorship. This no longer is true. Indiana now has a football program second to none.

The Minnesota game has been mentioned. If Indiana seriously anticipates victory over the Gophers it may be just as well that it is the second game on the schedule. Coach McMillin is more concerned over possible injuries which may affect the team in subsequent games than over defeat.

Illinois then meets Indiana at Bloomington. Here's one Indiana expects to win. While Indiana is playing Minnesota, the Illini will be facing Notre Dame. That looks about as equal as two and two. The Cincinnati game, fourth on the schedule, should not prove difficult. Then Indiana moves into its final quartet of games—Nebraska at Lincoln, Ohio State at Columbus, Iowa at Iowa City, and Purdue at Bloomington.

Davis Is the Work Horse.

Corbett Davis, 200 pound full back from Lowell, Ind., entirely recovered from last year's arm injury, is the heavy duty player in the Hoosier backfield. He and G. L. Fowler, right half back, will share the kicking assignment. Frank Filchock, at quarter back replacing Huffman, is expected to be one of the best field generals of the season.

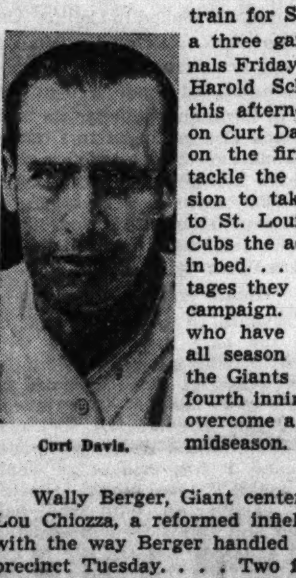
BY ARCH WARD.

WELL, as Charley Grimm says, we have met the enemy and still don't know. . . . Defeat today would end the last faint flicker of hope still beating in the Cubs' collective breast. . . . Even if the Giants win the odd game of the series the Cubs still would have a mathematical chance, but you can have it without any questions asked. . . . Today's game will start at 2 o'clock to give the Cubs time to catch a 5:30 train for St. Louis, where they open a three game series with the Cardinals Friday. . . . Bill Terry will send Harold Schumacher to the mound this afternoon and Grimm will rely on Curt Davis. . . . Bill Lee will be on the firing line when the Cubs tackle the Cardinals. . . . The decision to take an early evening train to St. Louis was made to give the Cubs the advantage of a night's rest in bed. . . . They need all the advantages they can get in this blistering campaign. . . . The correspondents who have been following the Cubs all season gave up the ghost when the Giants took a 2 to 0 lead in the fourth inning. . . . The Cubs haven't overcome a margin of that size since midseason.



Curt Davis.

Hal Schumacher.

Wally Berger, Giant center fielder, was benched yesterday in favor of Lou Chiozza, a reformed infielder. . . . Manager Terry was not satisfied with the way Berger handled some of the long drives that sailed into his precinct Tuesday. . . . Two former Cub pitchers visited the Cub dugout before the game. . . . They were Snipe Hanson, southpaw, and Bud Tinning, who recently finished the season with Chattanooga. . . . Hanson served as batting practice pitcher. . . . Tex Carleton, who was assigned the job of throttling the Giants yesterday, is the clubhouse dude among the Cubs. . . . He keeps his locker stuffed with enough baseball shoes, sweat shirts, and other paraphernalia to outfit half the squad, if necessary. . . . Bob Lewis, the little round man who serves as traveling secretary of the Cubs, got as heavy a workout yesterday as Carleton. . . . He has to okay applications for daily passes and the trafic in his office yesterday was heavier than at State and Madison in the rush hour. . . . Lewis is a fiend for autographed pictures, but they must be from people he knows. . . . Bob has the walls of one room at home filled with the souvenirs and he soon will start on another room. . . . If there is need for a relief pitcher today Manager Grimm intends to call on Larry French. . . .

Eddie Brannick, traveling secretary of the Giants, revealed that the paid attendance for the New York All-Star football game at the Polo Grounds two weeks ago was less than 30,000. . . . Carleton retired the Giants on four pitches in the first inning. . . . The extra throw was a called strike on Mel Ott. . . . Umpire Beans Reardon held up the game a few seconds in the last half of the first inning while he chased some of the camera men from the first base coaching box where they were obstructing the view of Manager Terry and other Giants on the bench. . . . Cliff Melton gave everything he had on every pitch, not only to help put the Giants in the world series but because he wants a crack at the Yankees, the team that brought him up in 1935 and sent him back after looking at him briefly in only one exhibition game against the Cubs in Chattanooga. . . . President Ford Frick of the National league watched the game from the press box.

Nearly everybody in the stands gave Gabby Hartnett a rising salute when he stepped to the plate in the second inning. . . . Neither Joe Marty nor Carl Reynolds is in shape to play, but Grimm will take them to St. Louis anyway. . . . Both are suffering from muscle injuries in the side. . . . Reynolds didn't miss an inning with the Minneapolis club all season, only to be injured the day before the Cubs closed a deal for his services. . . . President William Harridge of the American league and Donald Barnes, president of the St. Louis Browns, were interested spectators. . . . Henry P. Edwards, director of the American league service bureau, said he had been commissioned to scout the game by the American association with an idea of arranging a post-season series between the championship teams of the National league and the association for the minor league title. . . . Jack Hendricks, former manager of the Cincinnati Reds, was the guest of Clarence Rowland, Cub scout. . . . Yesterday was the first time this season that all twenty special wires at the Wrigley field press box were in use. . . . The most brilliant fielding play of the game was contributed by Burgess Whitehead, Giant second baseman, who was a Phi Beta Kappa at the University of North Carolina. . . . He had to run behind and to the left of second base to knock down Billy Jurges' hard hit grounder in the third inning, then turn and throw to first while off balance. . . . The ball was there ahead of Jurges.

The Cubs didn't get a man to first base until Hartnett singled in the fifth and was caught trying to stretch it into a double. . . . Gabby, as usual, provided the spark for the team, because Rip Collins and Phil Cavarretta both followed with safe hits. . . . The rally died when Galan fouled to Mancuso and Jurges bounced one to Ott at third base. . . . Stan Hack displayed nice headwork on McCarthy's bunt along the third base line in the sixth. . . . He had no chance to make a play, so he let it roll and it swerved into foul territory just before reaching the bag. . . . The strategy availed nothing, however, for McCarthy lifted the next pitch into right for a single. . . . Terry sent Carl Hubbell to the warm-up pen when Melton began to melt in the fifth.

Ten Years Ago Today—Jack Dempsey declared he would push his protest on the long count, claiming that he was robbed of a knockout and the world's championship. . . . The total receipts for the Tunney-Dempsey battle were $2,658,660. . . . Tunney received $990,000 and Dempsey $450,000.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—Chicago's White Sox were very funny today, but Philadelphia's Athletics outdid them as clowns and the Chicago team emerged with a 9 to 3 victory.

It was the Sox's fourteenth success of the season over the hapless A's and Thornton Lee's eleventh pitching triumph of the year. Philadelphia has beaten Chicago seven times.

Aside from a slight lapse in the first inning, when his comrades took part in the general hilarity, Lee had no difficulty. He limited the A's to eight hits and held them scoreless in the last eight innings.

Fans Had Fun, Anyway.

The Sox mixed ten hits with two Philadelphia errors and other ludicrous misplays that had all of the 300 lovers of comedy present rolling in the ailes. The three Philadelphia pitchers were Harry Kelley, George Turbeville, and somebody named Ephraim Kalfass.

As he was present when the Sox did most of the damage, Kelley drew his 21st defeat of the season to step out in front as the most unfortunate pitcher of the year.

The comedy started in the first inning when the Athletics scored three runs on two hits and as many errors by the Sox. With two out Werber walked and scored when Johnson doubled to right. Haas dropped Jackie Hayes' throw on Hasson's grounder and when Sewell fumbled Mule's throw at the plate Johnson also scored. Rothrock then singled to center to send Hasson across.

The Comedy Begins.

Kelley survived the first inning without any stumbling around by his mates, but the A's swung into the spirit of the occasion in the second. Radcliff opened with a single to center. Appling grounded to Newsome and instead of making a double play of it, Huston dropped the toss at second and both Radcliff and Appling were safe. Conners then doubled to left and two runs clattered over the plate.

Kreevich opened the wild third inning with a single to center. Walker doubled to left center, scoring little Mike. Then Appling doubled to right, scoring Walker. Conners grounded to Newsome, whose throw to Werber

Cubs' Chances Are Not What You'd Expect

By defeating the Cubs yesterday the Giants not only increased their first place lead to two and one-half games but established a four game margin for themselves in the "lost column." The Cubs have played three more games, all of which they lost. The Giants still have a chance to win one or more of these three games.

The Cubs have eleven more games to play, and if they were to win all of them the Giants could tie by winning 10 of 14. If the Cubs are defeated by the Giants today and then win their ten other games the Giants could capture the pennant by winning 9 out of 13.

If the Giants do no better than break even in their 14 remaining battles the Cubs would have to win 9 of their remaining 11 to finish in first place.

The Cubs, starting tomorrow, play three games at St. Louis, four at Cincinnati and three here with St. Louis to finish the season. After today's game the Giants play five with Brooklyn, four with Boston and four with Philadelphia.

GREYHOUND TIES PETER MANNING'S RECORD IN TROT

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 22.—(AP)—Greyhound, E. J. Baker's gray trotting gelding, today equaled Peter Manning's 15 year old world trotting record when he negotiated the mile in 1 minute and 56¾ seconds.

Sep Palin, who has driven 5 year old Greyhound throughout his trotting career, held the reins as the son of Buy Abbey-Elizabeth went to the quarter in :29¾ seconds, the half in :58½, and the three-quarters in 1:27½.

Greyhound was accompanied all the way by two thoroughbred prompters.

On several previous occasions Greyhound has been sent out after Peter Manning's record, but until today his best time was 1:57¼.

JENKINS SETS SPEED RECORD FOR 24 HOUR RUN

Salt Lake City, Utah, Sept. 22.—[Special.]—Ab Jenkins, Utah automobile driver, established a new 24 hour speed record today on the Bonneville salt flats with his Mormon Meteor. Jenkins traveled at an average speed of 157.27 miles per hour, 3.50 miles an hour better than his old mark. Jenkins sought to attempt a new 48 hour record, but he said the track was not in condition to continue.

LAST NIGHT'S RESULTS.
Los Angeles, 27, New York Yankees, 6.

BUT FINAL DAYS STILL BOTHER MANAGER TERRY

4 Double-Headers in Last Week!

BY FRENCH LANE.

"Ho, I knew all along this was nothing to get excited about," said Bill Terry, manager of the Giants, in the New York team's dressing room at Wrigley field yesterday after the Giants had defeated the Cubs, 6 to 0.

Terry scarcely budged an inch all afternoon in his seat on the extreme west end of the Giants' bench until Jurges bunted safely after one was out in the last half of the eighth.

All the Giants rushed to the infield to console Pitcher Cliff Melton after that happened. Terry pulled himself out of his lethargy and loped out to join them.

He Spreads Cheer.

"That's all right," he assured everybody. Then he loped back to his perch on the bench, dropped himself down into a state of complete relaxation and did not squirm or move again until the game was over.

"We want that game tomorrow just as badly as we wanted the one today," Terry said. Bill had a cheery word for every Giant who had been in the game. While he was doing this he did grow a bit excited. He tried to rip off his uniform after having forgotten entirely about the buttons.

Terry did not claim the National league title.

"We wind up the season with four double-headers the last week against the Bees in New York and the Phillies in Philadelphia," he recalled. "I can't look forward to those four days with a great deal of pleasure."

He's Hard Man to See.

Terry had remained carefully barricaded in his room at the Congress hotel throughout the morning.

"I'll see you at the ball park," was his reply to every phone call he answered.

Ford Frick, president of the National league, was no exception.

There, on the runway leading to the Giants' dressing room, at 1 o'clock waiting with others who were hopeful of catching the Giants' manager's ear for a moment was President Frick. Of course he grabbed Col. Bill first.

Terry Can Laugh.

It was a long, drawn out confab. At times early in their conversation Frick had Terry roaring with laughter. It became serious a little later. Eavesdroppers heard Mr. Frick say "damn" a couple of times. Both were shaking their heads when it ended.

"Why did the prexy have you on the pan?" Terry was asked.

"Brother, that's our business," was his blunt reply.

Frick was collared a few minutes later.

"What were you scolding Terry about?" he was asked.

"That wasn't a scolding. We were just talking over the general situation," said the National league president.

Giants Like Pipes.

The Giants definitly are a pipe smoking ball club. The aroma was terrific as they lolled in their dressing room in full regimentals waiting for Manager Terry to arrive. All these pipes were endurable except the one Mel Ott was puffing. Only a gas mask made it possible for any one to get within speaking distance of him. Manager Terry was puffing at a new underslung model when he climbed up the steps to join his hirelings.

There was no pep talk from Bill before the game. He did back Pitcher Cliff Melton into a corner and talk earnestly with him for five minutes.

He's Got Youth.

He may not be younger in years, but the Giant manager in looks is just a kid compared to some of the athletes who are working for him. He's not the surly type painted by some artists. Neither is he reserved in his statements. There was a smiling twinkle in his eyes despite the torridness of the pennant race. Only once did he get hard boiled. That was in the first inning when so many newspaper photographers swarmed around first base that Bill's view of what was going on out on the playing field was obscured.

He ordered Umpire Beans Reardon, who was performing at first, to push the photogs on down the base line. Beans did this without getting into a single fist fight.

Cavarretta, Herman Collide.

Manager Charley Grimm of the Cubs told interviewers "he wasn't going to bawl any one out, as the unhappy Cubs filed into their dressing room after the game.

"Your pitching was okay, Tex," he shouted to Carleton. "Pitchers can't win unless they get them some runs," he told Carleton.

"Phil, you're going to have a fine shiner by tomorrow," he shouted at Cavarretta, who had been knocked down when Billy Herman's elbow hit him in the eye while both were chasing a fly ball in the ninth inning. "But that'll make us look all the tougher."

YANKEES CLINCH TITLE—ALMOST! WIN TWO GAMES

Beat Browns; Tigers Can Get Only Tie Now.

New York, Sept. 22.—(AP)—By sweeping their double-header with the St. Louis Browns today behind fine pitching performances by Monte Pearson and Kemp Wicker, the Yankees virtually clinched their second successive American league pennant.

Even if the second place Detroit Tigers should win all of their remaining eleven games while the Yanks were losing all twelve of theirs, the best the Tigers could get would be a tie. In that event the final standings would be:

	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Yankees	96	58	.623
Tigers	96	58	.623

One defeat for Detroit or one more victory for the Yankees would insure the pennant for the 1936 world champions. Pearson today held the Browns to seven hits for a 4 to 1 victory in the opening game, while Wicker, winning his sixth victory of the year, shut them out, 11 to 0, in the second game.

BEARS HOME TO BATTLE BRANDT FLORAL ELEVEN

The Bears returned from Duluth, Minn., last night to complete preparations for their game against the Brandt Florals at Mills stadium tomorrow night. The Florals game will be Chicago fans' first opportunity to see the Bear team, which defeated Green Bay last Sunday in its first National league game. The Bears do not play a league game in Chicago until Oct. 17, when they meet the Cardinals at Wrigley field.

The Cardinals, victorious over Green Bay and beaten by Detroit in league games, are en route to Washington today to meet the powerful Redskins tomorrow night. From Washington the Cardinals will go to Philadelphia for a game against the Eagles Sunday. The Cardinals go east with three regulars, Bree Cuppoletti, guard; Hal Pangle, full back, and Bill Smith, end, and reserve full back, Bill Crass, injured and doubtful starters against Washington.

NATIONAL BIKE ROAD MEET TO OPEN SATURDAY

Preliminaries in the national amateur bicycle road meet will be run off Saturday at Sherman park, with the finals Sunday in Humboldt park. Seven events are scheduled. The meet is sanctioned and governed by rules of the National Cycling association. Micky Francois, national senior champion, will compete along with four other riders from Newark, N. J., Ira Smith, Fred Graef, James Svenson, and Frank Sunderhoff. Carl Graetz, David Sutter, Walter Schmidt, Robert Krieshel, Joseph Malinowski, and Dewey Malicki are entered from Buffalo, N. Y. Frank Dvorski and Gerald Guttormsen of Kenosha, Wis., and John Eiler of New York City are other out of town entrants.

BOTTOMLEY ILL; RETURNS HOME FOR TREATMENT

New York, Sept. 22.—[Special.]—Jim Bottomley, the truant manager of the St. Louis Browns, was en route to his home in St. Louis tonight. William O. DeWitt, vice president and business manager of the club, said Bottomley still was manager of the club and was returning home because of illness.

"I did not like to leave the club," Bottomley said, "but I've been sick for four days. I don't know whether it is intestinal flu or not. I plan to see a doctor as soon as I reach St. Louis."

Del Baker Improves; May Leave Bed Next Week

New York, Sept. 22.—(AP)—Del Baker, acting manager of the Detroit Tigers, who is ill at his hotel here, was reported improved tonight. Baker is suffering from lobar pneumonia, but Dr. C. R. Palmer, his physician, said tonight Baker was feeling better and would be allowed to leave his bed the first of next week if there was no change for the worse.

Giants Defeat Cubs, 6-0; Lead by 2½ Games

ders meant nothing so far as victory was concerned, but it did prevent them from getting even one man as far as third base. Only three reached second. Collins got there because he singled after Hartnett's errant sprint and ahead of Cavarretta's single in the fifth. Stanley Hack got there in the sixth because of a wild throw by Mel Ott, the lone error in the Giant defense. And Hack arrived there again in the ninth when he singled and moved up on an out.

Fluke Single Helps Scoring.

Carleton's first inning task was so simple that he had to pitch only four balls to accomplish the three outs. The second was different, one Giant scoring. Ripple led off with a single to center. McCarthy lifted a lazy fly to left center and Cavarretta probably could have made the catch easily, but slowed down when Galan called for it. Galan suddenly backed away and it dropped between them for a single.

The orthodox bunt was produced by Chiozza, Carleton throwing him out. Mancuso was purposely passed to arrange a setting for a possible double play. The strategy failed by inches. Whitehead sent a slow bounder to Herman, who shot the ball to Jurges to force Mancuso. Jurges in turn rifled the ball to Collins, but it arrived a split second too late for the twin killing. Meanwhile Ripple had skipped across the plate. Hartnett picked up Melton's tap in front of the plate and threw him out.

Mr. Melton Is Annoying.

The Cubs' attack in the first three innings was so futile that only nine men stepped to the plate. The first and second innings each consisted of two infield grounders and a fly ball. In the third, three Cubs were thrown out at first, but one at least came close to getting a hit. There might even have been a pass if Galan, with a 3 and 1 count, hadn't swung at the next pitch and poked it as far as Melton. Then Jurges slapped a bounder over second, but Whitehead skipped behind the base and completed a brilliant play with a bullet throw to McCarthy.

The Giants' run in the fourth grew from a pass to Ripple on five pitches. McCarthy sent a shudder through the crowd with a drive to right, but it descended foul by a few inches. He ended his chance by striking out. Chiozza thumped a single into center on the first pitch, Ripple taking third. Carleton almost escaped the jam by fanning Mancuso, but Whitehead singled to center, scoring Ripple and sending Chiozza to third. The inning closed with Melton grounding to Herman.

Finally Reach Melton.

Before getting into the hit column the Cubs rounded out the fourth inning without reaching first base. Then Hartnett shattered Melton's spell by lining a low drive to the left center field wall, but Gabby made the mistake of trying to stretch it into a double. He was nailed on Chiozza's throw to Whitehead. Collins followed with a single to left. Cavarretta's drive boomed into left, close to the line. Moore raced over, grabbed the ball backhanded, but he couldn't hold on to it. Collins, however, had stopped at second, thus holding Cavarretta to a single. Then Galan fouled to Mancuso and Jurges was thrown out by Ott.

The Giants got their leadoff man on base again in the sixth. It was McCarthy, and he singled to right for his second hit. Chiozza fouled to Hartnett, Hack threw out Mancuso, and Whitehead popped to Collins. The Cubs also had a man on base in the sixth, but not through any of their own doings. Ott made a beautiful pickup of Carleton's bunt for the first out. Hack also grounded to Ott and the graduate outfielder let go a wild throw, the ball going into the grandstand. The error entitled Hack to second base, and he stayed there while Herman was fanning and Demaree was flying out to Ripple.

Giants Waste a Hit.

The seventh, in which Collins acted up on the base lines, opened with Hartnett driving a long fly to Ripple. Collins' powerful drive caromed off Bartell's glove and skidded toward the foul line in short left. As soon as Collins rounded first and headed for second, it was evident he would never make it. He didn't. Bartell finally caught up with the ball, wheeled and threw to Whitehead at second and that was the end of Collins. Cavarretta then struck out.

Two hits were involved in the run which put the Giants out in front, 3 to 0, in the eighth, and a third was wasted. Ott led off with a bounder which was so long in coming down in Herman's territory that he beat it out for a hit. He moved to second on Ripple's bunt. McCarthy singled to center for this third hit and Ott galloped home. Then Chiozza singled past Collins, whereupon Carleton wound up his day's work in a blaze of strikes. He fanned Mancuso and Whitehead.

By resorting to bunting, Jurges achieved the Cubs' fifth hit with one out in the eighth. Reynolds was summoned to bat for Carleton and grounded to Whitehead for a double play.

The blow off in the ninth came with one out. Moore flied to center, but was the beneficiary of a double when Herman and Cavarretta collided, putting the latter out of action. Moore scored on Bartell's double which dropped between Herman and Stainback, who had taken Cavarretta's place. Jurges knocked down Ott's single and held Bartell at third. Logan replaced Bryant and was welcomed by Ripple's single on which Bartell scored. Ott dashed home on McCarthy's fourth single. The next two fellows flied to Stainback.

Thomson Gets 68 for Lead in $12,000 Open

Belmont, Mass., Sept. 22.—(AP)—Jimmy Thomson broke the Belmont course record today with 68, three under par, and gained a two stroke lead at the halfway mark of the 36 hole qualifying play of the $12,000 open match play tournament.

A field of 221 started, the largest that has competed on a single course this season. Byron Nelson of Reading, Pa., Dick Metz of Chicago, and Sam Snead took a stroke off the 6,517 yard layout's par 71 to finish in a second place tie.

Manero, Picard Get 71s.

Two other Ryder cup players got 71s — Tony Manero, from nearby Salem, and Henry Picard of Hershey, Pa., who was competing in his home state for the first time since his caddie days at Plymouth.

Lawson Little Jr. of San Francisco, rated as a 10 to 1 shot along with Snead and Denny Shute, P. G. A. champion, was in the 72 group, along with Horton Smith, Robert Burns of Montreal, the Canadian P. G. A. champion, Victor Ghezzi, Al Watrous, Harry Cooper, and three lesser known competitors, Pat Circelli of Tarrytown, N. Y., Al Brosch of Farmingdale, N. Y., and Worcester's Harry Nettelbladt.

Shute Gets a 73.

Shute was in the 73 group, which also included Paul Runyan, Johnny Revolta, and seven others.

Five tied with 74s. They were Walter Bourne, Princeton golf coach, Frank Walsh of Chicago, Dan Hogan of Fort Worth, Tex., and two local pros, Joe Stien, Wayland and John Thoren, Woburn.

Ten others posted 75s, including the two most successful members of the 27 man amateur delegation, Jesse Guilford and Fred Wright Jr., Boston veterans.

JACK CHAMBERS, FORMER AURORA BATTLER, DIES

John [Jack] Chambers, 67 years old, of Aurora, a former boxer, died yesterday at Copley hospital, Aurora, after a brief illness. In his heyday Jack was not a highly skilled boxer, but had a terific wallop. It was a community boast that no man he hit ever got up. He was a middleweight.

In recent years Chambers operated an oil station. Funeral services will be held at the Downs Funeral home, 314 Fox street, tomorrow at 2 p. m., with interment in Lincoln Highway cemetery.

Battle Creek, Fresno Play 2 to 2 Tie in Baseball Meet

Battle Creek, Mich., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—Battle Creek and Fresno, Cal., the only undefeated teams left in the national amateur baseball tournament, played to a 2 to 2 tie in eleven innings today. Called because of darkness, the game will be played over tomorrow. In the other game on the schedule Ada, Okla., defeated Sheboygan, Wis., 12 to 3.

was too late for any good and both runners were safe. When Haas walked to fill the bases Kelley was requested to leave and Turbeville came in.

Sewell's double scored both Appling and Conners and put Haas on third. Frank Hayes then was guilty of a passed ball which scored Haas and when Turbeville fumbled the ball in front of the screen Sewell also scored.

Lee Is a Master Workman.

Lee didn't allow a hit from the fourth to the seventh inning, when Pinch Hitter Morris singled to center, but Thornton struck out both Frank Hayes and Moses and so escaped trouble.

In the eighth inning Newsome singled to left to open for the A's and Werber walked. Bob Johnson was called out on strikes, and when an ensuing argument about the third strike ended Johnson was out of the game. Hasson singled to center to fill the bases, but Rothrock and Frank Hayes flied to Kreevich and the Macks failed to score.

WHITEHEAD VS. ROSS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 22.—Big John Whitehead will have a chance tomorrow to get even on his year's endeavor as a White Sox pitcher. He will pitch the final game of the series here against Lee Ross. Whitehead's record is nine won and eight lost. If he loses he will be a .500 pitcher.

The Sox conclude their eastern operations tomorrow in the final with the A's.

After they leave here the Sox will have only eleven more games to play before they hibernate for the winter. The schedule includes five with the Indians and three with the Browns in Chicago, and three in St. Louis.

REPORT 3 MORE BADGER SOPHS ARE ELIGIBLE

Conley, Fisher, Reardon Clear Up Deficiencies.

Madison, Wis., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—The eligibility of three sophomore linemen appeared assured today as the Wisconsin football squad went through a brisk scrimmage session to complete heavy work in preparation for the opening game with South Dakota State. The weather was warm.

Bert Conley of Green Bay, a tackle; Orville Fisher of Fargo, N. D., a center, and James Riordan of Rhinelander, a left end, are the players whose eligibility had been in doubt. Conley and Fisher, it was reported, successfully passed conditional examinations, and Riordan received a passing grade in a correspondence course. Two other sophomores, Ed Hartman, Pottsville, Pa., quarter back, and Clem Eiden, Evanston, Ill., guard, were expected to have their eligibility cleared late today or tomorrow.

GALES, OHIO TACKLE, HURT.

Columbus, O., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—Ohio State's football team was crippled today when Pete Gales, veteran tackle, suffered a knee injury. He will be out of the Texas Christian game Saturday and, according to trainers, possibly until late in the season.

Gales was hurt in scrimmage. His effectiveness will be impaired for the remainder of the season, trainers said. Carl Kaplanoff was named to take his place. Kaplanoff, a substitute last year, was counted on to divide the position with Gales, although the latter was given the first choice.

A long drill on pass defense was conducted during the afternoon. T. C. U. plays again were demonstrated by the reserve eleven.

SPURGEON REJOINS ILLINOIS.

Champaign, Ill., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—Hope that Capt. Lowell Spurgeon will be able to lead the Illinois football team against Ohio university Saturday grew today with his appearance again in a suit. Spurgeon, who has been laid up with an infected knee, was able to take light practice and will probably start at left half against the Buckeye conference champions.

With Jay Wardley, quarter back, certainly to be benched Saturday on account of his crippled knee, and Bill Usinger, promising sophomore half back, apparently lost for the season, the back field problem loomed acutely. Coach Zuppke is casting about desperately for a quarter back, with Berner, Pezzoli, and Brown as possibilities.

The freshmen again used Ohio plays against the varsity today.

MARQUETTE SEEKS CENTER.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—Preparing for Saturday's opener with Ripon college here, the Marquette university football team today went through its last heavy workout, with the freshmen providing the opposition in two quarters of regulation play. Coach Paddy Driscoll and Line Coach Tarzan Taylor today were combing their sophomore center material in the event that Roy Schoemann, senior veteran, is unable to play.

Schoeman was hurt in an auto accident last week and received additional injuries yesterday in scrimmage.

Iowa Squad Gets a Cheer, Heads West

Iowa City, Ia., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—The Iowa football squad was given a rousing sendoff by the Hawkeye band and hundreds of students as it departed tonight for Seattle to open the season against Washington in one of Saturday's few big intersectional games.

Traveling in a streamlined train, the squad will take ten minute warmup drills at Cheyenne, Wyo., and Pocatello, Idaho, while en route to the coast. The team will arrive in Seattle early Friday afternoon and take a light workout in the Huskies' stadium.

Coach Irl Tubbs declared on departing that "we are making the trip for the purpose of licking Washington," but was noncommittal on his starting lineup. Probable starters are Capt. Harris and Lannon, ends; Luebcke and Frank Gallagher, tackles; Brady and Nead, guards; Anerson, center; Kinnick, quarter back; Lamb and Eicherly, half backs, and McLain or Olson, full back.

N. U. DRILLS RESERVES.

Acting upon the theory that a football team is no stronger than its reserves, Coach Lynn Waldorf is concentrating this week on developing a second string line that will be able to support the regulars.

The personnel of the first string line is almost settled but a lively battle is on for all No. 2 positions. Most of the candidates are sophomores. John Goldak of St. Louis and John Haman of Naperville, two first year men, are waging a duel for the center position. Erwin Wegner, a senior, is at center on the first team.

Yesterday's practice revealed that the Wildcats will be well fortified with kickers. In a long kicking scrimmage, Bernie Jefferson, regular right half, and Jack Kaufmann, reserve half back, got off a number of long punts. Other players who can be called upon to kick are Capt. Don Heap, Iggy Mesec, Bob Swisher, Jack Ryan, and George McGurn.

PURDUE FEARS BUTLER.

Lafayette, Ind., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—With Chicago off the schedule for the first time in nearly two score years, Purdue's annual "fearing" is apparently being focused on Butler, although Acting Coach Mal Elward insists that there should be no quotation marks around his fear of the Bulldog combination, which was one of the few undefeated elevens in the country last fall.

Home Run Leaders

Di Maggio, Yankees	44	York, Tigers	33
Greenberg, Tigers	38	Foxx, Red Sox	33

The Boilermakers were given a lengthy defensive workout this afternoon, with the all-around play of Capt. Martin Schreyer and Clem Woltman, tackles, outstanding.

IRISH ONE POINT BETTER.

Notre Dame, Ind., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—The net result of two days drill on fundamentals today proved to be one extra point after touch down. Coach Elmer Layden's Notre Dame varsity defeated the reserves, 13 to 0.

One of today's scores, both of which were made by Bunny McCormick, resulted from a blocked punt on the reserve's two yard line. Ed Beinor blocked and recovered the ball, McCormick scoring on the next play. Joe Kuharich added the extra point. The first touchdown came on a 31 yard run by McCormick at the conclusion of a 42-yard march which started when Pat McCarty, center, intercepted a reserve pass.

Layden has ordered another scrimmage tomorrow for the Freshman-Varsity game Saturday in Notre Dame stadium.

MICHIGAN LACKS HALF BACKS.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—Warmest weather of the season and a dearth of half backs postponed heavy work at Michigan today. Scrimmage probably will be held tomorrow. The final practice game of the early season training is scheduled for Saturday in the stadium.

Fred Trosko continued to take things easy and Wallie Hook remained out of uniform, but the squad's two remaining tail backs, Stark Ritchie and Norm Purucker, took charge of the offensive today. Ritchie, whose running featured the first practice game Saturday before he retired with a twisted ankle, featured the drills with a good passing exhibition in a dummy scrimmage.

Indiana Needs Players and Moral Support

stand, Muncie, Ind., senior full back, are other back field replacements.

Material at end, with the exception of Capt. Jick Kenderdine, and at the "full back guard" as the fifth member of the Indiana back field is known, may lack experience, but there are enough letter men to bolster the team play.

The two letter man George Miller from Monongahela, Pa., is number one center. Russell Sloss, Duquesne, Pa., Sydney Weiss, South Bend, Ind., and Stanley Singer, Hammond, Ind., are rated in this order. At the reserve guard full back assignment, are two sophomores, James Logan, Richmond, Ind., and Addie Marshall, Marion, Ind.

FUNDAMENTALS FOR MAROONS.

Chicago football players who open their season against Vanderbilt at Nashville a week from Saturday, got a taste of Tennessee weather yesterday as they went through a double session under a hot sun. Many pounds accumulated at the 6,000 calory training table melted away.

The scrimmage which has been scheduled for yesterday was postponed in favor of further work on fundamentals but a stiff scrimmage between the first and second teams is scheduled for tomorrow.

GOPHERS LOSE TWO MEN.

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—Because of injuries and illness that have struck at the quarter back position, already weak because of the graduation of three veterans, a new man may be tried at that blocking post in the opener with North Dakota State here Saturday.

Vic Spadaccini, full back transfer and No. 1 quarter back, was forced to bed with a cold that had him at the health service last night. Then George Faust suffered a severe injury that may keep him on the sidelines through the opener.

That left the issue up to Phil Belfiori, another full back transfer who was given his first trial at the post in Saturday's scrimmage.

Reds' Manager? Leo Durocher Likes the Idea

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—Leo Durocher, St. Louis Cardinals shortstop, is pleasantly receptive to rumors that he will be the next manager of the Cincinnati Reds.

Leo's most recent boost was found in a St. Louis paper, the writer pointing out the logic of the choice because General Manager Warren Giles has made it known he prefers a playing manager and "one who has been associated with the National league."

Doctors from St. Luke's Win in Golf, 40-33

St. Luke's hospital doctors defeated doctors from the Presbyterian hospital, 40 to 33, in the annual golf team match yesterday at Olympia Fields. Competition was over No. 3 course.

Williams Finishes Ring Drills for Ramirez Battle

Holman Williams, who renounced the colored lightweight championship to bid for the welterweight title, yesterday finished boxing drills for his ten round bout with Gillito Ramirez at White City tomorrow by going four fast rounds with Nate Bolden, 1937 international Golden Gloves middleweight winner. Ramirez, non-English speaking performer from Mexico, is a fistic headliner in his native country. Supporting matches:

Jack Sylvester, Milwaukee, vs. Bill Palmer, Catholic Youth organization [6], light heavyweights.

Mike Pereira, Houston, Tex., vs. Bob La Monte [5], 152.

Joe Chizar, South Bend, vs. Pat O'Brien, 128 [4].

Charley Mack, Milwaukee, vs. Gene Spencer, 130 [4].

Max Marek, Illinois heavyweight champion, has signed to meet Harry Thomas in a return title contest at Chicago Stadium, Oct. 6, but there is a possibility the bout may be changed to Oct. 8.

AMATEURS BOX FOR LEGION AT GARDEN BOWL

New York, Sept. 22.—(AP)—Thirty-two of the country's leading amateur boxers will furnish entertainment for an expected crowd of 65,000 Legionnaires tomorrow night in the Madison Square Garden bowl.

Admission will be free to members of the Legion. There will be fighters from Memphis, Tenn.; Boston, Haverstraw, N. Y.; Bloomingburg, N. Y.; Oakland, Cal.; Newark, N. J.; Little Rock, Ark.; Philadelphia, San Francisco, Kansas City, and Yonkers, N. Y.

Newark Wins Second Playoff Game in Row, 6-5

Newark, N. J., Sept. 23.—[Special.]—The Newark Bears today scored their second straight victory over the Baltimore Orioles in the International league playoff series, 6 to 5. Two more victories will give Newark the title and the right to oppose the American association playoff winner in the Little World series.

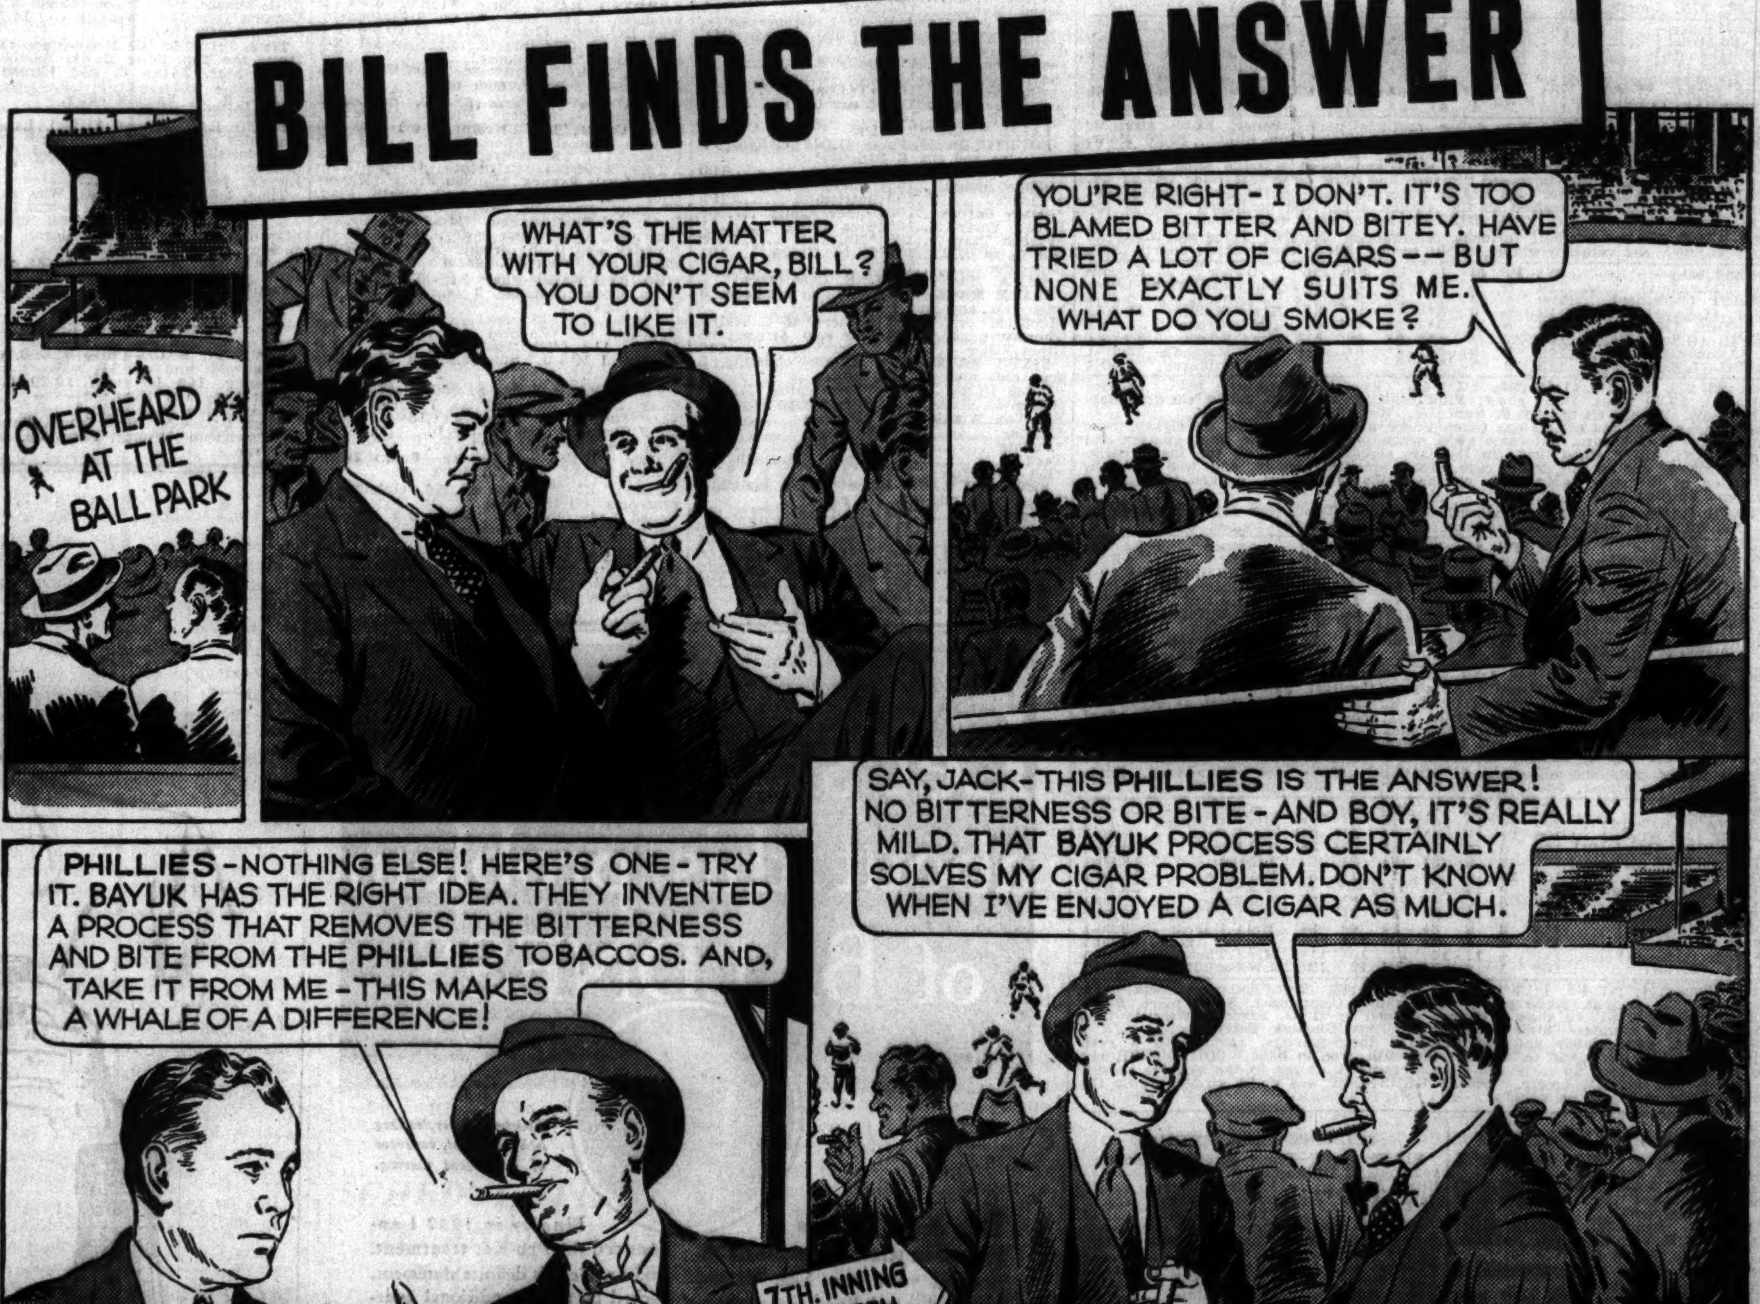
BILL FINDS THE ANSWER



OVERHEARD AT THE BALL PARK
WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH YOUR CIGAR, BILL? YOU DON'T SEEM TO LIKE IT.
YOU'RE RIGHT- I DON'T. IT'S TOO BLAMED BITTER AND BITEY. HAVE TRIED A LOT OF CIGARS -- BUT NONE EXACTLY SUITS ME. WHAT DO YOU SMOKE?
PHILLIES - NOTHING ELSE! HERE'S ONE - TRY IT. BAYUK HAS THE RIGHT IDEA. THEY INVENTED A PROCESS THAT REMOVES THE BITTERNESS AND BITE FROM THE PHILLIES TOBACCOS. AND, TAKE IT FROM ME - THIS MAKES A WHALE OF A DIFFERENCE!
7TH. INNING STRETCH
SAY, JACK-THIS PHILLIES IS THE ANSWER! NO BITTERNESS OR BITE - AND BOY, IT'S REALLY MILD. THAT BAYUK PROCESS CERTAINLY SOLVES MY CIGAR PROBLEM. DON'T KNOW WHEN I'VE ENJOYED A CIGAR AS MUCH.

PHILLIES ONLY 5¢

FOR YEARS, AMERICA'S LARGEST-SELLING 10¢ BRAND

WHY PHILLIES ARE FREE OF BITTER, BITEY, RASPY TASTE

Bayuk selects and buys for PHILLIES the finest and mildest types of Havana, Domestic and Sumatra tobaccos. They are the very pick of the crops.

All PHILLIES tobaccos are aged and mellowed for at least two years—and are cured by the same methods used in making the most expensive cigars . . . BUT BAYUK DOESN'T STOP HERE.

Bayuk owns an exclusive, patented process that removes the bitter oils and harsh elements that ordinary curing methods don't, and can't, get out. No other cigar manufacturer can use this process.

KEOKEE BEATS FLINT SHOT IN MOHAWK STAKE

Leads All the Way at Hawthorne.

Keokee, one of those consistently useful horses which sometimes appear in claiming races and sometimes climb to the allowances events, scored again at Hawthorne yesterday. Keokee led from start to finish in the six and a half furlong Mohawk purse, feature event of the day's program. He covered the distance in 1:18 4-5 to score his sixth race of the year for the Nancolas and Wright stable.

Gets Little Opposition.

Keokee had little to fear as he came down the stretch. Flint Shot, second most of the way, was unable to make up much ground on the leader, while the outsider, Amazing, slipping through on the rail, was too far back to threaten seriously. Flint Shot managed to land second, with Amazing third in the field of seven.

Keokee was ridden by the veteran Charley Landolt. It was Landolt's second victory of the Hawthorne meeting. Keokee paid $5.20.

Long Shot Comes Through.

The longest shot in the six horse field for the fourth race was Egmont, owned by G. F. Woodman. When the race was over they paid off on Egmont He led home Night Bandit and the odds on Hy Sonny to pay $47.00 after running the six furlongs in 1:12 2-5. It was Egmont's second victory. He followed Hy Sonny in the early running and when Hy Sonny tired in the stretch Egmont took the lead. Night Bandit charged up belatedly but missed catching the leader by a length.

Pelter, one of the possibilities for the Autumn handicap Saturday, qualified impressively with a victory in the Dorchester purse, fifth race of the afternoon. Pelter received one of Bobby Dotter's expert rides. She was kept off the pace set by Be Blue and then moved up with a rush in the stretch. Pelter finished a length and a half ahead of Be Blue, which was five ahead of Top Billing. The six furlongs were run in 1:13 1-5, and Pelter, one of Al Tarn's juveniles, paid $8.60.

Co-Sport, Ben Friend's 2 year old, has been assigned 128 pounds for the Hawthorne Autumn handicap, Chicago's final stake for the youngsters to be run Saturday. Teddy's Comet, which will not compete, also is rated at 128 pounds. A gap of 13 pounds separates the pair from Lassator, also a nonstarter. Employer is next on the list at 113.

Rough riding in the second race, which was won by Bobby Dotter on Benediction, resulted in five day suspensions for Jockies C. Lamb and C. Rollins. Benediction came from behind and escaped the roughing as she completed a $31.40 double started by Royal Lill.

Top weight for the eighth running of the Illinois Owners' handicap has been assigned to Frank Abbate's Prince Torch. He must carry 115 pounds, two more than Mrs. A. M. Creech's Grey Streak. The probable favorite, Our Count, has been rated at 111.

Time, :23 1-5, :47 3-5, 1:01¼, 1:08. Two dollar mutuels paid: Royal Lill, $8.40 straight, $4.80 place, $4.40 show; Novelette, $31.40 place, $14.80 show; My Luck, $11.60 show. Winner trained by J. V. Pops. Went to post at 2:15.

ROYAL LILL, taken up sharply to go to the outside before reaching the turn and under strong riding the last three-eighths, began to improve her position after reaching the final five-sixteenths and, wearing down NOVELETTE, won drawing clear. Latter bettered her position gradually and held on well, but was not good enough.

Time, :23 4-5, :47 4-5, 1:13 1-5, 1:40 1-5, 1:47. Two dollar mutuels paid: Ahead, $4.40 straight, $3.40 place, $2.60 show; Immersal, $7.20 place, $4.80 show; Commish Geary, $5.00 show. Winner trained by N. Burger. Went to post at 3:18. Off at once.

AHEAD, kept on the outside and rated under mild restraint to the final half mile, bettered his position gradually and, careening into IMMERSAL near the finish, was lucky to get up. Latter, under strong restraint early, raced into an easy lead on the second turn, increased his margin when urged in the stretch, weakened after a mile, but almost lasted when AHEAD got the worst of it as the two horses bumped near the end. COMMISH GEARY was under vigorous riding in the final three-eighths

FOURTH RACE—Six furlongs. Purse $1,000. Net value to winner, $700; second, $200; third, $75; fourth, $25.

Time, :22 3-5, :46 2-5, 1:12 2-5. Two dollar mutuels paid: Egmont, $47.00 straight, $22.40 place, $5.80 show; Night Bandit, $6.40 place, $3.20 show; Hy Sonny, $2.40 show. Winner trained by A. G. Woodman. Went to post at 3:45.

EGMONT, on the outside throughout, forced the early pace under restraint, stood pressure gamely and, after getting to the front in the last sixteenth, drew clear rapidly. NIGHT BANDIT, outrun for a half mile, swung to the outside in the stretch and closed boldly under strong riding. HY SONNY, away fast and on the inside throughout, was cleverly rated, but weakened in the last eighth and pulled up sore.

FIFTH RACE—Six furlongs. Purse $900. Net value to winner, $650; second, $150; third, $75; fourth, $25.

Time, :23, :46 3-5, 1:13 1-5. Two dollar mutuels paid: Pelter, $8.60 straight, $4.80 place, $3.80 show; Be Blue, $3.60 place, $2.80 show; Top Billing, $3.20 show. Winner trained by owner. Went to post at 4:12½. At post ½ minute.

PELTER, under hustling tactics from the start and raced a trifle wide the final three-eighths, closed well under increased pressure and drew clear fast after getting up, but probably had little in reserve. BE BLUE, away fast and on the inside throughout, rushed into a long lead, was steadied on the stretch turn, and continued well to the final eighth, where she weakened. TOP BILLING, raced wide, went evenly.

SIXTH RACE—Six and one-half furlongs. Allowances. Class C. Three year olds and up. Purse $1,200. Net value to winner, $850; second, $200; third, $100; fourth, $50.

Time, :23 2-5, :47 1-5, 1:12 2-5, 1:18 4-5. Two dollar mutuels paid: Keokee, $5.20 straight, $3.20 place, $2.60 show; Flint Shot, $4.20 place, $3.20 show; Amazing, $4.80 show. Winner trained by F. Nancolas. Went to post at 4:39½.

KEOKEE took command easily, was taken under a snug hold after an eighth, bore out badly on the stretch turn, but came away when straight in the final quarter and stalled off FLINT SHOT when tiring in the late stages. Latter, on the inside early, followed the winner out on the stretch turn, stood pressure gamely, and was going in steady fashion at the end. AMAZING, on the inside throughout, worked his way up gradually and finished well.

SEVENTH RACE—Mile and one-sixteenth. Claiming. Three year olds and up. Purse $1,000. Net value to winner, $700; second, $200; third, $75; fourth, $25.

Time, :24 2-5, :48 3-5, 1:13 2-5, 1:39 1-5, 1:46. Two dollar mutuels paid: Mardromel, $11.60 straight, $4.60 place, $3.40 show; Contrast, $4.00 place, $3.00 show; Lookabout, $5.20 show. Winner trained by A. G. Tarn. Went to post at 5:08.

MARDROMEL, well up after three-eighths but kept under restraint until the final quarter, closed strongly under energetic riding and, wearing down LOOKABOUT, held CONTRAST safe. Latter, forced to lose much ground and far back for almost three-quarters, worked her way up steadily thereafter and was getting to the winner.

EIGHTH RACE—Mile and one-sixteenth. Claiming. Three year olds and up. Purse $800. Net value to winner, $600; second, $125; third, $50; fourth, $25.

Winner trained by R. O. Higdon. Went to post at 5:41. At post 3 minutes. Start good for all but Duchess Reigh.

DONNAHONA, away slowly and far back for three-quarters, came with a rush thereafter and, taking command in the last sixteenth, won in hand. COMMUNIST, not urged when unable to keep up early and slow to respond, swung to the extreme outside in the stretch and finished boldly. BOOTS GREENOCK was under strong urging the final three-eighths and held on gamely.

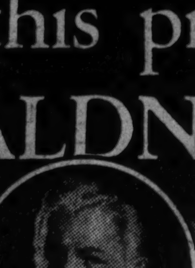
Let's talk sense about this problem of BALDNESS



Charles Nessler, leading hair biologist, inventor of permanent waving.

That day when you looked in your mirror and first noticed your hair line "moving backwards"—you're off on a new game—a game of tonics, treatments and whatnot.

But time moved on—and so did your hair line!

Can Baldness Be Arrested?

That is the question I asked myself forty years ago—and I determined to find the answer. No one even knew the cause of baldness. I studied every race—studied in every climate. Certain facts began to reveal themselves . . . 1 — Baldness is not hereditary. 2 — Nature intended every man to have a full head of hair. 3 — Baldness can be arrested, if you obey Nature's law.

Finally in 1932 I announced the Pro-Ker treatment. And I made this definite statement, backed by an unconditional guarantee:

Pro-Ker will help Nature prevent baldness . . . encourage normal hair replacement . . . help retain at least the hair you now have. It will promptly relieve dandruff, oiliness, itching scalp.

Because the Pro-Ker treatment is basically right, it is simple. Because it is basically right, it will do all that I claim for it. CLIP THIS ITEM, AND YOU'LL HAVE SHOOTING RULES

Illinois Duck Season Will Open Nov. 1.

BY BOB BECKER.

Mr. Sportsman, here are the facts on shooting seasons in Illinois and Wisconsin. You can clip this item and paste it on your hunting calendar for future reference.

Illinois—The duck season starts at 7 a. m. Monday, Nov. 1. The state license is $1.50. The duck stamp costs $1. Every waterfowl hunter needs both. The bag limit on ducks is 10 a day and 10 in possession. No live decoys and no artificial feeding or baiting will be permitted in the marshes. Guns for waterfowl hunting cannot hold more than three shells at a time. This goes for hunting all game in Illinois—rabbits, pheasants, squirrels, ducks or any bird or animal recognized as game by the Illinois code. No hunter may shoot on or across any highway in the state.

The Pheasant Season.

The Illinois pheasant, rabbit and quail season opens on Nov. 10. The pheasant season extends through the 15th—the same as last year. The limit will be two cocks a day and six in possession. Illinois' quail season extends through Dec. 9 and the limit is 12 Bob Whites a day.

There seems to be a misapprehension about jacksnipe hunting. Some hunters think Illinois has an October snipe season. This isn't so. The jacksnipe, duck, goose and mudhen seasons open at the same time—Nov. 1 at 7 a. m.

And About the Cost.

The cost of renting a duck blind along the Illinois river doubtless will be about the same as last year. We are making a survey of the hunting situation along the Illinois with respect to marsh blinds that may be leased by the day. So far we have information on just one locality—Lacon, Ill. [Daily fee is $7.50 per gun]. The survey of places for the free lance hunter who wants to get day shooting will be ready in about two weeks. Already there are lots of ducks along the Illinois, especially bluewinged teal. These birds will be gone by Nov. 1. But for every teal that has left there will be 100 mallards and pintails!

Wisconsin—The duck season opens Oct. 9. The nonresident license is $25. If a nonresident wants to shoot pheasants [and nothing else] on a shooting preserve his license will be just $5.

Guns, their gauge, load and spread, are fully discussed in Bob Becker's "The Hunter's Guide." On sale at Tribune Public Service offices, 1 South Dearborn street and Tribune Tower. Price, 25c; by mail, 30c.

"Glass Mates Forever!"

Like a peppy old school song, Wood-Stock stirs the cockles of the heart. It's a true, cheer-leading "Glass Mate" . . . straight, in cocktails, sours or long refreshing highballs.

Every smooth and mellow drop of this excellent bourbon is distilled according to the strict traditions of Kentucky. Delicious, full-bodied, it has a rich bouquet distinctively its own.

Be sure of the whiskey you drink. Always ask for Wood-Stock at your favorite bar and tavern.

DOUGLAS REALLY A CONSERVATIVE PERSON, HE SAYS

New Chief of SEC Tells Policies.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Sept. 22.—[Special.] — William O. Douglas, newly elected chairman of the securities and exchange commission, today sought to assuage the fears of Wall street concerning his future policies by describing himself as "a pretty conservative sort of fellow from the old school, a school too old for some to remember," who has in mind "no ruinous theories of social experimentation."

Notified last night at his Cape Cod vacation home of his election, Douglas rushed back to Washington to give a press interview and issue a statement. Two hours later he was headed back to finish the vacation. Throughout his interview Douglas, a sandy haired former professor of law at Yale, made it plain that the commission will pursue with even greater determination its intent to rid the nation's security markets of all artificial forces.

Interested Only in Causes.

Making no comment on recent weakness in the market, the chairman said the committee "is not interested in prices as such." Prices always "will go up and down," he said. "From time to time we hope to get to the root of market trends, to see whether they are being shaped by natural economic forces or by artificial ones. We will interfere only when such forces are artificial. My whole philosophy about finance is the application of simple honesty to all transactions.

"There will be direct and aggressive prosecution of any cases we discover of pools and manipulation of security prices. We are in favor of a free market, not a fixed one."

Repeatedly, he emphasized his feeling that the commission should be the "investors' advocate," but with equal force he insisted that such service does not mean "investment counsel."

Investor Must Be Judge.

"The government cannot provide any substitute for investment judgment," he pointed out. "It can act to prevent manipulation and to prosecute fraud, but in the final analysis the investor's judgment must govern his actions. We cannot save a fool from his folly."

Asserting the commission is being objective and disinterested in its determination to keep the financial markets honest, Douglas said he was not attempting to foist his own economic and social ideas on the security business, but was keeping strictly within the plain meaning of the statute setting up the agency.

"I believe in enforcement fairly and fully, directly rather than indirectly. We should not employ the statute to accomplish by indirection what was not intended by those who wrote the law. However, the period that lies ahead must be a period of action."

Tells Philosophy.

Douglas, the subject of much speculation as his elevation to the chairmanship loomed, said he believes "little stockholders should be treated as well as big partners of business and that there is something wrong when 'the big fellows' in business circles want to deal themselves three hands while dealing the 'little fellows' none."

The new chairman emphasized that the commission is a growing agency, due to expand materially, and possessed of the power "to revise and revitalize certain features of the capitalistic system to the advantage of all concerned."

AGAINST NEW CURBS

Thaddeus R. Benson, president of the Chicago Stock exchange, said yesterday there is every reason to expect that the federal securities exchange act will continue to be "intelligently and well administered" under William O. Douglas, new chairman of the securities and exchange commission.

"I am hopeful," said Benson, "that the new administration at the SEC will be disposed to impose no new limitations on normal securities business until we have mutually solved some of the problems we now have, and that the new chairman may revise some of the present regulations hampering the healthy functioning of the market. The exchanges under their own rules and under the law are today the most regulated part of the securities business."

Hearing on Monon Plan Is Adjourned to Dec. 7

Washington, D. C., Sept. 22.—(AP)—The interstate commerce commission adjourned today until Dec. 7 further hearings on the management's plan for reorganization of the Chicago, Indianapolis and Louisville Railroad company. H. R. Kurrie, the road's president, cited the "excellent earnings record" of the carrier in support of the plan. From 1921 through 1929 the road averaged $1,248,000 annually in income over charges, he said. He said he expected to recover much coal trafic.

S. M. Nielson Low Bidder for Evanston Postoffice

Washington, D. C., Sept. 22.—(AP)—The S. M. Nielson company, Chicago, today submitted to the treasury a $443,941 low bid for construction of a postoffice in Evanston, Ill. Other bidders included the Henke Brothers Construction company, Chicago, $444,444 and the A. C. Atherton company, Chicago, $445,859.

ELECTRIC OUTPUT GAINS 5.9% ; MORE THAN SEASONAL

Electricity output in the United States during the week ended Sept. 18 amounted to 2,280,792,000 kilowatt hours, the Edison Electric institute reported yesterday. This was a more than seasonal gain of 5.9 per cent over the preceding week's output of 2,154,276,000 kilowatt hours, and was 12.4 per cent better than the 2,028,583,000 kilowatt hours generated in the corresponding week of 1936.

Production of electricity in the Chicago district amounted to 127,031,000 kilowatt hours, an increase of 5.4 per cent over the preceding week's output of 120,463,000, and a gain of 4.3 per cent over the 121,780,000 kilowatt hours of the like week a year ago.

Court Absolves Baldwin for Missouri Pacific Losses

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 22.—(AP)—An order by United States District Judge George H. Moore today absolved L. W. Baldwin, operating head of the Missouri Pacific railroad, of legal or ethical responsibility for large losses suffered by the railroad in purchases of its own stock prior to its trusteeship.

Food Prices Are Rising in France, Index Shows

PARIS, France, Sept. 22.—[Special.]—Wholesale food prices in France are rising. According to Statistique Generale, the general price index advanced 1.5 per cent this week. An advance of 2.9 per cent in food prices heads the list of rising prices.

U. S. ABANDONS ORIGINAL PRICE 'PARITY' GOAL

Fear Consumers Will 'Rise in Protest.'

Washington, D. C., Sept. 22.—(AP)—Secretary Wallace announced today the administration has abandoned its original goal of "parity prices" for farm products. He told reporters the aim now is to try and give "the average farmer the same purchasing power he had in the 50 years before the world war."

Wallace said the change in purpose was made because "parity prices did not mean everything." These were prices which would make a given quantity of major farm products have the same purchasing power they did in the pre-war period of 1909-'14.

Can't Get Enough Money.

"I don't think there is any way of getting enough money out of the treasury," Wallace said, "to give farmers parity prices during the next ten years for cotton, wheat, corn, hogs, or any other product that is exported. You might be able to get enough for a year or two to do this. But the consumer would soon rise up in protest."

As an example, Wallace said the parity price for cotton is nearly 17 cents a pound, although the commodity has been selling at about 9 cents recently and government subsidy payments are to raise the total return to about 12 cents a pound on part of the crop.

Fears Too Large Yields.

The secretary also discussed the government's 1938 soil conservation program, under which farmers must hold acreage of major crops below the 1928-'37 average to qualify for benefit payments. If any criticism could be directed at the program, he said, it would be that with normal yields it would produce supplies "too large in view of the prospective markets." He said administration officials are much concerned with improving export outlets for the country's wheat and cotton.

Wallace reported that governors of Missouri and Indiana had called on him recently about a government loan on this year's corn crop. He said a decision on that would not be made until the crop starts to market this fall and prices have been determined.

Predicts Nationwide Control.

In an address tonight Wallace said some nation-wide system of production control over major farm crops is inevitable. World and domestic conditions forced the present administration to transform the department of agriculture from an "educational and research agency" into one of "action," he asserted.

"In my opinion," he said, "the principle of coöperative crop adjustment is sound and will eventually be applied again."

2 GREYHOUND BUS SYSTEMS ASK TO MERGE LINES

Washington, D. C., Sept. 22.—(AP)—Two Greyhound bus systems applied to the interstate commerce commission today for authority to consolidate lines in their immediate territories. The Greyhound Corporation of Chicago asked to acquire control of Buckeye Stages, Inc., through purchase of 60 per cent of the capital stock. The corporation seeks to buy 13,560 shares for $300,000 cash. Operations of Greyhound and Buckeye units would be consolidated.

Buckeye Stages, operating primarily in Ohio, but also extending into Pennsylvania and Michigan, had gross revenues of $500,062 for the first seven months this year.

Southeastern Greyhound Lines of Lexington, Ky., asked the commission to approve a plan to retire $1,947,340 of debt and for the merger of substantially all of its subsidiary companies. The plan involves issuance of 175,987 shares of $10 par common stock and 28,121 shares of 6 per cent convertible preferred stock. Par value of 123,980 shares of outstanding common stock would be increased from $5 to $10 a share.

The company proposes to sell the convertible shares and 20,000 shares of the new common.

KEDZIE-MADISON CORNER SOLD TO DR. NATHANSON

The northwest corner of Kedzie avenue and Madison street, 114 by 191 feet, was sold yesterday by Helen Keep Hubbard and E. Kent Hubbard, of Middletown, Conn., to Dr. Frank L. Nathanson, for an indicated $215,000. Of this amount $150,000 was cash and the balance a purchase money mortgage for $65,000.

The corner is improved with three buildings. A two story structure adjoining it on the west is the Kedzie theater, a 1,500 seat playhouse leased to the Kedzie Amusement company. To the west of the theater is the Kedzie annex, a business building.

Midland Utilities Hearing Set for Oct. 12 by SEC

Washington, D. C., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—The Securities and Exchange commission today set Oct. 12 for a hearing on an application on a plan of reorganization for Midland Utilities company, which has been filed by a committee for holders of that company's 6 per cent series A debentures.

U. S. Smelting Profits Higher in 8 Months

United States Smelting, Refining and Mining company yesterday reported its net income for eight months ended Aug. 31 was $4,485,894, equal after preferred dividend requirements to $6.41 a common share, against net income of $3,782,769, or $5.08 a share, in the corresponding 1936 period.

Net earnings of $1,207,849 for the fiscal year ended June 30 were shown in the first annual statement of the Colorado Fuel and Iron corporation since its reorganization. The earnings were equal to $2.18 a share on 553,125 shares of common stock. Net working capital increased $1,807,574 during the year. The operating rate at the corporation's steel plant at Pueblo averaged 69.6 per cent of its steel ingot capacity.

Utility Earns More.

Public Service corporation of New Jersey earned $1,424,821 in August, compared with $1,375,668 in the same month a year ago. Net income for 12 months ended Aug. 31 was $25,554,695, or $2.85 a common share, against $23,385,658, or $2.46 a share, in the preceding year.

Plymouth Oil company had August net income of $247,085, against $154,709 a year ago. Profit for eight months ended Aug. 31 was $1,838,609, or $1.75 a common share, compared with profit of $1,122,926, or $1.07 a share, in the corresponding 1936 period.

Gar Wood Industries, Inc., and subsidiaries, boat manufacturers, earned $452,613, equal to 56 cents a share on 800,000 outstanding common shares, in the six months ended June 30. Figures for the first half of last year are not available because the company has not previously issued interim consolidated statements.

Stove Maker Earns Less.

Detroit-Michigan Stove company reported profit of $207,911 for the year ended July 31, compared with profit of $224,267 in the preceding year.

Cutler-Hammer, Inc., manufacturer of electrical control apparatus, reported profit of $1,114,723, equal to $3.38 a capital share, in the seven months ended July 31. Year ago figures were not reported.

Berkey and Gay Furniture company's profit was $15,699 for six months ended June 30. No comparison was available.

SCHEDULE TRIAL OF ANTI-TRUST OIL SUIT OCT. 4

Madison, Wis., Sept. 22.—(AP)—Western Wisconsin District federal court sent notices today to 47 defendants in the government's anti-trust oil cases to report here for trial Oct. 4.

Ten other men indicted on charges of conspiracy to raise gasoline prices have been excused from the impending trial, but two of them—Bernard L. Majewski, Chicago, vice president of the Deep Rock Oil company, and Keith Fanshier, petroleum editor of the Chicago Journal of Commerce—may be called as witnesses, government attorneys said. They will gain immunity if they testify.

Four officials of the Gulf Oil corporation, who have resisted removal to Madison, will not be tried at this time. They are J. F. Drake, president; William V. Hartmann, vice president, and H. C. Meyer, all of Pittsburgh, Pa., and O. H. Carlisle, Houston, Tex.

MERGER OF BAKERIES PROPOSED TO CREATE FIFTH LARGEST FIRM

Plans for merging Interstate Bakeries corporation and its subsidiaries, Schulze Baking company and Western Bakeries Corporation, Ltd., into one operating corporation were announced yesterday by R. L. Nafziger, president of Interstate and Schulze.

R. L. Nafziger.

Directors of the three corporations have approved the consolidation and consequent reorganization, Nafziger told stockholders in a letter urging approval of the plan. Interstate stockholders will meet Nov. 8 and Schulze shareholders Oct. 29 to vote on the merger.

The new corporation will retain the Interstate name. It will be the fifth largest in the baking industry in the United States, Nafziger said.

"Consolidation into one corporation would mean elimination of taxes on inter-company dividends, elimination of inter-company debt, adequate working capital, creation of a capital structure which would permit dividend payments as earnings justify, and avoidance of heavy surtaxes on undistributed profits." he said.

The reorganization would be effected through an exchange of securities.

The present Interstate Bakeries corporation already owns 98.936 per cent of the preferred stock and 99.256 per cent of the common of Schulze. The parent concern also owns all of the 38,093 common shares of Western, which is the sole capitalization aside from the note issue to be assumed.

FARMERS NATL. ELECTS THREE NEW DIRECTORS

Election of three new directors was announced last night by the Farmers National Grain corporation, big coöperative marketing association, at the close of a two day annual meeting. Four directors were reëlected, and six others continue as members of the board inasmuch as their terms did not expire.

Joe Phillips, May, Okla., and Frank Arn, Indianapolis, Ind., were elected to represent the Oklahoma Grain Growers association and the Indiana Grain Producers, Inc. They succeed Lyle L. Hague and B. B. Benner. W. C. Moore, Denver, Colo., was named to represent the Colorado Grain Growers, Inc., of which he is president. This coöperative formerly was not represented on the board, although participating in the Farmers National program.

Officers will be named today at a meeting of directors. No comment was made on the success of the recent change in policy by which regional coöperatives were given more authority in the marketing program. William C. Horn, Fostoria, O., was named president of the organization last May when the Rev. C. E. Huff resigned because he favored continuation of a strong national organization which dominated the regionals.

Swift and Armour Sell 50,000 Cow Hides to Japan

Swift & Co. and Armour & Co. reported yesterday that they had sold 50,000 light native cow hides to Japan at 17 cents a pound to "a shade better." The last previous sale of this grade was made about six weeks ago at 17½ cents a pound. Local hide experts said the purchase was the largest ever made by Japanese interests here. Hide futures in New York advanced 0.11 to 0.20 cent a pound.

Pennsy Road's Net Operating Income Falls

The Pennsylvania railroad yesterday reported that August net operating income had decreased despite an upturn in gross revenues. The revenues totaled $39,637,722 and net operating income was $6,162,933 in August, against revenues of $37,807,085 and net operating income of $7,539,148 in the same month a year ago. Railway operating expenses were $2,768,950 higher.

Gross revenues for the first eight months of this year totaled $314,095,305, against $280,523,476 in the corresponding 1936 period. Net operating income for the period was $48,709,844, against $50,404,084 a year ago. Railway operating expenses were $31,944,592 higher.

Illinois Central Has Gain.

The Illinois Central had gross revenues of $9,219,189 and net operating income of $1,198,952 in August, compared with revenues of $9,445,328 and net operating income of $1,160,328 in the same month last year. In the eight months ended Aug. 31 revenues were $74,908,717 and net operating income $8,870,654, against revenues of $72,530,532 and net operating income of $8,310,202 in the corresponding 1936 period.

Officials of the road said that the increase of $38,624 in August net operating income in the face of a decrease of $236,139 in revenues was partly due to the retrenchment program announced more than a month ago. Operating expenses for the month this year totaled $6,950,000, compared with $7,197,000 a year ago, a decline of $247,000.

Nickel Plate Profit Lower.

The Nickel Plate road announced August net income, after all charges, was $340,271, a decrease of $598 compared with the corresponding month last year. For the eight months of 1937 the road's net income was $1,851,208, an increase of $184,848 over a year ago.

Bangor and Aroostook railroad had gross revenues of $261,305 and net operating deficit of $42,407 in August, against revenues of $239,142 and operating deficit of $47,644 in the same 1936 month. Deficit after charges for the month this year was $99,987, against a deficit of $105,291 in August, 1936. Revenues were $4,235,042 and net operating income $1,073,460 in the first eight months of this year, compared with revenues of $3,920,524 and net operating income of $780,788 in the corresponding 1936 period.

Eight Months' Profit Higher.

The road had net income of $608,511, or $3.39 a common share, in eight months ended Aug. 31, compared with net income of $315,284, or $1.08 a share, in the same 1936 period.

Hudson and Manhattan railroad reported gross revenues of $597,011 and deficit after charges of $121,152 in August, against gross revenues of $591,502 and deficit of $82,152 in the same month a year ago. Gross revenues were $5,175,935 and deficit after charges $454,090 in eight months ended Aug. 31, compared with revenues of $5,138,752 and deficit of $353,985 in the 1936 period.

Stocks Get Set for Runup, but Soon Stumble

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Sept. 22.—The stock market "got set" for a runup today, but stumbled, and final prices were irregular. However, net advances exceeded losses by a modest margin. Turnover was 739,280 shares.

Selling by cautious traders and profit taking reduced the earlier gains. Steels, rails, and some "specialties" were the early leaders, but these also turned downward in the late selling. U. S. Steel at one time was 2½ points higher, but it closed at a net gain of only ⅝. Buyers of rails were encouraged by belief that the carrier wage controversy will be settled amicably.

Douglas Aircraft Dips 4¼.

Douglas Aircraft fell 4¼ points on the announcement of the war department that it would not accept 11 of an order of 100 planes from the Northrop corporation, controled by Douglas, because of "fears of sabotage" due to labor difficulties at the plant.

Farm stocks came in for a moderate amount of buying. Reversing yesterday's trend, Deere closed more than 3 points higher, but Case dropped 2 points. International Harvester moved in a narrow range, closing a minor fraction higher.

Oils worked moderately higher. Mail order stocks slipped back from their best levels, several dipping below yesterday's final quotations. Chemicals enjoyed better demand. Allied, up 4, and Monsanto, up 5, reflected a sold-out condition. In the amusements Loews met better inquiry, adding 1⅛ points, while Paramount eased a fraction on good supply. Chrysler advanced sharply, but closed only a fraction higher.

The election of William O. Douglas as chairman of the Securities and Exchange commission was not looked upon with great apprehension in Wall street despite the fact that he is regarded as unfriendly to "economic royalists," some traders said.

Legionnaires Disrupt Trading.

Denver, Colo., delegates to the American Legion convention "raided" the stock exchange and disrupted trading. The group included 10 pretty "cow girls" dressed in western regalia.

Work stopped as floor brokers serenaded the visitors with "Wait Till the Sun Shines, Nellie" and "Cheyenne," and then the legion band marched in to add to the din. The girls autographed their scarves and threw them to the brokers, who in turn tossed their badges up to the gallery.

One lanky westerner declared, "They took everything I had in 1929 and this is the first opportunity I've had to make any noise about it." He proudly displayed a trombone.

London Stocks Advance.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—[Special.]—Stocks closed at substantial gains on the London exchange today. Almost all divisions of the list with the exception of a few international issues participated in the advance. The Paris bourse closed strong, but trade was inactive. Prices in Amsterdam rallied in the afternoon after a dull morning session.

AIR LINE TO FLY SLEEPER PLANES TO NEW YORK

United Airlines, which now has sleeper plane service to the west coast, will inaugurate nightly sleeper planes from here to New York next Sunday, the company announced yesterday.

Planes will leave Chicago at 8:45 p. m. [central standard time] and arrive in Newark at 2 a. m. [eastern standard time]. Passengers may stay aboard the sleepers until later in morning.

On western flights, United's Los Angeles sleeper will leave here at 10:30 p. m. instead of 10 p. m., as at present, and will reach the coast at 8:50 a. m. [Pacific standard time], 30 minutes later than under the present schedule.

New records for revenue passenger miles and mail and express poundage were established by United Airlines in August, W. A. Patterson, president, announced. Passengers totaled 26,236, compared with 23,742 in July. A total of 753,281 pounds of mail and express was carried, an increase of 6 per cent.

Canada's August Newsprint Exports Dip; Exceed 1936

OTTAWA, Sept. 22.—(AP)—Newsprint export statistics for August disclosed today that the United States purchased $8,781,000 worth of a total of $10,662,000. Exports fell below those of July, but were 17 per cent larger than in August, 1936. The total for the first five months of 1937, $53,249,000, was 20 per cent larger than during the same period last year.

CORN SPURTS 7⅞c AS SHORTS RUSH TO COVER

September Margins Again Boosted.

CHICAGO GRAIN PRICES

Closing prices of principal December deliveries on the Chicago Board of Trade yesterday:

	Yesterday.	Tuesday.	Year ago.
Wheat	$1.05⅝	$1.05⅝	$1.15¾
Corn	.85⅜	.84⅜	.94⅞
Oats	.31	.31⅛	.42⅝
Rye	.79⅝	.80⅝	.83⅞
Soy beans	.94⅛	.94⅛	.....

September corn soared 7⅞ cents yesterday on the Chicago Board of Trade to $1.12½, or within ⅛ cent a bushel of the permissible limit for one day's upturn. The advance was the direct result of short covering induced in part by calls for additional margin on September contracts. Effective today, the clearing house association of the Board of Trade will demand 12 cents a bushel margin from its members on holdings of 250,000 bushels or less of September corn, and ½ cent more per bushel on every additional 250,000 bushels in excess of 250,000.

Margin requirements for members of the exchange were advanced from 4 to 8 cents a bushel last week as fears grew of an impending corner. Commission houses are permitted to demand as much margin from their customers as they consider adequate. Some were said to have called for 30 cents a bushel margin.

Investigation Continues.

There were no new developments yesterday in the joint probe of the Commodity Exchange administration and the business conduct committee of the Board of Trade into the September corn situation. L. A. Fitz, in charge of the CEA investigation, did not appear at his office yesterday, but his department was said to be assembling the data which had been demanded from the grain trade Tuesday in regard to the holdings of individual traders in that future.

Pit brokers reported that part of the buying of September corn appeared to be short covering which they attributed to the Farmers' National Grain corporation. Brokers who were thought to be acting for the Cargill Grain company, said to be the leading long, were the heaviest sellers.

Open Interest Reduced.

A large reduction in the open interest in September corn was thought to have occurred as the result of the short covering yesterday. When the session opened there was a total of 10,255,000 bushels of incompleted contracts, a reduction of 417,000 bushels from the preceding day.

As a result of the advance in corn yesterday it was possible to pay $1 or more at many country elevators in the west and farmers sold heavily.

The attempts of shorts to secure corn to deliver against their contracts is bringing grain here from a wide area. Cash corn at Kansas City, St. Louis, and at other points is selling at better than a full freight rate discount, compared with prices in the spot market in Chicago.

Other Futures Gains Small.

The action of September corn had little effect on the October, December, and May deliveries of that grain. October closed 1⅛ cent higher at 72¾ cents a bushel.

Wheat futures fluctuated within a range of 2 cents a bushel. Closing prices were fractionally lower. Speculative interest was dull. The decline occurred in sympathy with Liverpool which closed ⅝ cent a bushel lower.

Little interest was shown in oats, rye, or soy beans. Price changes were confined to small fractions of a cent a bushel.

Stocks, Bonds

New York Bonds.

New York, Sept. 22.—(AP)—Federal bonds gained ground while domestic corporates worked irregularly lower. Gains and losses were fairly evenly distributed with widest movements on the downside. Foreign loans were narrow.

Although most federals were higher, gains were not impressive, 8-32 point being the largest. Dealings in treasury issues, in common with the rest of the market, were restricted.

Lower priced carrier liens were lower after Tuesday's modest rally. Some higher priced issues managed to advance. Industrial and utility liens showed little sign of a concerted move in either direction.

Principal activity in foreign dollar loans centered in German, Italian, and Japanese issues.

Chicago Stocks.

Stocks closed slightly lower on the Chicago Stock exchange yesterday when a reaction late in the session erased gains made in the forenoon. Volume was again light at 29,000 shares, compared with 25,000 Wednesday.

Best advances were made by Hibbard-Spencer-Bartlett, up 5½ points, and Chain Belt, up 4 points, on light volume. Commonwealth Edison, Chicago Corporation common, General Household, Marshall Field, and some of the other trading favorites were unchanged.

Of the 96 issues traded, 22 advanced, 36 declined, and 38 were unchanged. THE TRIBUNE average of 20 stocks slipped 0.07 to 15.62.

Bank Stocks.

Chicago bank stock prices were firmer yesterday. Lake Shore Trust, Merchandise National, and National Boulevard each advanced $5 a share. City National was $2 higher. First National and Personal Loan and Savings gained $1.

Interstate Commerce Commission.

Federal regulation of railroads had its inception in the interstate commerce act of 1887, which has been amended frequently. Power to regulate is placed in the interstate commerce commission, which is composed of eleven members appointed by the President with the advice and consent of the senate. Not more than six members may be of the same political party. Their term is seven years each and annual salary $12,000.

The powers of the commission extend to steam railroads, trucking companies, express and sleeping car companies and to some extent water carriers.

The commission is intrusted with power to see that rates are "just and reasonable," that no special rebates are granted, and many other matters affecting service and operation. It must approve all rates and classification lists.

The law authorizes the interstate commerce commission to set minimum as well as maximum rates to enable roads to earn a fair return on their invested capital.

The transportation act of 1920 broadened the scope of federal regulation by providing for a national railroad labor board, consisting of nine members, three representing employés, three employers, and three the public, for the adjustment of labor disputes. Railroad boards of adjustment are also provided to adjust grievances.

COTTON

Cotton futures continued the decline yesterday which has been under way for a number of weeks and dropped a small fraction of a cent a pound to new low levels for the season. Persistent hedging pressure was in evidence and more than offset trade and foreign buying which developed on every fractional recession. Closing trades were at practically the bottom with net losses in the leading markets ranging from .01 to .06 cent a pound.

A feature of the trading yesterday was the sale of a large amount of October cotton at New Orleans which was replaced by purchases of December at .01 cent a pound premium for the latter. A spot house was said to have bought the October and sold the December.

Spot cotton closed unchanged to .05 cent a pound lower with New Orleans, 8.70 cents; New York, 8.90 cents, and Galveston and Houston at 8.45 cents a pound. Prices follow:

Commodities

Cocoa futures declined the permissible limit of 1 cent a pound on the New York Cocoa exchange yesterday when the market support provided in recent months by a leading manufacturer was withdrawn.

Traders said the manufacturer had been providing support in the old crop months at a basis of 8.23 cents a pound for December contracts until yesterday, when his bids were removed. Sales totaled 16,361 tons, against 11,524 Tuesday.

Coffee futures staged a brisk rally near the close of trading on buying by New York dealers and big Brazilian exporters. Santos contracts finished 0.13 to 0.25 cent a pound above the previous close and Rio 0.14 to 0.19 cent higher. Cash markets were dull and unchanged.

Metal markets were steady and better buying was reported. Copper futures closed irregular, but futures of other metals were mostly higher.

Egg futures declined ⅛ cent a dozen on the Chicago Mercantile exchange. Cash eggs were unchanged. November butter and butter for immediate delivery also was unchanged. Idaho russets for November delivery closed at $1.50 a hundred pounds, down one cent and at low price for the year.

DECATUR LOOKS TO BUMPER CROP FOR PROSPERITY

Big Corn Harvest Means Good Business.

[This is the third of a series of articles on farm and business conditions in downstate Illinois.

BY THOMAS FURLONG.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Decatur, Ill., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—The big 1937 corn crop will be doubly beneficial to this city whose principal industry is corn refining. The basis of the community's economy is corn. The size of the crop regulates the volume of business done by the principal industry and the volume of railroad and truck trafic in and out of the city. A big corn crop means good business for all.

The community still feels the effects of last year's small corn crop. While farmers got good prices for the grain the rest of the community was seriously affected. The A. E. Staley Manufacturing company, like other corn refiners, was badly handicapped by the abnormally high corn prices. Its operations, like those of the whole industry, were curtailed.

Competitors Benefited.

Products competitive with those derived from corn had an important price advantage as a result of high corn prices.

With a big corn crop assured the community feels confident of a period of better business. The new crop grain is still not ready for market and the Staley company's operations are not expected to expand materially until the crop movement is well under way. This will occur in a few weeks.

This year's corn grind will be a large one, it is anticipated, because refiners will be able to win back markets again with corn prices at their present level.

The Staley company draws its corn supplies from within a radius of 150 to 200 miles of Decatur. Some years it goes into Iowa for corn. An important part of its business, which has grown rapidly in recent years, is soy bean processing.

Pioneer in Soy Beans.

The company pioneered in the industrial development of soy bean products and was instrumental in getting farmers in this section interested in producing the beans.

The soy bean division of the business took up some of the slack which was caused in recent months by the high price of corn. Soy bean processing has accounted for an increasingly large share of the company's total business. It has been an offset to the loss of business caused by the competition of duty free foreign starches, such as tapioca, with American products.

The highways in this part of the state at the present time are alles between tall fields of corn. Except where the road rises above the level of the adjacent fields one may see no further than the first row of corn.

In many fields the stalks rise above ten feet. The lack of view is a trafic hazard at crossroads.

On the highways leading into Springfield and Decatur one passes mile after mile of the ripening grain, alternated by fields of rotation crops such as soy beans. Picking of corn has started in only a few fields. The grain will be left in the fields for further drying.

Early corn picked in this section has shown a moisture content averaging above 25 per cent. The maximum permitted for corn delivered on the Chicago market is about 17 per cent.

Acts for Wallace

MRS. MARY CONNOR MYERS.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—Secretary of Agriculture Wallace, who conducts hearings on protests under the federal marketing act, today appointed a woman, Mrs. Mary Connor Myers, government lawyer from Fairfield, Ia., to act for him in hearing protests of large Boston, Mass., milk distributing companies. They contend the Boston milk market program should not apply to them and that the federal marketing act is unconstitutional.

Mrs. Myers was in the public eye two years ago when she investigated complaints of share croppers in Arkansas. Her control report, which was never officially released, stirred a minor furore in administration circles. Her friends contend the report helped pave the way for the present federal program to convert cropers into landowners.

News of The Tribune Experimental Farm

Life-Giving Leaves.

September 22, 1937.

PLANTS are putting on their fall colors at the Wheaton farm. In the cornfields, in the pastures, in the woods the varying shades of green that have prevailed since spring gradually are being crowded out by the brown, yellow, and red hues of ripening foliage as the leaves of plants announce the end of summer.

Leaves already are falling from many of the trees. Corn blades are drying up. This year's crop of leaves has about finished its work of gathering plant food elements from the air and from the soil and converting them into nutritious substances to be digested as food by the cells of plants.

Green leaves sometimes are referred to as the plants' stomachs. In a stricter sense they are food factories. Scientists say that they are the only factories capable of making organic foods for plants and animals out of the raw materials contained in air and soil. Without green plant leaves none of the higher forms of life could exist, for there would be no food for them.

Build with Light.

The process by which plant leaves take elemental substances and build them into foods is not clearly understood. It is called photosynthesis, which simply means building with the aid of light.

The basic raw materials of all plant foods come from two sources—air and soil. The green leaves absorb air through their pores. Water from the soil makes its way up to the leaves. Once inside the cells of the leaves the carbon dioxide from the air and the moisture from the soil are made into sugar and starch by the action of sunlight on the green coloring matter of the leaves, known as chlorophyll. Without the energy from sunlight this food making process cannot go on. Neither is it possible without the presence of chlorophyll.

After the sugars and starches are formed the plant is able to make more complex food substances, such as proteins, by utilizing the sugars formed in the leaves and the minerals contained in the water that has been taken from the soil through the roots. This second process may take place in any living cell in the plant and does not depend upon chlorophyll or sunlight.

Leaves Are Vital Link.

Plant leaves form a direct link between nature's storehouses of food elements and the food requirements of plant and animal life. All animals are dependent on plants either directly or indirectly for their food, and plants depend upon their leaves to make food out o' raw materials.

Plants make many uses of the products they manufacture, the uses varying greatly with the kind of plant. The foods may be made into wood, gums, resins, flowers, fruits, or seeds. They may be stored away as starches or sugars to serve some future need of the plant or to be used in the growth of new plants.

Ten chemical elements are required by plants in this process. They are carbon, oxygen, hydrogen, nitrogen, calcium, sulphur, iron, potassium, phosphorous, and magnesium. A few others usually are found, but most plants seem to grow without them. Nature makes ample provision for the two that come from the air—carbon and oxygen. Soils often are deficient in nitrogen, phosphorus, and potassium and sometimes calcium and sulphur. These are added to the soil in fertilizers.

FALL PLOWING, SEEDING DELAYED BY DRY WEATHER

Few Areas Receive Rains in Last Week.

Practically no rain fell in the grain belt last week, the weekly weather and crop report of the department of agriculture said yesterday. The only rainfall of consequence occurred in northeastern Oklahoma, lower Michigan, and west central Montana.

Continuation of dry weather delayed plowing and the preparation for fall seeding over large areas, but hastened the maturity of late crops. Early corn matured rapidly, while some of the late planted corn was damaged by continued dry weather.

Corn Husking Progresses.

Husking of corn progressed well in many sections and cutting advanced rapidly in nearly all areas. Most of the corn crop is now said to be safe from frost damage.

The outlook for the winter wheat crop was termed unfavorable in all states north of Oklahoma and Arkansas and westward to the Rockies.

General rains are needed to condition the soil, insure germination, and restore normal activities. One-half to three-quarters of the winter wheat acreage in Kansas has been seeded, according to the report.

CAPITAL PLAN OF PITTSBURGH STEEL APPROVED

Stockholders of Pittsburgh Steel company yesterday approved the recapitalization plan proposed by directors to eliminate dividend arrearages on the present 7 per cent preferred stock, amounting on Oct. 1 to $43.50 a share, or a total of about $4,583,000.

Consolidated Edison Company of New York announced that 63.7 per cent of the outstanding New York Steam corporation preferred shares has been presented for deposit under the proposed exchange plan. The plan becomes operative if 66⅔ per cent is deposited by Oct. 1.

Northwest Air Lines, Inc., filed a registration statement covering $112,500 of no par value common stock. Proceeds will be used for equipment and working capital. The Milwaukee company was named underwriter.

The federal power commission denied Sierra Pacific Power company the right to issue 35,000 shares of $100 par preferred stock and 226,600 shares of $15 par common.

AUGUST FACTORY SALES OF AUTOS ABOVE LAST YEAR

Washington, D. C., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—Factory sales of automobiles manufactured in the United States during August totaled 394,322 units, compared with 271,274 in the same month last year, the commerce department reported today. For the first eight months of the year sales amounted to 3,622,139 cars and trucks, against 3,200,565 a year ago.

General Motors corporation announced sales to dealers in overseas markets totaled 27,253 units in August, an increase of 9.2 per cent over last year. In the first eight months sales totaled 246,415 cars and trucks, a record for that period and 10 per cent above 1936.

STEEL INDUSTRY CURBS ACTIVITY AS ORDERS FALL

Steel ingot production this week was estimated yesterday at 76 per cent of capacity by the magazine Iron Age. This compares with 80 per cent operations last week, and is the result of downward adjustments of mill operations due to continued light buying.

The sharpest reduction in schedules occurred in the Pittsburgh and Wheeling districts, where declines of 10 and 12 points to 72 and 85 per cent, respectively, were made. Production of ingots in the Chicago district receded 2½ points.

"Unless business improves more rapidly than it has in the last two or three weeks," Iron Age said, "a further drop in the ingot production rate for the country is indicated.

"Building construction so far as heavy steel products are involved seems to have flattened out. This week's awards were only a little more than 11,000 tons."

Pronounced weakness has developed in the scrap market, particularly at Pittsburgh, where a sale was made at $2 under the previous quotation, the journal said. Scrap prices dipped 75 cents a ton at Chicago and 50 cents at Philadelphia, resulting in a decline of $1.08 in Iron Age's scrap composite to $18.25 a ton.

NATIONAL TEA CO. REPORTS SMALL DECLINE IN SALES

Sales of the National Tea company for the four weeks ended Sept. 11 declined 3.9 per cent to $4,486,744, compared with $4,667,805 in the same weeks a year ago, the company reported yesterday. Sales for the thirty-six weeks ended on Sept. 11 totaled $43,516,681, compared with $42,115,627 a year earlier, an increase of 3.3 per cent over 1936.

American Stores company reported sales of $8,042,914 for the four weeks ended Aug. 28, compared with $8,045,799 a year ago. Sales during the first eight months this year amounted to $74,914,183, against $74,955,224 in the same period in 1936.

Sales of Dejay Stores, Inc., for the seven months ended Aug. 31 totaled $1,330,564, against $1,041,309 in the corresponding period of 1936, an increase of 27.8 per cent.

North Shore Line to Place 3 New Trains in Service

The Chicago, North Shore and Milwaukee railroad announced yesterday it will add three new trains to its Mundelein service, beginning Sunday. The trains are a Sunday night special leaving Mundelein at 10:04 p. m. and arriving in the loop at 11:10 p. m., and two daily morning trains between Mundelein and Lake Bluff. One, eastbound, will leave Mundelein at 5:55 a. m. and reach Lake Bluff at 6:10 a. m., and the other, westbound, will leave Lake Bluff at 6:17 a. m. and reach Mundelein at 6:32 a. m.

Factory Radio Set Sales 12 Pct. Above Year Ago

Manufacturers' radio set sales in the first six months of this year totaled 3,348,635 units, an increase of 12 per cent over the corresponding 1936 period. Radio Today, trade publication, reported yesterday second quarter factory sales were estimated at 1,769,499 sets, or 4.5 per cent above a year ago. Sales of radio tubes in the first half year totaled 46,783,210, an increase of 21 per cent.

U.S. Envoy, French Finance Minister Hold Parley

PARIS, Sept. 22.—(AP)—Sumner Welles, American undersecretary of state, departed for home today after a long talk with Finance Minister Georges Bonnet, presumably on the possibility of a world economic conference. He came here from Brussels, where he discussed Europe's economic situation last night with the Belgian premier, Paul van Zeeland.

BENTON HARBOR FRUIT.

BENTON HARBOR, Mich., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—Today's fruit market prices were: Peaches, bushels, Elbertas, 2 inch, 75 to 85 cents; 1¾ inch, 60 to 65 cents; sales, $1 to 2. Pears, bushels, Bartletts, $1.75; canner varieties, $1. Tomatoes, 12 quarts, 40 to 60 cents. Grapes, Concords, Moores, Early, 4 quarts, 15 to 16 cents; 12 quarts, 30 to 34 cents. PONTIAC GETS GOOD START ON 1938 MODELS

Plant Prepares for Big Sales Increase.

Pontiac, Mich., Sept. 22.—[Special.]—The Pontiac division of the General Motors corporation has produced more than 5,000 of the 1938 model cars and now is turning out about 1,000 units a day, H. J. Klingler, president of the division, said here today at a preview of the new cars. The company had the shortest shutdown in its history for model change.

H. J. Klinger.

Klingler said that production on the 1937 cars continued until late in August and the first cars of the 1938 models started coming off the production line on Sept. 7, ahead of schedule. Details of the new cars will be announced soon.

Pontiac during the 1937 model run produced 236,000 cars, hanging up the largest production record in the division's history. The present program for 1938 calls for an increase of at least 20 per cent over that figure, he said.

"Cleaning Up" Old Models.

Klingler said that new 1937 cars and used cars in dealers' hands are now in the "cleanup stage" and indications are that the forthcoming model year will be the best in the company's history.

"For next year we are not only expanding plant facilities to provide dealers with more cars, but we are also geared up to produce parts for other divisions of the General Motors corporation," he said. "For the first time, on 1938 production, we shall supply 50,000 motors over and beyond our own requirements for another division to be used in heavy duty haulage work. During the 1937 model run, we produced over our own requirements 50 per cent of the axles for another division. Next year we shall build all their axles."

Millions for New Equipment.

Klingler said that millions of dollars have gone into new plant equipment to handle the extra volume. A considerable part of this money for expansion was used for new machinery and new conveyor lines in the motor department where, it is expected, 115,000 more motors will be built than in the 1937 season.

Among the buildings just completed, he said, is one for the training of apprentices. During the depression a shortage of skilled workers developed, he said, and the new school is to correct this situation.

Under the company's plan, boys 17 to 19 years old, mostly sons of plant employés, will be selected to take the four year course.

Middle West.

Investors' Guide: Please inform me as to Middle West's status.—F. T.

Answer: Middle West corporation was formed in November, 1935, as successor to Middle West Utilities company, which had been in receivership since collapse of the Insull "empire" in the spring of 1932.

The new corporation itself began business in good current financial condition, but with its earnings limited by a large accumulation of unpaid preferred dividends of subsidiaries. These accumulations amount to more than $20,000,000. Until they are settled, either by recapitalization of subsidiaries or payment in cash, the parent company cannot be expected to enjoy any large degree of prosperity, because its largest holdings consist of common stocks of the subsidiaries. It will benefit to some extent from payments of preferred arrears, however, because it has added to its holdings of subsidiary preferred stocks in the last several years.

Most important of the subsidiaries is Central and South West Utilities, itself a holding company. Other important subholding companies in the system are North West Utilities, Kentucky Utilities, and Middle West Utilities of Canada. Other subsidiaries include Central Illinois Public Service, Kansas Electric Power, Michigan Gas and Electric, United Public Service, Missouri Gas and Electric, and Lake Superior District Power companies.

In 1936, first full year of operation, the new company reported consolidated revenues of $55,280,000 and net income of $1,633,000, or 49 cents a share, after all deductions, including charges against the consolidated account for preferred dividends not earned by subsidiaries.

On the same basis, revenues were $28,398,000 and net income was $420,000, or 13 cents a share, in the first half of 1937, compared with $25,997,000 and $275,000, or 9 cents, in the first half of 1936.

Actual net income of the parent company was $549,000, or 16 cents a share, in 1936, and $244,000, or 8 cents a share, in the first half of 1937, compared with $217,000, or 7 cents a share, in the first half of 1936.

Capitalization consists of 3,310,757 shares of $5 par common stock, including 150,000 reserved for Middle West Utility shareholders who have not yet exchanged their old stock for new. In addition, 310,757 shares are reserved for exercise of warants issued to old stockholders.

The stock is highly speculative at present.

CATTLE REACH HIGHEST PRICE IN EIGHTEEN YEARS

Lambs Break Sharply, but Hogs Rout Weakness.

Top cattle soared to $19.50 yesterday, the highest level since December, 1919, when the all-time record of $21.50 was established. The growing shortage of highly finished corn fed steers and broadening eastern demand for this class of beef, despite high prices, were responsible for the upturn. An Iowa cattle feeder was paid the top for eighteen steers averaging 1,315 pounds, equal to $256 per head.

Several carloads of long fed steers sold from $19 to $19.35, but these grades were scarce. Most of the day's offerings ranged from $10 to $18.

Lambs Break Sharply.

A severe break occurred in lambs, slaughter stock selling 50 to 75 cents under the average of the preceding session. The decline was attributed to recent increases in supplies and a setback of $1 per 100 pounds in wholesale markets for fresh lamb. City butchers paid the $11 top for natives. Packers bought at $10.85 or lower.

Hog prices rallied after a steady to 10 cents lower opening, and closed unchanged from the preceding session. Both the top and average prices were unchanged at $12.45 and $11.55.

JULY INCOME LOWER

Farm income from live stock during July dropped below 1936 for the first time this year, the department of agriculture reported yesterday. The decline was the direct result of a smaller supply available for market. Packers under federal inspection paid out 123 million dollars during the month for cattle, calves, hogs, and sheep, compared with 133 millions in July, 1936.

The department also said packers realized a relatively smaller quantity of meat from processing their purchases than they did a year ago, obtaining 771,000,000 pounds, compared with 1,006,189,000 pounds a year ago. While costs were 93.3 per cent of July, 1936, meat production was only 76.6 per cent.

The following table shows payments to farmers, and meat production for July, 1937 and 1936:

	Payments to farmers [millions of dollars]. 1937.	1936.	Meat production [millions of pounds]. 1937.	1936.

You Chaps Who Have Had experience in the cookware field, look! We have the deal you have been looking for. Think of it—we cook a complete meal in less than 35 minutes instead of having to start at 2:30 or 3 o'clock. We start cooking at 6 and serve at 6:30 in the most useful equipment you have ever seen, put out by the largest company of its kind in the world. Real leads. Make us prove it. Real co-operation. Real opportunity for promotion as we need District Managers and Division Managers because we are expanding nationally. Highest cash commissions paid in advance. Free lecture gifts and you are completely equipped without 1 cent of deposit. Come and get it. You salesmen who have not had experience in the cookware field also invited to find out about a business that is not seasonable. Incomes of $50, $60, $75 a week and better are not unusual. Make us prove it. Demonstration of equipment will be held at 2 p. m. sharp today at 2714 West 36th-place, Chicago. Lunch will be served after demonstration.

DON'T FORGET, 2 P. M. SHARP.

What Kind of Job Are You Looking For?

Isn't a permanent position with good income and opportunity for advancement with a large company what you want? If you are a serious minded young man interested in your future and if you are 21 to 35 years of age and of neat appearance, a large public utility company will consider you for a position in the Appliance Sales Department. If you meet with the above qualifications and you have the right attitude, previous experience is unnecessary. The electrical business is a growing business and men in it receive good percentage plus bonus and drawing account. Apply today, Room 2500, 105 W. Adams, 9 to 11 a. m. only. Mr. Ward.

TO MEN OF AMBITION.

I shall interview for the head of an important business, men who are keenly interested and who can qualify and who are backed by at least 5 years of business or trade experience. They must be neat in appearance and capable of real work, because this is more of a job to start with than a position. The pay is good and it will increase with the right man.
This is a very unique electrical unit—and we are looking for commission merchants to put on a dealer basis, not mere salesmen. Ask for Mr. Hogan.
Apply New Lawrence Hotel, 1020 Lawrence-avenue, between 10:30 and 12. Thursday, September 23d.

Looking for a Job?

TODAY ONLY.

I will employ 3 men over 21 years of age for the educational field. If you think you can qualify for this position and will give yourself time to learn our business call for appointment Thursday only. This will pay a good substantial commission right at the start. No waiting a week for your money. Make it daily. Call personnel director at Sherman Hotel, Room 425. Time, from 10 to 12, 2 to 5.

MAN.

We want a man to build into a successful business in Chicago. We manufacture and merchandise our own electrical units completely. Opportunity for future is unusual. Married man, 25 to 40 preferred, who is ambitious to hold a responsible sales position at good pay. Advanced commission and bonus. Apply Thursday from 10:30 to 11 a. m. at 3 W. Madison, Room 250, Oak Pk.

HELP WANTED—MEN.

Salesmen.

MEN FOR A PERMANENT POSITION.

My company has authorized me to employ ten men immediately who live in Chicago or vicinity, test them out for several days while in training without any expense or cost whatsoever to these men and place them immediately in our Chicago branches on a permanent basis, with liberal participation in the profits with no investment.

Steadiness and good character needed—not ability to talk, nor a clientele nor any previous experience. We are not advertising for salesmen—because our method of putting our prospects into the market is so unusual that it must be taught especially—but it is so simple to learn that no time need be lost in getting started. While getting started men of average ability must be willing to get along on reasonable weekly earnings, commissions and bonuses. You learn from practical men earning substantial incomes every week.

We do not require men with electrical unit sales experience because this work is so different from sales jobs as interpreted by the great majority of men. However, to be accepted, you must be willing to work hard and study to qualify for the larger pay schedules. Apply to personnel manager, Room 604, 20 East Jackson-boulevard, Chicago, on Thursday, Sept. 23, between 10:30 a. m. and 12 noon only.

JOHNS MANVILLE'S

distributor will employ 2 South Side men with car, between the ages of 30-40, to sell home improvement work. We are interested only in clean cut, energetic, ambitious men. Nominal drawing account against commission to selected applicants. 735 West 55th-street.

COMMONWEALTH EDISON COMPANY.

There are several openings in our Appliance Sales Department for neat appearing, ambitious young men, over 20 years of age, willing to start at the bottom and earn promotion by honest and persistent effort. Experience unnecessary. Thorough training and co-operation given. Compensation: Drawing accounts and liberal commission and bonus to me who qualify. Apply Room 1807, 72 West Adams-street 8:00 a. m. to 12:00 noon, and 2:00 to 4:00 p. m.

A. A. A. SALESMEN ONLY.

High grade experienced men not under 35. States now being opened. Exclusive arrangement will enable you to build your own dealer business. If you think streamlined automobiles and balloon tires were accepted quickly, then come in and see what you think Sieberlings Sealleak means to every car owner in America.
An attractive commission arrangement for you and a real deal for your dealers. Apply general manager, mornings, 9 a. m. to 12, Room 315, 4750 Sheridan-road.

Dignified High Grade Men.

If you comply with above will place you in adjoining states with trainer who proves commission basis of $100 per week and more, on educational work for nationally known institution. Must be able to interview executives—leads furnished.
Interviews on the hour, 10 to 1 p. m.

C. J. SCUTTE,

1235 OLD COLONY BLDG.

WE HAVE AN OPENING IN OUR SALESforce for two alert and energetic salesmen, between the ages of 24-40, who can qualify to sell Chevrolet cars with the best established dealer on the north west side; drawing account and commission; car furnished to those who can qualify; automobile selling experience not necessary. Apply in person to Mr. Fritz or Mr. McCullough, 4114 Irving Park-boulevard.

Crowd of 41,875 Sees Giants Defeat Cubs, 6 to 0—Mercury Sets Record on Last Day of Summer

SEASON'S LARGEST SINGLE GAME CROWD SEES GIANTS DEFEAT CUBS TO EVEN CRUCIAL SERIES—Aerial view of the throng of 41,875 which packed Wrigley field yesterday. The weather was ideal, with the temperature at nearly 90 degrees, and most fans removed their coats, as white spots in crowd show. However, the outcome of the game was disappointing, for the New York Giants won, 6 to 0, to increase their lead in the pennant race to 2½ games. The teams meet again today in the final game of the series. In this picture the new Cub bleachers can be seen filled with spectators. It was the largest Cub single game crowd of the season, due to the interest in the flag race and the summer weather. (Story on page 1.)

SCORING FIRST RUN FOR GIANTS—Jimmy Ripple, outfielder, crossing the plate in the second inning while Whitehead was forcing Mancuso. Catcher Hartnett is watching Herman, Jurges, and Collins as they failed to complete a double play. [TRIBUNE Photo.]

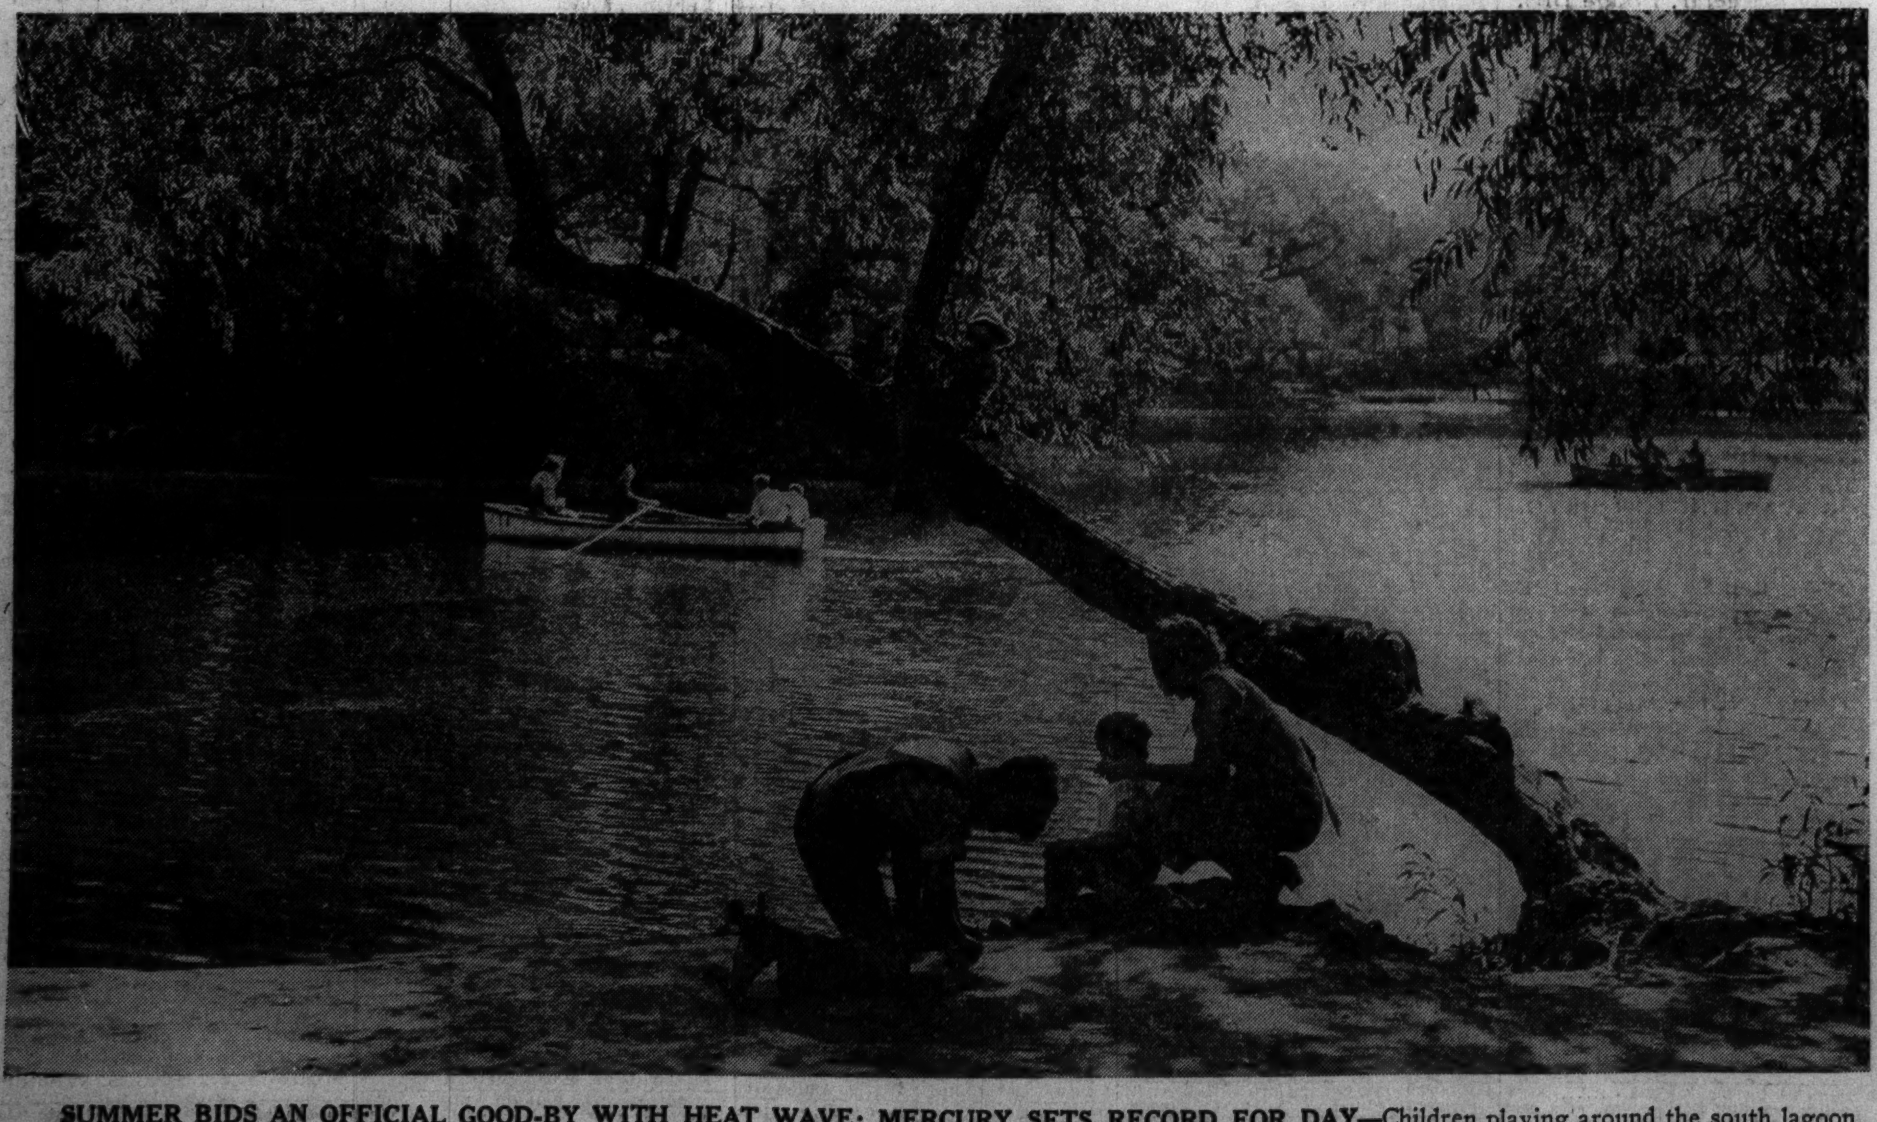
ONLY THREE CUBS REACH SECOND BASE, AND IN THIS CASE COLLINS DIDN'T—Rip Collins was out at second in the 7th inning, Bartell to Whitehead, when he tried to stretch a single into a double. Umpire Stewart is calling the play. Only three Cubs set foot on second as Cliff Melton allowed six hits, and none reached third.



SUMMER BIDS AN OFFICIAL GOOD-BY WITH HEAT WAVE; MERCURY SETS RECORD FOR DAY—Children playing around the south lagoon in Lincoln park yesterday while the mercury rose to 90 2-10 degrees, a record for the day, from a low of 61 degrees at 7 a. m. The all time heat record for this season of the year is 90 8-10 degrees, set on Sept. 24, 1901. Furthermore, the forecaster promises more summery weather for today. With Chicago children still out of school because of the infantile paralysis outbreak many thousands took advantage of the ideal day for outings in the parks and at the beaches. [TRIBUNE Photo.] (Story on page 9.)

CAVARRETTA STUNNED BY COLLISION WITH HERMAN IN NINTH—Phil Cavarretta, Cubs center fielder, on ground after crashing into Billy Herman while they chased a fly ball. The mishap occurred while the Giants were scoring three runs and forced Cavarretta to leave the game. He will probably be able to play today.
